LYONS

By Eva Bressler

The Lyons Home Extension members have been invited to attend a district picnic July 27 at 11 a. m. at Avery park in Corvallis. It will be a pot luck affair with each member asked to bring one dish for the meal and table service for one.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kroutwick from Toledo were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Asmusson. Mrs. Clara McRae of Woodburn visited relatives and friends in Lyons and Fox Valley. The McRaes are former residents of this community. Miss Norma Miller of Eugene spent the weekend in Lyons. She was a guest at the home of Mrs. Alice Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trask, Pamela and Durk, of Portland, were Sunday guests at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Inez Ring.

Mrs. Samuel Roberts, who is as associate mother advisor of the Rainbow for Girls at Mill City, enjoyed an outing with 11 of the girls at Breitenbush Hot Springs. They spent Wednesday and Thursday at the Springs, all reporting a lovely time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burgess of Klamath Falls were weekend guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Bassett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen left Sunday for Paulina Lake, where they will spend the week. Leota Worden is substituting on the mail route while he is away.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Naue and sons, Donnie and Mickie, of Sweet Home were weekend guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Naue. Additional Saturday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Conser from Lebanon, Mrs. Conser is the former Miss Ruby Naue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Scott of Salem, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Richard Scott at the Methodist parsonage.

Thursday overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rogers were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Budrevich, Glenda and Steven from Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Boylan from Scappoose were weekend guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reisterer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Pennington spent the weekend at The Dalles, where they were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cunningham. Their two little sons, Terry and Michael, who had been visiting their grandparents returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jahnke, who recently sold their farm on McCully Mountain to Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Carpenter from California, moved over the weekend to their new home in Aumsville.

Ann Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Powell had the misfortune Friday to fall from her horse, breaking her collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thiel left by plane from Portland Tuesday for Chicago, where they will spend two weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nydegger are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a grandson, Theodore James, a son born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Primus of Astoria. The young man has an older sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Burmester have returned from a vacation trip which took them to Redmond, from where they went north to the Columbia river and on to Pendleton, Milton-Free water, Walla Walla, Pasco and Kennewick, Wash. They then went north to Grand Coulee dam and into Canada.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston of Culver, former residents of Lyons that they have received word of the birth of their first grandchild, a son born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everette P. Smyth in Wertheim, Germany. The young man weighed 7 pounds and 1 ounce and

Douglas Fir Shipment Records Are Released

Douglas fir lumber shipments, orders and production figures for June were released today by Harris E. Smith, secretary of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

The weekly average of West Coast lumber production in June was 188,568,000 board feet or 100.6% of the 1950-54 average. Orders averaged 199,844,000 b.f.; shipments 204,968,000 b.f. Weekly averages for May were: production, 180,805,000 b.f.; 101.3% of the 1950-54 average. Orders 187,753,000 b.f.; shipments 192,108,000 b.f. Six months of 1955 cumulative production 5,057,000 b.f.; six months of 1954, 4,795,305,000 b. f. Six months of 1955, 5,181,817,000 b. f.

Orders for six months of 1955 break down as follows: rail and truck 3,777,348,000 b.f.; domestic cargo, 1,011,511,000 b.f.; export 136,977,000 b. f.; local 190,869,000 b. f.

The industry's unfilled order file stood at 831,915,000 b.f. at the end of June, gross stocks at 866,458,000 board feet.

has been named Steven Everette. Mrs. Smyth will be remembered as Miss Shirley Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jensen from Peder, Nebraska, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield and Bob. The two families were friends while the Brassfields lived in Nebraska.

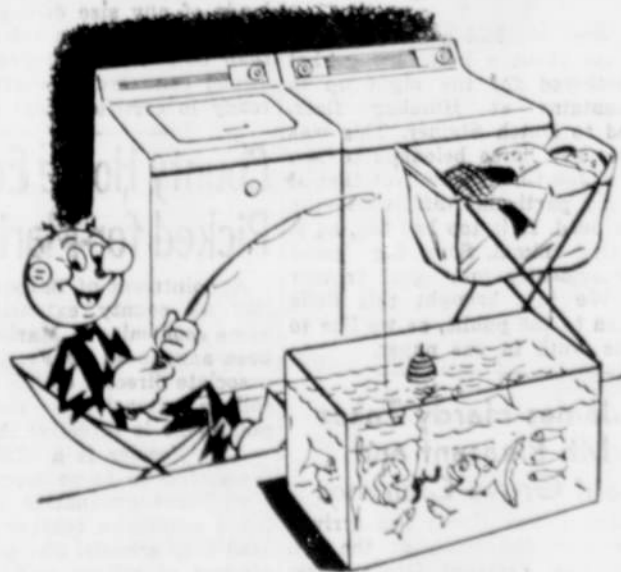

Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman spent several days this week visiting relatives in Washington. They visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Strom and family at Ferndale, Wash. They then went to Seattle where they met their daughter, Jeanette, who arrived by plane from Alaska and returned home with them. Miss Jerry Cruson is spending two weeks in Medford with the O'Keita family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Barr from Tacoma were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Goodell. While here they, with the Goodells, visited at the Max Montgomery home in Roseburg and spent a couple of days at Depoe Bay.

Some people in Lyons may now oversleep in the mornings due to the fact that the old Mt. Jefferson Mill whistle is no more. The old mill is now a thing of the past, and the whistle which was blown regularly at 6:30 a. m. is greatly missed in the community. It seemed to answer as an alarm clock for many.
