MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters
The two weeks vacation Bible school held at the Mehama church ended with a program Friday evening. The theme of this year's school was "Pioneering for Christ," and was interesting to those attending. There was an average attendance of about 40 children with five teachers and five or six helpers.
Mrs. Chris McDonald and son "Bud" returned last Wednesday from Akron, Colorado, where they visited a week with Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. Nettie Wallen and other relatives and friends.
Weekend guests at the Frank Kimery home were Mrs. Kimery's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin from Portland.
The Martin Diesberg family have moved to Estacada after living here for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Rains have purchased the house vacated by the Diesbergs and moved in the first of the week.
Robert Draper spent most of last week in Portland attending the sessions of the Masonic grand lodge.
Visiting Thursday and Friday of last week at the Otis Marks home were Mrs. Marks two sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Busch from Sacramento, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferris of Portland. This was the first time Mrs. Marks and Mrs. Busch had been together for over 13 years.
Alameda Coffman returned home Sunday after spending a week attending Girls State in Salem.
