

We're Sorry... But We Must Raise Prices

Effective November 22, Nu-Method Cleaners will increase their prices about 10 to 12 per cent on some items. This is caused by increased cost of materials. This is our first increase since 1951.

Our prices are still as low as, and in most instances, lower than surrounding towns.

Loucks-Clark Rites Held at Salem

The wedding of Miss Colleen Loucks and Francis Clark took place Tuesday evening at the Immanuel Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Loucks and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne H. Clark of Mill City.

The Rev. Ralph H. S. Wolverton performed the 7:30 o'clock rites before a setting of chrysanthemums. Thurman Krater was the vocalist and Miss Janet Loucks the pianist.

For her wedding the bride wore an ankle length gown of net over white orlon and her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a white Bible marked with an orchid.

Miss Joyce Downer, the honor maid, wore white net over coral pink and carried a nosegay of pink chrysanthemums and carnations.

Benton Loucks stood with Mr. Clark as best man. The ushers were John Lengacher of Lyons and Robert Inel.

Mrs. Loucks chose a teal blue wool afternoon dress and an orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Clark wore a forest green afternoon gown and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Leonard Wittenberg cut the cake and Mrs. Arthur Young presided at the punch bowl. Miss Pauline Loucks, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds left for a short trip to the coast. For going away the bride wore a wine-colored ensemble. The couple will make their home in Salem, where Mr. Clark is with the Oregon State Highway commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bassett entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Amick and children of Salem at dinner Sunday. Other guests in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shaw and Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cline returned Monday for several days at their cottage at Waldport, where they have been building a fireplace. The inclement weather caused them to return home just short of completing their project. They reported snow at Waldport Monday.

Rainbow Girls Have Annual Dad's Night

Marilyn Assembly, No. 60, Order of Rainbow for Girls, held its annual "Dad's Night" at the lodge hall Wednesday evening, featured by a ham dinner, corsages for the girls, and boutonnières for the "fathers." Secret Dad's, who had been drawn by the girls earlier in the year, were revealed at this time.

At the impressive meeting, later in the evening, initiation ceremonies were conducted by the worthy advisor, Frances Ward, for Janet Strong, Frances Nesbitt, and Carol Veness. Escorted to the East were Sherry Hansen, and Jeanette Huffman, past worthy advisors.

Also escorted were Jackie Bickett, grand representative for the State of Montana; Mrs. William Shuey, past mother advisor of both Marilyn Assembly of Mill City, and Acacia Assembly of Stayton; Floyd Johnson, worthy patron of Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, Order of the Eastern Star; and Wilson Stevens, worshipful master of the Mill City Lodge, No. 180, A. F. & A. M.

Patty Stewart Is Honored at Shower

GATES—Miss Patty Stewart, whose wedding will be an event of November 25, was complimented by a shower, Saturday evening, held in the recreation rooms of the high school.

Following an informal evening and the opening of the gifts the hostesses, Mrs. Gwen Schaefer, Mrs. Cecil Haun, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt and Mrs. Wilbur Crites served refreshments to the honored guest, Miss Stewart, her mother, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and to the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Paul Payton of Salem and to Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Walter Thomas, Merle Devine, Clarence Ball, Carl Longnecker, William Penick, Ray Andreassen, Charles Tucker, Martha Boves, Oscar Osterhout, Walter Brisbin, Oswald Hirte, Bob Kelle, Lester Mason, Clarence Rush, Marie Day, Margaret Clise, Kenneth Bain, Arthur Blackburn, James Briles, Clyde Oliver, Elmer Klutke, Robert Wilson, Lang Stafford, Stanley Vail, Barney Ryal, Tilman Raines, Velma Carey, Mary Champ, Robert Levon, Floyd Volkel, Frankie Johnson, Dan Morrison, Glen Hearing, Clare Henness, Mary Howell, Burrell Cole, Minnie Everton, Glen Henness, Oliver Watson, Leo Russell, Harry Harmon, Richard Parker, W. R. Hutcheson, Albert Millsap.

The Misses Jaunita Thomas, Donaloe Oliver, Lorena Devine, Connie Stewart, Phyllis Neal, Lois Evans, Carol Ball, Ann Hirte, Karen and Carol Andreassen, and May Haywood, Bill Longnecker and Bob Van Eaton sent gifts.

Exchange Students at Parent-Teacher Meet

High-Light of the regular Mill City PTA meeting in the auditorium of the high school Wednesday evening was the appearance of two foreign exchange students from Salem, who were brought to Mill City by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thom, members of the Downtown Salem Lions Club and Auxiliary.

Arranged through the American from Heidelberg, Germany, Agathonos, was originally from Athens, Greece, and the girl, Sigrid Bruhl, is from Heidelberg, Germany. Agathonos is making his home for the year with Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen of Salem, while Miss Bruhl is a guest in the home of Senator and Mrs. Lee Ohmart and family, also of Salem.

The young people were high school students in their respective countries, and had studied several years of the English language while in classes there. They will return to their studies following the school year in the United States. In Europe, most students attend school the year around, having lengthy "holidays" at regular intervals.

Following the very interesting talks, several members of the interested audience asked a question which were very willingly answered by the speakers.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served in the recreation room of the high school by some of the mothers.

--Mill Ends--

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood and children were visitors in Gresham at the home of Mrs. Fleetwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shattuck. They went over Friday and came back Saturday.

Vernon Todd and Charles Kelly spent the weekend elk-hunting at Enterprise. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Orvan Miller, all of Sheridan, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCoy.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lalack (Jeannine Howe) on Monday, November 14. The baby has an older brother, Monte. Mrs. Lalack's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howe of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grant (Paula Jane VanBuskirk) became parents of another boy at Salem General hospital Thursday, November 10. This is their third son. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cox.

Despite the foul weather a good attendance was recorded at the Armistice dance, sponsored by the FOE Auxiliary Friday night at the Spar Cafe in Idanha. Red Rynearson of Gates was awarded the 14 pound ham at the drawing.

The Round Robin pinochle club was entertained by Mrs. Don Carlson Monday evening. Tearly Muir was high. Sunny Chance won pinochle and Mabel Yankus was low. The club will be entertained Monday, November 28 at the home of Mrs. Lora Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith of Sprague River, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Griffith (Leola Hathaway) of Klamath Falls spent the Veterans' Day holiday with Mrs. Lester Hathaway at her home here, as well as visiting with the Clyde Hathaway family. The William Griffiths, who are the parents of Don Griffith, went on to Portland to visit relatives, returning later, and the group drove back south together.

On November 14, the "Check cha may" Campfire group met at the home of Mrs. Burton Boroughs. Refreshments were served by Lois Hershberger. Others present were Linda and Mary Ann Bassett, Bonnie Boroughs, Suzanne Carlson, Sharon Hostetler, Diane Merrill, Carol Stodola, Shirley Veness, Rozillah Yankus and Mrs. Al Yankus.

Mrs. Henry Baltimore, who had been spending several days as the guest of Mrs. W. J. Robinson, returned to her home near Redmond with the Wallace Hendersons Tuesday. The group had planned to return Sunday, but stayed over because of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barney and daughter, Leila, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffin, Bill and Margie, of Albany, were in Vaneta Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. Griffin's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alford and sons. The Alfords are former Mill City residents.

Unexpected guests for overnight at the Charles Kellys Tuesday were their daughter, Miss Lela Kelly, Miss Jean Clark of Hermiston, and two other Oregon State College students, all of whom drove up from Corvallis. They left early Wednesday morning, hoping to beat the snowstorm back to the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Grant are the parents of a 7 pound 4 ounce boy born November 10. The little lad has been named Jerel Ray. He is welcomed by two brothers, Tony and Dale. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Grant of White Salmon, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd A. Cox. Greatgrandfather is Eldie C. Turnidge of Mill City.
