LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Lyons folks are among the rest of the canyon residents shivering and shaking in the recent cold spell which took everyone by surprise. An early morning scene is the thawing of pipes and looking after the electric pumps. However, the two large mills in town are still running. Several of the smaller mills have shut down.

Tuesday, November 15 marked the beginning of the six weeks WSCS study course, "An Introduction to Five Spiritual Classics." The writings of great Christians from St. Augustine to Thomas Kelly will be studied. Everyone is invited to share in this experience. It was held in the fireplace room.

The regular meeting of Faith Rebekeh lodge was held Wednesday evening, with Roberta Longnecker, noble grand, presiding over the business session. The regular routine of business was carried out and reports heard from various committees. The Three Links club held their meeting in the hall Friday night. Nominations for officers for the coming year were closed and will be elected at the next meeting. The charter was draped in memory of Sister Cordelia Hubbard, past president of the Rebekeh Assembly of Oregon, who recently passed away. A short business meeting will be held Wednesday evening, November 23 due to Thanksgiving day. At the social hour refreshments were served by Zona Sicho, Lois Myers, and Celene Taylor. Thanksgiving motif was used in the table decorations.

Mrs. Charles Cruson was hostess for open house and a coffee at her home Thursday evening at 10 a. m. Proceeds from the event went to the Methodist home in Salem. There were 33 attending.

The Lyons Garden club held their meeting at the Catholic community hall Wednesday afternoon with a small attendance. Many plans were discussed and plans made for the December meeting which will be Wednesday, December 14. At that time they will hold their annual Christmas party with a gift exchange. Each one attending is asked to bring a gift for the exchange, not to exceed $1.50 and it is supposed to be something in the flower line, such as plants, bulbs, planters or containers of some sort. It is hoped a good crowd will attend. This will determine if the club will carry on next year.

PUMPKIN PIE POINTERS

Place empty pumpkin pie shells in oven, then fill to avoid spilling on way to oven. To test pumpkin pie for "doneness," insert a silver knife in the center of filling. When it comes out clean the pie is done. Garnish pies with whipped cream or chopped nuts for an appetizing holiday halo.
