Toastmistress Club
Meets at Fir Manor

The Mill City Toastmistress club held its regular meeting at Fir Manor last Thursday evening. Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood presided, also serving as topic mistress. The topics were cleverly concealed in small Christmas packages.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Howard Means, who also acted as the timer. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Gayle Lowery and Mrs. Alben Cooper.

An education panel on 'vocabulary' had Mrs. Lowery as moderator. Other panel members were Mrs. Al Nesbitt, Mrs. Lee Gildewell, Mrs. Robert Roach, and Mrs. L. G. Hathaway.

Mrs. Vernon Todd, as club representative, gave a report on a recent meeting of Council No. 2. It was announced that the annual Winter Council meeting will be held February 4, and the Spring Council meeting on April 7, the places to be announced later.

It was voted to send a picture and explanatory article about Mrs. Ida Geddes as an honorary member at the age of 100 years, to the National Toastmistress magazine.

Mrs. Lee Bassett and Mrs. Cooper gave their "ice-breaker" speeches, the former telling "How I Got This Way," and the latter giving an "Album of Marriage." Speech critic for both was Mrs. Todd.

Toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. Ralph Fough, her theme being "If Winter Comes." A guest for the occasion was Mrs. Fred Roles, home economics instructor of the high school.

Use 3c Stamps on Christmas Cards to Insure Best Service

Reporting that his "Mail early for Christmas" campaign is really in high gear, Postmaster Charles Kelly today gave some helpful hints on how you can be sure that your Christmas cards will reach everyone on your list before December 25.

"When you use three cent stamps on your Christmas cards, you get first-class mail service," he said, "first-class friends deserve first-class mail and the use of first-class postage makes it certain that your Christmas cards will be delivered promptly. Also, use of first-class postage insures forwarding service if the addressee has moved or the card will be returned to you if the recipient cannot be located. Then, too, on Christmas cards sent by first-class mail, you can include handwritten messages making your greetings more personal."

It is perfectly correct and, in fact, advisable to include your return name and address on each Christmas card envelope. This helps your friends to keep their mailing list up to date and insures correction of your list if the card is returned as undeliverable.

--Mill Ends--

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Lowery were in Salem Sunday to visit Mrs. Ed Yarnell and the new son.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Podrabsky of Sublimity, were visitors Sunday at the Aray Podrabsky home.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Plymale of Lebanon, were visitors Sunday at the H. I. Plymale home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Overman and children of Salem, were visitors at the Harold Kliever home Sunday.

Clarence Davies, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies, left Thursday morning for Fort, Ord, where he will be in training for eight weeks before being sent to West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies, Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Vickers and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umphress and son, went to Springfield Sunday evening to attend church services.

Mr. and Mrs. George McConnell of Portland, spent the weekend at the Jay Mason home. The McConnell's left Sunday morning for California where they expect to vacation most of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rada recently received word of the birth of another boy to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rada of Pasadena, Calif., this making their fourth son.

Alan Fahrenbruch of Adrian, now attending Oregon State at Corvallis, and Ralph Jull, who is attending college at Eugene, were weekend guests at the Christian church parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hinkle spent the weekend in Everett, Wash. where they visited with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hinkle, and also to see their new grandson. This is the Hinkle's first grandchild.

Reported as steadily improving at Salem General hospital following major surgery almost two weeks ago is Mrs. D. B. Hill. It is hoped that she will be able to return home by this weekend.

Mrs. Bill Stover and Mrs. Lee Bassett were in Salem Sunday to visit Mrs. Ed Yarnell and their new son, who was born Friday. The Yarnell's who are former residents here now have three sons. The men went duck hunting but had no luck.

There will be a joint meeting of both circles of the Christian Woman's Fellowship Tuesday, December 13, at 7:30 p. m. in the Christian church basement. It will be the annual Christmas party with gift exchange, the gifts to be collected later and sent to the McKinley Indian Mission at Toppenish, Wash.

Stanley Walczak, who was injured September 20 when struck on the head by a tree while working in the woods, was taken to a Portland hospital by Mrs. Walczak Friday. He is there under observation and for treatment. Since his injury he has had a continual headache and ringing in his ears. Mrs. Walczak remained in Milwaukie with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Fields until Sunday.

The Charles Kellys drove to Salem Sunday evening to attend the Christmas concert put on by the Linfield College choir and orchestra at the Calvary Baptist church. One of the soloists for the affair was Miss Marylee Goode of Eugene, a Junior at Linfield. Miss Goode is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Goode of Eugene and the granddaughter of Edmund Bertram of Mill City. She was listed on the program as a soprano.

Mrs. Beatrice Jones and sons, David and Ronnie, of Salem, spent the weekend in Mill City at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Jepsen.

The Mill City Christian church will observe Universal Bible Sunday Lord's Day, December 11, together with millions of other Christians throughout the world. Sermon subject by Minister H. E. Jull will be, "Why We Believe the Bible is the Word of God."

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walkup have received word from them recently that they are getting along fine in Boise, Idaho where they are visiting their son and family. Since going to Idaho, Mrs. Walkup's blood pressure has returned to normal, which will be good news to her many friends here.
