GATES

Mrs. Albert Millsap
Bob Oliver returned Sunday from a hunting trip in Eastern Oregon. Bob shot a five point elk, of which he is very proud. He got him on the first shot. He shared the kill with his companion who was not so lucky.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker of Stayton, who came bringing a turkey dinner with them. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Swan (Carol Klecker), Kathy and Mike, of Salem; Miss Janet Klecker, Kristene, Jeffrey, Lee and Rodney Klecker. The family is not superstitious, just 13 at the table.

A special meeting of the Gates Woman's club was called by the president, Mrs. Percy Mulligan, at her home Sunday afternoon. The business was discussed before Mrs. Mulligan served refreshments to Mrs. Philip Cann, Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Philip Hess, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Orville Nygaard and Mrs. Albert Millsap.

Keith Henness and Tom McMurdy of Arcata, Calif., were overnight guests at the Glen Henness home Thursday. Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, of Dallas. They called at the homes of Mrs. Frankie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Heath, relatives, and former friends during their visit.

The Gates schools will be dismissed Wednesday and Thursday, while the teachers attend Teachers' Institute in Albany those two days. Friday is Veterans Day, so school will not resume until Monday.

Mrs. G. B. Frost, will serve as group leader at the Teachers' Institute in Albany for upper elementary grades, in the study of "Public Relations" and "Teacher's Ethics."

Last week's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nygaard was Mrs. Edith Schultz, from Milton. Mrs. Schultz and Mrs. Nygaard are sisters.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey were Mr. and Mrs. Clare Anderson and daughter, Kay, from Gresham. Mrs. Anderson is Mr. Bailey's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Edholm had as their guest this week, Mrs. Edholm's sister, Mrs. Amy Buresh, from Ross, Wyoming. She also visited relatives in Albany, Scio and Oregon City while in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Row and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ratzburg, all of Salem, were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Ratzburg's father and sister, L. T. Henness and Mrs. Lillie Lake. Local guests during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roten, all of Mill City. Mr. Henness, who observed his 101st birthday last September, has been seriously ill and is still under a doctor's care. He is reported to be improved to some extent, but is still ill.

Mrs. G. B. Frost, who took members of the GAA of Gates high school to the Cascade Union High Saturday reports that out of the more than 100 girls present at the Volleyball Play Day, a Gates student, Jessie Cupts, took third high score. Schools represented were South Salem High, Central High, Silverton, Stayton, Jefferson, Scio and Gates.

Among those from Gates attending the Shrine Club benefit, held at the Ercill Wilson home, in Mehama, Saturday evening, were Mayor and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hiner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. Margaret Clise, Percy Mulligan, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Frost.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1955

MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters

The Club room and tables of the Women's club house were beautifully decorated with Virginia creeper and chrysanthemums for the meeting of the Women's club Tuesday evening, November 1. The entertainment for the evening was furnished by Rev. Richard Scott and the two small daughters of the Earl Helemns, all from Lyons. Dawn Helemn played several numbers on the accordion and also accompanied her little sister, Sandra, who sang, "Christopher Robin Is Saying His Prayers," and "Davey Crockett." Rev. Scott sang a humorous song with motions and costume on the hunting theme.

Mrs. Raymond Branch and Mrs. Art Anderson were hostesses and served cookies and coffee at the close of the business meeting.

Mrs. Larry Prichard, Mrs. M. M. Miley and Mrs. Ollie Rater were hostesses for the Hot Lunch club meeting in the school basement on Thursday, Nov. 3. Room mothers for the year were appointed as follows: Mrs. Austin Longfellow and Mrs. Donald Teeters for Mrs. Myers room and Mrs. Gilbert Tipton and Mrs. Joseph Spencer for Mrs. Hubbard's room. It was decided to have home made cookies again this year for the children's Christmas treats and to see if ready made boxes could be found for them. A good percentage of mothers were present for the meeting.

Visitors for several days last week at the Raymond Branch home were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Branch and twin daughters, and Mrs. Etta Branch all from Midvale, Idaho. Mrs. Etta Branch is an aunt of Raymond Branch and Milton Branch is a cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Patton from Lacombe visited Friday with Mr. Patton's mother, Mrs. Mabel Patton.

Monday and Tuesday guests last week at the Louis Kirkland home were friends and former neighbors of the Kirklands, Mr. and Mrs. George Jergenson from Seattle.

Mrs. R. E. Shields returned home from Fort Lewis, Wash., last Thursday where she spent several days helping her daughter's family, Pfc. and Mrs. John Mack and baby son, get settled in their trailer. Mrs. Mack has been staying with her parents here for the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Stensland (Deanie McDonald) from Pacific City were weekend guests at the Chris McDonald home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Griffiths visited during the weekend with the Ralph Boring family in Eugene.

Rev. James Hardy returned home Saturday from Springfield, Mo., where he attended the second Presbyterian National Town and Country Church conference. Mrs. Hardy and children spent the weekend visiting with her parents at Pasco, Wash.

Guest speaker at the Mehama church Sunday was The Rev. Dr. John Furnas of Portland. Dr. Furnas is field representative in Oregon for the Board of Christian Education.

Mrs. Raymond Branch visited Friday with her sister and family, Mrs. Eva Ensley at Junction City.

Mrs. G. W. Coffman accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Keys from Stayton visited with Alameda Coffman in Corvallis Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Al Molnar and son, Jimmy, from Oak Grove, visiting during the weekend at the Frank Buckler home.

More Accidents Happen On Highways at Night

More than half of Oregon's fatal traffic accidents take place at night when there are considerably fewer cars on the road than in daylight, analysis of reports reveal.

Of the 359 fatal smash-ups reported last year, 188 were listed as taking place during hours of darkness and 79 of the 152 fatalities reported in the first half of 1955 happened after dark.

A basic reason for this paradox is the driver's disregard of the obvious fact that darkness hides danger.

Some drivers seem to forget that at night a stalled car, a pedestrian in the roadway or any other object can't possibly be seen until it comes within headlight range. Then the hazard seems to loom up out of nowhere.

Weapons to combat these dangers are a pair of good headlights, a speed that won't outrace those lights, and a constant attitude of alertness.

Longer hours of darkness and stormy weather which reduces visibility even further will face all drivers and pedestrians in the months again. Through August, Oregon traffic deaths numbered 251 as compared with 247 at the same time a year ago.
