Oddfellow-Rebekah Installation Held Here Saturday Night

Public installation ceremonies were held jointly for Mill City Lodge, No. 144, IOOF; Santiam Rebekah Lodge, No. 166; and Beta Kappa Club, No. 58, Theta Rho Girls; at the Oddfellow hall Saturday night.

For the Theta Rho Girls, Anna Mae McClintock acted as installing officer; Norma Lee Hennes, installing chaplain; and Antonia Thomas, was installing marshal.

Officers installed were: junior past president, Roberta Chance; president, Aloha Thomas; vice president, Darlene Joaquin; secretary-treasurer, Ellen Chance; chaplain, Jaunita Thomas; marshal, Roberta Chance; warden, Lynn Smith; guardian, Ruth Hess; musician, Colleen Edison; and right supporter to the president, Anna Mae McClintock. The girls presented their advisors, Allura Chance and Antonia Thomas, with gifts.

Joint installation for the Oddfellows and Rebekahs was conducted by Otto Koenke, special deputy; district deputy presidents, Carmen Barnhardt and Vern Thomas; district deputy grand marshalls, Ruby Brisbin and Walter Thomas; grand musician, Grace Hutchinson; grand wardens, Mel Robinson and Charley Stewart; grand secretaries, Ida Fleetwood and Claude Brudner; and grand treasurers, Wilma Stewart and George Veteto.

Junior Past Noble Grands for the two lodges are Eva Duffy and Jack McClintock, respectively.

Officers installed were as follows: noble grands, Marie Stewart and Jack McClintock; vice grands, Charley Stewart and Ruth Hess; treasurers, Dell Smith and Ada Plymale; secretaries, Carmen Barnhardt and Vern Thomas; wardens, Ann Crook and Stanley Vail; conductors, Norma Lee Hennes and Otto Witt; chaplains, Dean Jackson and George Veteto; musician, Ruby Brisbin; color bearer, Louise Oliver.

RSNG, Albert Harris and Blanche Syverson; LSNG, Jack Gulliford and Julia Bassett; RSVG, Wilma Stewart and Otto Koenke; LSVG, Dorothy Vail and Elmer Stewart; Inside Guardians, Ida Fleetwood and Walter Thomas; Outside Guardians, Al Yankus and Goldie Rambo.

A gift from Santiam Rebekah Lodge, No. 166, and a past noble grand pin were presented to Eva Duffy, who, in turn, presented gifts to each of her officers for their cooperation during the past year.

Several visitors from Stayton attended the ceremonies, including Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brudner, former longtime residents here. Another welcome visitor was Crissie Henderson of Redmond, former member here, who has transferred her membership to Sisters, Oregon.

At the close of the full evening of festivities, refreshments were served in the dining room.

Overnight guests at the Frank Merrill home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Don Alexander from Oregon City.

Star Holds Dinner Preceding Meeting

A covered dish dinner, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Shuey and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Toman, preceded the regular meeting of Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, Order of the Eastern Star, at the lodge hall Monday night.

At this meeting, the annual School of Instruction was held, with Mrs. Carlotta Wiseman of Grants Pass, Associate Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, making her official visit to instruct the officers in their work for the coming year.

Mrs. Clara Morris, new Worthy Matron, was in charge of the evening, assisted by the newly-installed Worthy Patron, Floyd Johnson.

During a recess, several high school girls, headed by Rainbow Girl Jan Ross, sang several numbers. Taking part were Roberta and Willa Loucks, Virginia Bilyeu, and Jan Ross.

A short degree was put on by the officers and Courtesy Ladies for the pleasure of the visiting grand officer, who was presented with a gift.

It was announced that a special meeting will be held on Monday night, January 31, for the purpose of electing an associate matron. A practice session for officers will also be conducted after the meeting.

This Saturday night, public installation ceremonies will be held here for Marilyn Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and the Santiam Chapter of DeMolay boys. Miss Sherry Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen, will be installed as Worthy Advisor of the Rainbow Girls.

Two New Members Join Rebekah Lodge

The initiatory degree was put on by Santiam Rebekah lodge at the hall Wednesday night of last week for two new candidates for membership, Mrs. Etta Reed and Mrs. Edith Cann, both of Gates.

A tribute, in the form of a degree, was put on by Ruth Hess and Dorothy Vail in honor of all past noble grands who were present.

Marie Stewart, the Noble Grand-elect, gave the unwritten work, prior to her installation in office Saturday.

Eva Duffy, during her last meeting as Noble Grand, asked that each member present state one thing for which they were thankful the past year.

Five members of Faith Rebekah lodge in Lyons were present. Mrs. Ethel Wills, a member of the Sweet Home Lodge, who is now residing here, was also in attendance.

Officers of the three Link Club, which met Tuesday, are Eva Duffy, president; Jennie Davis, vice president; and Ann Crook, secretary-treasurer.

Refreshments were served in the dining room following the meeting by all those who were not past noble grands.

Olivette Nutter and Fred Roles Married in Albany

In a quiet ceremony at 3 p. m., Dec. 28, Olivette Nutter and Fred A. Roles Jr., exchanged the marriage vows. Standing before Judge Arnold in his chambers in Albany, the couple was attended by Mr. Downer and Mr. James Paige II. The bride chose to wear a midnight blue sheath dress with pink accessories and carried a delicate nosegay of carnations.

Mr. Roles is employed in Independence by the R. C. Roles Interstate Shingle Company. Mrs. Roles, who is currently teaching home economics in the high school here, intends to continue her career. The two have made tentative plans for a wedding trip to Mexico in June.

Sunday School Association To Meet Saturday, Jan. 15

A meeting of the National Sunday School association of Marion county will be held at the North Howell Community church Saturday, January 15, starting at 9:30 a.m.

The program will feature special speakers, forums on the work of superintendents, adult teachers, and children's teachers, a missionary speaker, a progress report, election of officers, and a film on teaching.

Everyone interested in Sunday school work is invited to attend. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch; coffee furnished by the association.
