MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters

Only eight ladies were present for the meeting of the Mehama Women's club at the club house Tuesday evening, November 15. Mrs. Harry Prichard presented the flag and Mrs. Harry Monroe read the club collect. Letters were read asking for Christmas donations for the McLaren school for boys and the Children's Farm home, and it was voted to make $5 donations to both. Mrs. Lilly Wolfkiel was hostess for the evening and served refreshments at a table decorated with holly, red candles and centered with a cornucopia filled with fruit. The next meeting will be December 6. This will be the Christmas party and all members are asked to bring a present for a gift exchange. A 50c limit was set for the gifts.

Mrs. Milton Roten was hostess at her home Wednesday afternoon, November 16 to a group of children honoring her daughter, Barbara on her 6th birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in playing games followed by refreshments served by the hostess to Johnnie Sue Brown, Catherine Landers, Verna Kimery, Sharon Vey, Terry Owen, Sharon Tipton, Barbara and Bobby Roten and Mrs. Gilbert Tipton.

Visitors Sunday at the Louis Klirkland home were Mrs. J. B. White and Mrs. Margaret Brown from Salem and Mrs. Elmer Klutke and sons from Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Myers from Silverton visited friends here Sunday.

Visiting several days recently at the Charles Boucha home was Mrs. Bouchas brother, Walter Kerzic from Seattle, Wash.

The Don Miotke family has moved from Stayton into the E. E. Shields house here. Mr. Miotke is employed at M and M.

Weekend guests at the Raymond Branch home were Mr. Branch's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Siewert from Neotsu and Dean Branch from OSC at Corvallis.

Mrs. Branch attended the 50th anniversary reception for her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, in Lebanon Sunday.
