George Stewart and Arlo Tuers returned last week with their elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies visited friends in Springfield Sunday.

Lloyd Hinkle, who is attending Bible school in Seattle, spent the weekend at his home here.

Dr. Kenneth Prince will have his office open in Mill City Saturdays only during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt, and son, Brian, spent the weekend visiting relatives in the Portland and Gresham area.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill of Salem, are spending a few days this week at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. F. Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stover and children made a trip to Mt. Hood Tuesday. They reported not too much snow on the mountain at the present time.

The Woman's Council of the Christian church will meet Wednesday, November 16 at 2 p. m. in the church basement, with Mrs. E. K. Fish as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Draper motored to Portland Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. Draper's mother, Mrs. Jack Johnson, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Al Buenaman.

Bill Hoffman, former resident here, but lately of Auburn, Wash., was scheduled to leave Thursday for Parks AFB, near San Francisco. Hoffman graduated here in 1953.

Airman Michael Podrabsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Podrabsky writes his parents that he had fractured a knee while serving with the Air Force at an Alaskan airbase.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Cole, son Fred, and Charles McGee, of Salem, were Sunday visitors at the Jay Masons. At the Mason home this week is Mrs. W. C. Taylor, who arrived here from Seattle Monday.

Patty June Stewart and John J. Payton, wish to take this means of inviting their friends to their wedding Saturday, November 26 at 8 p. m. at the Presbyterian church in Mill City. There will be a reception following the ceremony.

According to Chuck Lovell, his step-son, Richard Anderson, is now with the U. S. Army in Korea. He was originally at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and attended electronics school in Aberdeen, Maryland, finishing at the head of his class.

Jim Kesterson Monday proved again that the North Santiam is a good place to fish, and Mill City is as good as any place to fish the river. He came out with an 18-inch rainbow for his efforts. He said the high water made it a good fight.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William F. Shepherd, Jr., Tuesday afternoon at Santiam Memorial hospital. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Floyd Shepherd, and maternal grandparents are Minister and Mrs. Hugh E. Jull. The new arrival tipped the scales at 8 pounds 15 ounces, and has been named LeRoy David.

Minister and Mrs. H. E. Jull were pleasantly surprised at the longer hour following the evening service at the Christian church Sunday evening by members and friends present, who presented them with a boutonniere and corsage, respectively, an anniversary cake and greeting card shower in honor of their 28th wedding anniversary.

Thank You - - -

We wish at this time to thank all of you fine people for the splendid patronage you have given us since we have owned the Gates General Store. It has been a pleasure to do Business With You.

We take this opportunity also to extend a welcome to Eddie and Ruth Kershaw, the new owners of the store. We sincerely hope you will extend to them the same courtesies shown us in the past. We are confident they will be an asset to the area.
