Evelyn Johnson Wed Here Saturday

St. Catherine's Catholic church here was the scene Saturday morning of the wedding of Miss Evelyn Mae Johnston, daughter of Alva J. Johnston, to Henry Peter Zurfluh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Zurfluh, of Scio. Reverend Robert P. O'Hara officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white chantilly lace and satin dress, styled with scalloped neckline, long pointed sleeves and lace tiered skirt. The fingertip veil fell from a chantilly lace cap. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white butterfly orchids and carnations.

Miss Dorothy Zurfluh, sister of the groom, and maid of honor, wore a lime green crystaletta waltz length dress with white net hat and carried a crescent shaped bouquet of rose painted daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Roberta Loucks, and Miss Barbara Podrabsky, were in identical frocks of rose crystaletta with bouquets of lime green daisies.

Joseph Zurfluh, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were Ross Mason and Carl Zurfluh, brother of the groom.

The bridegrooms mother wore a green fitted suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bride's grandmother wore a blue shantung dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The reception following the ceremony was at the Mill City American Legion hall, where Mrs. Agnes Lepley, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Miss Flossie Daniel, aunt of the bride, served punch, and Mrs. Charlotte Guthrie, another aunt of the bride poured coffee. Miss Willa Loucks passed the guest book and Miss Betty Christian was at the gift table.

For going-away, the bride wore a lavender fitted suit with white accessories and a corsage of white butterfly orchids. On their return from a Canadian wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Scio.

Mrs. Robert Draper, mother advisor of Marilyn Assembly, No. 60, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and 16 members of the assembly returned in the "two hours" Wednesday morning from Astoria, where they had attended Grand Assembly since Sunday. Mrs. Walter Brisbin of Gates, also went along. Driving the school bus was William Hirte, Mill City.

City Ordinance Prohibits Use of Fireworks Now

Residents of Mill City are reminded that there is an ordinance prohibiting the use of firecrackers, bombs, torpedoes, skyrocket, Roman candles or fireworks of any kind prior to June 25th or later than July 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walter were in Bend Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Lovel former residents here. Mrs. Lovel stated her son, Richard Anderson, is now stationed in Japan. His address is Pfc. Richard H. Anderson, RA 19514206, 224th Ord. Det. (IFCR) APO 919 San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dustan of Tracy, Calif., spent a short while in Mill City Thursday on their way to Portland and The Dalles where they visited other friends. The Dustans were former residents here when he was employed at Detroit dam. Their son, Terry, visited friends here while his parents visited up north.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mackie and son, Billie, included his brother, Y. E. Mackie, and Mrs. Cleveland, both of Portland, and his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ludwigen and son, Donald, of Ketchikan, Alaska. Mr. Ludwigen is connected with the boat-building industry at Ketchikan, and some of the beautiful color pictures of the harbor appearing in the June issue of the National Geographic Magazine were taken from their float at that location. They had come to Portland as part of a tour arranged for the "Sons and Daughters of Norway."

Mrs. James Swan left Tuesday for Seattle, from where she was to leave Wednesday for a two or three week trip during which she will tour the Presbyterian Missions in Alaska. A maximum of 25 people in the entire country are allowed to take this tour of the mission stations each year. It is sponsored by the Presbyterian Board of National Missions.

Father's day guests of the Charles Kellys included Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill, Bobby and Stewart, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barkley of Corvallis, and the Kellys son, John. The Bob Hills had just returned Saturday evening from a two-weeks' trip to Long Beach, Calif. on vacation. The Barkleys (Lela Kelly) had just returned from their honeymoon at the beach, and spent the afternoon opening their many wedding gifts in preparation to getting settled in their apartment in Corvallis.
