New Light on an Old Subject

Mr. Evans from the Lighting Company gave an interesting talk at the Community Hall last night —on how farmers can cut electric bills. For those who missed it, here's a short recap.

Don't try to light up the cobwebs in the rafters. Use a reflector and a smaller bulb will probably do the job. Too many farmers use naked bulbs that waste 50% of the light.

Try using moveable projector bulbs that beam light the way a searchlight does. A couple of these "spots" will often give you

LYONS

By Eva Bressler

The student council of the Mari-Linn school held election of officers at their meeting, with Kenneth Kan-off elected president, Bernetta Wilson, vice president, Mary Lee Wright secretary and Johnny Kunkle, treasurer. The merit system is going fine with approximately 30 children working. They have chosen maroon and white as their colors and will wear arm bands to signify what work they are doing.

On Wednesday, December 14 the school assembly saw a film "Keep Oregon Green" and enjoyed a guest speaker.

The pre-school mothers held a special meeting at the home of Mrs.
Gerald Rockwell Thursday evening.
Plans were made for the pre-school Christmas party which will be held Thursday morning, December 22.
Chances will be sold on the basket which has been made up and given to the lucky winner at the January PTC meeting. The next pre-school meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Pennington, January 18.
Those present were Mmes. Floyd Chase, Ernie Grosso, Jim Owen, Guy
Hartle, Gerald Wilson, Luther Wiley, Ralph Hurst, Paul Pennington, and the hostess, Mrs. Gerald Rockwell.

Mrs. Hazel Lewis was hostess for the meeting of the Three Links club at her home Friday with a pot luck dinner at the noon hour. Election of officers was the main business, with Marion Pennington elected president, Norma Pennington, vice president, and Ethel Huffman, secretary. It was also voted that the club serve a smorgasbord dinner Thursday evening, January 26. It was also voted that the club adopt a sister, Mary Stuart, from the Odd Fellows home in Portland. The January meeting will be held at the home of Ethel Huffman. Attending were Garnett Bassett, Ethel Huffman, Alta Bodeker, Helen Johnston, Eva Bressler, Inez Ring, Jacquie Harper, Norma Pennington, Marion Pennington and the hostess, Hazel Lewis.

Jim and Gary Palmer and Roy Parker from the Scout Pack of Lyons assisted by Mrs. Alvin Palmer, solicited the people in Lyons Sunday afternoon and in two hours collected $44 for the Cerebral Palsy campaign. It was sent in by Pack Leader Wendell Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield and Bob returned home Sunday evening from Fresno, Calif., where they had spent six weeks with relatives.

The Mari-Linn school was victorious in the ball games Friday with Stayton. The boys basketball team won by a score of 21 to 15, and the girls' volleyball team by a score of 51 to 18.
This Friday they will play against St. Marys at Stayton.

A family dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing with their three children and their families present to celebrate their Christmas due to the fact that they will be unable to come at Christmas time. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Dennis and Nancy from Riddle; Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Carleton, Larry, Carolyn and Catherine from Bridgeport, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Downing and Paula from The Dalles.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Downing, Irene and Marlene, and Johnny of Roseburg, came in the afternoon and surprised the group.

Mrs. Walter Moore has returned home from Salem Memorial hospital after spending a week there for medical treatment.

Members of the Lyons WSCS held their meeting at the church Thursday with a pot luck dinner at the noon hour, followed by the usual business meeting. Evelyn Sexton, president, presided and Leola Johnson was in charge of the devotions.

The cooked food sale which was to have been held Saturday the 10th was postponed due to other activities. It was voted to serve lunch at the Virgil Rogers sale. Leola Johnson was appointed to assist Jan Powell as Spiritual Life secretary when Mrs.
Powell is unable to attend. The next meeting will be held in the fireplace room at the church, Tuesday, December 20, with the annual Christmas party and gift exchange. Names will also be drawn for secret pals for another year. Attending were Donna Smith, Reta Cruson, Leola Johnson, Inez Ring, Martha Cruson, Eva Bressler, Naomi IntVeld, Frances Cruson, Alta Bodeker, and Evelyn Sexton.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hiatt and her mother, Mrs. Cora Jenner, visited Sunday afternoon in Lebanon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thoma, and his mother, Mrs. Martha Hiatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carleton, Larry, Carolyn and Catherine, returned to their home at Bridgeport, Wash., Sunday, after spending several days with relatives in Lyons.

Pauline Schiewek returned Sunday to Portland where she is attending Bible college, after spending some time at home following an appen-dectomy.

The Christmas calendar for the Lyons Methodist community church and Sunday school is as follows:
December 18, the Sunday school program and play "The Pink Christmas Tree" given by the MYF group will be presented in the evening; December 24, the annual Christmas Eve service in the church; December 25; Christmas Sunday, Sunday school and Church will be combined at the 11 o'clock hour for an informal service of worship.

Mrs. John Prideaux was scalded to Brookings the first of the week by the death of her mother, Mrs. Joy.

Mrs. Leota Worden was hostess for the Wednesday afternoon card club with the party held at her home. A 1:30 dessert luncheon was served, followed by several tables of 500. High score was held by Mrs.
Orville Downing, second high went to Mrs. Bob Free, low to Mrs. John Kunkle and Mrs. Oscar Naue drew the traveling prize. Others attending were Mmes. Vern Nydegger, Arthur Olmstead, Floyd Bassett, Alwood Aranson, Roy Dye, Pat Lyons, Bob Carleton, Sam Bridges, Earl Allen, Roy Asmussen, Clyde Bressler, Pat
Hay, Bert Lyons and the hostess, Mrs. Worden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Purdy from Corvallis have purchased the Virgil Rogers farm on McCully Mountain, and will take possession some time in January. The Rogers will move to Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Free, who are spending some time in Klamath Falls spent the weekend at their home here in Lyons.

Earl Allen, rural mail carrier out of Lyons, had an extension added to his route the first of the week. Mr.
Allen, who drives Mill City and several miles above Gates, and back down the Marion county side of the river, will now serve the people on McCully mountain, which includes 18 families.
