Gates PTA Members
 Vote To Hook School
 To City Water System

GATES—The Gates PTA met with a good attendance Thursday evening, December 1 at the high school. The program was opened by the high school chorus presented in a group of four numbers, under the direction of G. B. Frost. President Richard Parker presided at the business session. Mrs. Cecil Haun reported a balance of $72.52 in the treasury. A PTA benefit party to be given in January was announced by Mrs. Stanley Vail, who requested that members bring white elephants wrapped to be used as prizes at the bingo table. Mrs. Frost reported that at a recent faculty meeting a definite price for gifts to be exchanged at the annual student Christmas party had been set: 50c for high school students and 30c for the grades. Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt announced a 4H party to be held Wednesday, December 14 at the school between 6 and 9 p. m. Parents are invited to attend. Supt. Frost announced the annual Christmas program would be held at the school Wednesday, December 21 at 7:30 p. m.

At the close of the business meeting, President Parker introduced three members of the board of directors: Chairman, William Pennick; W. R. Hutcheson and Merie Devine, who discussed the proposed plan of connecting the school buildings to the Gates City water system to assure a sufficient supply of water for all needs and fire protection. They stated that the present water supply is inadequate, that the change would lower the present insurance rate. The estimated cost to the district, Mr. Pennick reported, would be between $5,000 and $6,000. This would include the cost of pipe, labor, fire hydrants and other equipment. A vote of approval for the change was given by members of the PTA present.

Hostesses serving refreshments at the close of the meeting included Mrs. Orville Nygaard, Mrs. Harry Evans, Mrs. James Holtz, and Mrs. L. L. Rynearson.

Mrs. Eugene Engelgau was honor guest at a surprise birthday party given by Mrs. J. D. MacGregor at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. Engelgau was the recipient of many lovely gifts from the guests present, who were served refreshments by the hostess. Those present besides the honor guest and hostess were Mrs. W. A. Mackie, Mrs. Edsel Croan, Mrs. Roy Epperson, Mrs. James Olson, Mrs. Leo Fitzgerald, Mrs. Jay R. Mason and Mrs. Elmer Payne.

A dessert luncheon honored the birthday of Mrs. L. G. Hathaway at the home of Mrs. M. G. Rambo Tuesday afternoon. The affair was in the nature of a surprise for Mrs. Hathaway, the guest list being made up of a group of her friends in the Rebekah lodge. The afternoon was spent in playing pinochle, following the opening of the birthday gifts. High score was held by Ida Fleetwood, with Marie Stewart having low. Pinochle prize was won by Eva Duffy. Among others playing were Ruby Brisbin, Carmen Barnhardt, Vera Hathaway, and Goldie Rambo, the hostess.
