Campfire Girls Have Busy Time Winding Up Work

Mill City Campfire Girls have had a busy two weeks finishing up their work for the year.

A week ago the older group, under the direction of Mrs. Lee Knowles, leader, and Mrs. Ben Ibeson, assistant leader, held a picnic for their families in the city park. The girls planned the menu, cooked and served the meal alone.

Past weekend they enjoyed their final Camp-Out of the year at Breitenbush. Here the girls cooked their meals over a camp-fire and slept outside in sleeping bags. They also earned their swimming, hiking, and nature honors. The girls making up this group are Carol Cooke, Linda Dyhrman, Naomi and Olive Taylor, Carol Veness, Shereen Muir, Lynne Smith, Carol Andrews, Sandra Olson, Marcella Warriner, Judy Hoeye, and Sibyl Dart.

The girls also had a wiener roast last Monday at Moore's grove after school instead of their regular meeting.

Plans have been completed for the girls' attendance at Camp Kilowan near Falls City during the summer sessions.

Girls Enjoy Overnight Outing at Scout Cabin

Mrs. Leonard Herman's Campfire group went on an overnight trip this past weekend to the Boy Scout cabin on the Little Northfork.

Assisting Mrs. Herman with the girls was Mrs. Roger Nelson, one of the sponsors for the group. Those going were Linda Herman, Carol Merrill, Mary Lou Andrews, Sandra Meador, Frances Nesbitt and Sandra Thomas.

Linen Shower Given Miss Gerry Hamblin

Mrs. W. B. Shuey gave a linen shower for Miss Gerry Hamblin, past worthy advisor of Rainbow Girls, at her home Monday evening. The time was spent informally, with the opening of the gifts and the serving of refreshments as chief centers of interest.

Attending were Geraldine Hamblin, the guest of honor, Barbara Podrabsky, Annette Melting, Nancy Olsen, Frances Johnson, Frances Ward, Sherry Hansen, Jan Ross, Virginia Hollibaugh, Zeta Crosier, Rosalie Bassett, Penny Gould, Camille Goble, and Mrs. Shuey. Others sending gifts were Lynda Dyhrman, Joyce Watkins, Judy Haseman, and Janette Huffman.

Louise Oliver Elected To Head Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion auxiliary held a special election meeting in the Legion hall Tuesday night.

Officers chosen for the coming year are: Louise Oliver, president; Martha Barney, 1st vice president; Tearly Muir, 2nd vice president; Anita Beckler, secretary; Sunny Chance, Treasurer pro tem; historian, Dorothy Vail; chaplain, Joan Cauble and Sergeant at arms, Rose Daly.

Delegates chosen to attend the State Convention at Coos Bay in July are Louise Oliver and Joan Cauble. Alternates are Tearly Muir and Sunny Chance.

Tabulation of donations for Poppy Window cards was made and the Auxiliary wishes to thank all who have contributed for them.

Mrs. A.E. Westgaard left for Montana Sunday where she will complete arrangement for the wedding of her daughter, Joyce, who will be married today. This is the former home of the Westgaards.

Judy Haseman to Head Rainbow

Installation of officers for Marilyn Assembly, Order for Rainbow for Girls, was held at lodge hall Saturday evening, May 15. Mother Advisor Fern Shuey introduced the following installing officers: worthy advisor, Penney Gould; marshal, Geraldine Hamblin; musician, Frances Johnson; chaplain, Eleanor Mieziva, worthy advisor of Chadwick Assembly.

Officers installed for the 1954 summer term were: worthy advisor, Judy Haseman; worthy associate advisor, Janette Huffman; Charity, Sherry Hansen; Hope, Joyce Watkins; Faith, Francis Ward; Chaplain, Carol Andreassen; drill leader, Jan Ross; associate drill leader, Anna Marie Hirte; love, Carol Cooke; religion, Audrey Shaw; nature, Lynda Dyhrman; immortality, Karen Andreassen; fidelity, Zita Crosier; patriotism, Norma Downer; service, Virginia Hollibaugh; confidential observer, Beverley Roberts; musician, Barbara Podrabsky; choir director, Donalee Oliver.

Choir, Jackie Bickett, Louise Haun, Rosalie Bassett, Nancy Porter, Camille Goble, Helen Johnson; recorder, Donna Bengston, and treasurer, Nancy Olson, the last two installed in January for one year.

The crowning ceremony for the new worthy advisor, Judy Haseman, was put on by Silver Falls Chapter of DeMolay boys, after which they presented her with a large bouquet of red roses.

Introduced as members of the Advisory board were Mabel Parker, Ethel Huffman, Leora Stevens, Doris Haseman, Laurell Johnson, Robert Draper, George Huffman, Wilson Stevens, William Shuey, Fern Shuey, and Opal McRoberts, associate mother advisor. O. K. Hirte is also a member of the board.

Judy Haseman introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haseman of Idanha, her father presenting her with a gavel. The mother advisor presented Penney Gould, out-going worthy advisor, with her white Rainbow Bible.

Master Councilor Eugene Helsler of Molalla was presented with a scrapbook from Marilyn Assembly for the boys' assistance in the ceremony.

Entertainment during the evening consisted of a solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Rev. Noble Streeter, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Sheythe, and a vocal duet, "I Walked Today," by Mrs. Harry Dyhrman and Mrs. Sheythe, with Mrs. Lee Ross as accompanist.

An original degree, written by Jan Ross, was put on by Marilyn Assembly in honor of the new worthy advisor, who was presented with a gift. The majority award was presented to Donna Cooke by Mrs. Shuey.

Under "Good of the Order," introductions included the following: Mrs. Jack French, new Mother Advisor of Cherry Assembly of Salem, which is to be instituted on June 6; Mrs. Robert Foster, Worthy Matron of Trinity Chapter of Salem, sponsors of the new assembly; Ed Helsler, Dad Advisor of Silver Falls Chapter of DeMolay; and Robert Draper, Worshipful Master of Mill City Lodge, No. 180, A. F. & A. M.

At the close of the affair, refreshments were served by members of the advisory board.

Friendship Circle Meets At Charles Kelly Home

Friendship Circle of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Kelly Tuesday evening. Acting as chairman, due to the absence of Mary Tuers, was Virginia Hoeye. Betty Streeter served as secretary.

Marian Todd reviewed the book, "Hand on My Shoulder," by Gabino Rendon, after which Bernice Gordon gave highlights from pamphlets, "Within These Borders," and "For Day By Day Living."

At the close of the program refreshments were served to the eleven present by the hostess, assisted by Peggy Becker.

Nine members of the Mill City Garden club spent Tuesday afternoon touring the Cooley Iris Gardens at Silverton, and report the sight well worth the trip. Those going were: Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Ike Myers, Mrs. Adolph Brunner, Mrs. Joe Fencil, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. W. W. Allen, and Mrs. Wendell Heller and Mary Suzanne.

Hospital Auxiliary Meets At Ted Freres Home

The hospital auxiliary of the Santiam Memorial hospital, Stayton, held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ted Freres with Mrs. Matt Martin, and Mrs. Ward Inglis as co-hostess. Keith Thompson gave an interesting talk on the Blue Cross program.

President, Mrs. Heinrichs, reported that on hospital day, the interested junior and senior girls were conducted on a tour of the hospital and refreshments were served them. It was said at the meeting that the hospital needs jams, jellies, small juice glasses, water glasses and dish towels.

A collection was taken up at the meeting, and was used for shrubs for the hospital grounds.

There is a drive on for members to the auxiliary. Mrs. John Frank is chairman and co-chairmen and towns are: Mrs. John Teeters, Mehama; Mrs. Roman Kintz, Stayton; Mrs. Betty Klutke, Gates; Miss Bea Hiatt and Mrs. Wilson Stevens, Lyons, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mill City, Mrs. Lora Rand, West Stayton.

The next meeting will be at the West Stayton grade school June 17.

Mrs. James Poole, clerk at the local post office, was unable to show up for work Tuesday due to getting a piece of steel in her leg while splitting wood with a wedge at her home. She was taken to a physician.
