Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkele were visitors in Bend over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Mowery of Sheridan, spent Sunday afternoon with the P. F. Willoughbys.

Lloyd Hinkle and a friend Miss Williams of Seattle visited over the weekend at the Cecil Hinkle home.

It was reported here that Mrs. Peter McLaughlin of near Gates suffered a heart attack Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bill Richards returned Thursday from Couer d'Alene, Idaho where she had been called by the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Stiffler and sons Wayne and Neal, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mather in Salem. The Mathers are former residents here.

Members and friends of the Mill City Garden club will enjoy a Christmas party this (Thursday) evening at the Wendell Heller home. A Christmas tree and gifts will be the highlight of the event.

Mrs. Cecil Lake returned Saturday from Redding, Calif., where she had visited since December 2 with her grandchildren, Terry and Shannon Coryell. She stated the weather had been fine there.

The Mt. Jefferson Lumber Co., this past week sent Joe Walters to Corvallis where he took a 44-hour course in lumber seasoning. The company paid all his expenses and he stated it was a worth-while course.

The annual Christmas Program of the Christian Church Bible school will be presented Sunday, December 18, at 7:30 p. m. The offering received at the program will be divided between the Turner Memorial Home and The Northwestern Christian Home for the aged at Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herman are the parents of a son born Thursday, December 8 at Santiam Memorial hospital. He weighed four pounds one and a fourth ounces at birth. Mother and son are doing fine, according to information received here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Athal Underwood are the maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Herman are the paternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umphress motored to Corvallis Sunday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Umphress and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saner of Greenberry. The Saners are parents of Mrs. Robert Umphress. It will be remembered that Mrs. Saner was shot in the foot by an exploding shell during the time their home was destroyed by fire. Other visitors there were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown and family.

Entertaining a group of friends from Sweet Home at a luncheon at her home last Thursday was Mrs. Nat Wills. Attending were Nettie Cornelius, Zora Leisy (former Mill City resident), Winifred Russell, Jessie Kleen, and Maude Sportsman, all of Sweet Home; Arlen Sorseth and Beth Wills of Detroit; and Marie Stewart of Mill City.

Women of the Christian Woman's Fellowship will visit the Turner Memorial Home Saturday afternoon of this week, to take gifts for the guests of the Home, and provide a Christmas program of entertainment and inspiration. The Turner Home, mainly for retired ministers and missionaries, is maintained by the Christian churches of the Northwest.

Mrs. John Muir was hostess Monday night at Mom and Pop's cafe for the regular meeting of the Round Robins pinocle club. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decor for the refreshments served by the hostess. An exchange of gifts was held during the evening. Mrs. Jay R. Mason won high prize, Mrs. Burton Boroughs pinocle and Mrs. Muir low. Mrs. Kenneth Chance will entertain the club January 9.

The Young Adult class of the Christian church, of which the minister is the teacher, held a "hard time party" Saturday evening in the church basement. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson were in charge of the games, Mrs. Wm. Shepherd gave the devotional, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeman supplied the refreshments. During the business session, presided over by Richard Freeman, president, it was decided to hold the next class party, Saturday, January 14.

Deserving of special mention among "signs of Christmas" around town, is the large cedar tree in the front yard of the Ernest Graham home which is displaying its annual show of colored lights. Mrs. Graham stated she planted the tree herself a number of years ago, and she has a justifiable sense of pride in dressing it up for the pleasure of others every year. Assisting in arranging the lights, which can be seen from quite a distance on the North Santiam highway, was Martin Hansen.

A group of friends from Mill City went to Salem Saturday night to a surprise housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman. Included in the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Duggan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Trout of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Scott remained overnight and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kelly of Lyons were present for Mr. Toman's birthday dinner.

Guests for a pre-Christmas party at the Orville Downing home in Fox Valley Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carleton, Larry, Catherine, and Carolyn of Brigdeport, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Dennis and Nancy of Riddle, and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Downing and Paula of The Dalles. They had their Christmas dinner Sunday. The holiday event was held at this time because it will be impossible for the family to be together at Christmas time.

The Cheska-May Camp Fire Girls met at the home of Mrs. Burton Boroughs December 12. Those present were: Janice Logan, Laura Lee, Lois Hershberger, Carol Stodola, Bonnie Boroughs, Susan Carlson, Linda Bassett, Mary Ann Bassett, Diane Merrill, Rozillah Yankus, Sharon Hostetler, and Shirley Veness. The leaders were: Mrs. Don Carlson, Mrs. Al Yankus, and Mrs. Burton Boroughs. Refreshments were served by Shirley Veness. Red ribbon Santa Clauses were made and taken home by the girls. Next week's meeting will be a Christmas party, with an exchange of presents.

Mehama Women's Club Has Yule Party

MEHAMA—The Mehama Women's club held their Christmas party and meeting at the club house Tuesday evening, December 6. The rooms were decorated in holly and red and green tapers for the occasion. At the business meeting it was voted to buy a $5.00 TB bond and to send $10 to CARE. The rummage committee reported that they had decided to close the rummage store at 5 o'clock during the short days, so until further notice the store will be open on Tuesday between the hours of 10 and 3, except on December 20 and 27, when the store will be closed. It will be open again January 3.

The gift exchange was held with each lady drawing a number from a dish and choosing the corresponding numbered gift from the holly decorated gift table. Mrs. Louise Pemberton won the gift in the regular gift drawing. Mrs. Harold Longfellow, Mrs. Larry Prichard and Mrs. J. M. Teeters were hostesses for the evening.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday evening, January 3.

Grand Worthy Advisor Visits Rainbow Girls

Lucille Dayball of Portland, Grand Worthy Advisor of the Grand Assembly of Oregon, Order of Rainbow for Girls, made her official visit to Marilyn Assembly here at the lodge hall Sunday afternoon, December 11. Accompanying the grand officer was her sub-deputy, Ann Metsker and Mr. Metsker, of McMinnville.

Presiding over the affair was Miss Frances Ward, worthy advisor of Marilyn Assembly, assisted by the mother advisor, Dorothy Draper.

Initiated during the ceremonies were Ila Mae Albright, Carol Lee Merrill, and Linda Lee Hermon, all new Rainbow Girls.

Under "good of the order," the Grand Representative from Lebanon was introduced, the other distinguished guests also speaking briefly.

Entertainment for the affair consisted of a clarinet solo by Miss Rosalie Bassett, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bill Hoeye.

In charge of refreshments following the meeting was a committee of Eastern Star mothers, headed by Mrs. Lee Bassett. Serving tables were decorated in the Christmas theme.
