DETROIT

By Boots Champion

Mrs. Dave Oja who has been confined in the Vets hospital in Portland for the past month, where she underwent throat surgery, returned to her home in Detroit Saturday. She will return to the hospital periodically for checkups.

Jerry Rosemond was confined to Salem General hospital Tuesday for further medical attention. Jerry lost an eye in a mishap about two weeks ago when a screwdriver slipped and plunged into his eye while he was attempting to fix a logging truck.

Lawrence Trask was taken to Santiam Memorial hospital at Stayton with a broken leg a week ago Tuesday following a logging accident. Trask, a choker setter, for the Christian Logging Co., reportedly was walking along side of the "cat" when it slipped sideways in the mud, the blade striking him above the ankle.

Word was received here last week that Mrs. Leonard Bullard (Carrie Clester) of The Dalles, underwent major surgery at a Portland hospital last week. The Bullards were former Detroit residents.

Moving from here last week to Sweet Home were Mrs. Art Clester and children, and Mrs. Irene Dame-wood and children.

Ketchum's Lunch closed Monday evening for the winter. Business will be resumed again in the Spring.

The Detroit high school will hold their annual Bingo party Friday, November 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the school gym. Carnival decorations will spark the affair. Added attractions will be movies, cake walk, and a fish pond. Hot dogs and coffee will be served.

A quiet Hallowe'en was reported here Monday night. A Hallowe'en party held at the Detroit church for the kiddies beginning at 7 p. m. attracted about 50 of the small fry. In tune with the goblins and witches the church was decorated in Hallowe'en motif. Games were played and refreshments served. Costume prizes were awarded. Receiving first prize was Timmy DeLano who came in a hobo costume. Winning second prize was little Cathy White, who was real cute in a Bunny costume. And last but not least, little Raymond Sophy, Jr., was awarded a prize for the best home made mask (blackened face.)

Among elk hunters getting their elk in the area was Carl Ball and Carl Juhl. They were hunting in the Breitenbush area.

Mrs. Joe Leis returned home Sunday evening after spending a few days last week with relatives in Portland.

Weekend visitors at the Harold Champion home were Mrs. Champion's sister, Mrs. Emma Ramage, and children Joan and Webb. Other recent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmer, all of Salem.

The Civic club will hold their regular meeting Wednesday, November 2 at 8 p. m. at the home of Helen Bryant. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Ralph Swayze, Mrs. Glen Davidson, and Mrs. Marie Terril. Refreshments will be served.

School Supt. Harold Regele, accompanied by a group of students left Tuesday morning for Portland to purchase prizes for the "bingo party" which will be held Friday in the school gym.

Mrs. Braxton Fouts returned to her home in Idanha Saturday after undergoing medical treatment at a Salem hospital for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Marion Alderman of Idanha is, visiting with her mother in La-Grand, while Marion is elk hunting in Eastern Oregon. They plan to return this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watkins accompanied by their daughter, Joyce, of Idanha left here Tuesday morning for Portland where Miss Watkins will entrain for Riverside, Calif. for a visit with her uncle and family the David Davises.

The Idanha Community church held a masquerade party Monday evening for the young folks of intermediate age from 9 to 11:30 p. m. An old barn decorated in "Hallowe'en motif" was used for the affair. An added feature was a "haunted house" fixed up with skeletons, etc., which added zest to the occasion. Games were played and refreshments of donuts and cider were served to the young folk. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes.

Last Sunday was Missionary Rally day at the Idanha Community church. Guest speakers at the morning services were Rev. and Mrs. Pete Peters, western representatives of the International Christian Leprosy Mission with headquarters in Portland. Rev. Peters showed pictures slides of the leprosy work being done in India and the Philippine Islands. In the evening Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Gookin, who are here on Missionary furlough from Venezuela, showed picture slides and gave a short talk of their work in South America. They also showed curios they brought from South America.

Old man winter roared in over the weekend bringing more snow to the higher elevations and dumping about 2½ inches of snow in Detroit and Idanha as of Monday. Logging operations have been disrupted in most locations. The forest reports that tree planting in the Straight Creek area has also been disrupted for the present.

Alsea High school romped to their seventh straight BLMP six-man football win here Friday afternoon, defeating Detroit 47-0.
