Rev. and Mrs. Roach Have Son Born on Admission Day

Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Roach of the Presbyterian church are announcing the birth of a new son, born to them at Salem General hospital Thursday, which happened to be Valentine's day. The new boy, named Robert Paul, weighed 7 pounds 4 ounces at birth. He has a sister Susie, who is 2½ years old.

Rev. Roach in announcing the birth stated the new boy was born on the day Oregon was admitted to the U. S. as a state. Not only that their daughter, Susie, was born on the day California was admitted as a state. Quite a record.

Opal McRobert and Dick Cain Married

Opal McRoberts, daughter of Mrs. Ellis Hill, was married to Francis (Dick) Cain, who had made his home with the Cecil Lakes for a number of years, last week-end in the State of Washington. The couple will make their home in an apartment at one of the Lincoln County beach towns. Cain is connected with the Van Handel mill at Kernville and has been interested in logging operations along the coast for some time, as has Mr. Lake, who is a cousin of the new Mrs. Cain.

The bride has been employed in the cafeteria at the local elementary school as assistant to Mrs. Earnest Podrabsky, with Mrs. Francis Ellington now taking over her duties. Mrs. Cain was also very active in Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, OES, and the MOES Club.

Mrs. Roger Nelson Gives Party for Bluebirds

The Happy Bluebirds, a third grade group, were entertained last week with a valentine party at the home of Mrs. Roger Nelson, their sponsor. Valentine contest games were played with the prize being won by Leila Barney. Opening ritual preceding the party was in charge of the leaders Mrs. Lester Johnson and Mrs. Mel Rambo with Caroline Fitzhugh lighting the Friendship candle. Other Bluebirds present included Laura Jo Rambo, Janeta Johnson, Geneva Johnson, Peggy Putnam, Linda Thorpe, Sandra Duggan, Juanita Morgan, Sharon Bassett, Gloria Stodola, Patricia Smith, Kathy Boroughs, Judith Severs, Diane Shultz.

Refreshments featuring the Valentine motif were served at the close of the afternoon by Mrs. Nelson. The next meeting of the group will be February 21 at the home of Mrs. Rambo with Juanita Morgan and Gloria Stodola hostesses.

Lee Ross celebrated another anniversary of his "39th" birthday on Tuesday, February 19, when he and Mrs. Ross were dinner guests of the Chas. Kellys and John.

Exchange Students On P. T. A. Program

Highlights of the regular meeting of the Mill City PTA in the High School auditorium Wednesday night was the appearance of two foreign exchange students who were brought to this country through the American Field Service. The teen-aged boys were introduced by Loren Mort, vice-principal of Leslie Junior High School in Salem. Mrs. Mort also accompanied the group. She teaches in a Salem high school.

The very entertaining speakers, both of whom speak English quite well, considering their few months' residence in the United States, included Terje (Terry) Strong of Norway, who is making his temporary home with the Alvin LeGards of Silverton and attending high school there; and Ulrich Ahrend of Germany, who is living with the Dean Bishopricks of Woodburn and attending the high school in that locality. Both are sponsored by Rotary Clubs.

The first speaker showed a number of beautiful colored slides of his homeland, accompanied by an interesting commentary. He mentioned that he was an Eagle Scout and how very much he enjoyed the varied sports of this country, as in Norway only Winter sports occupied his spare-time.

The German boy stated his appreciation for the chance to live, even for a short time, in this "land of opportunity." He was amazed at the high technical knowledge of the average person in this country. Both boys showed their surprise in discovering the American woman to be so well-informed on any number of subjects.

Mr. Mort stated there are 750 of these International Students, representing 29 foreign countries, in the United States at the present time. The point of the whole program was described as a chance for teen-agers to get acquainted with us as we really are, to foster better relations between the countries, ultimately leading toward the hoped-for World Peace.

Chief concern during the brief business meeting was the decision to give another $100 scholarship for a future Elementary teacher this year. Mrs. Robert Veness conducted the session. Mrs. Al Nesbitt is program chairman. Refreshments were served in the recreation room by the fourth grade mothers.

Students from Lewis and Clark College To Be at Presbyterian Church Sun.

Rev. Robert Roach of the Presbyterian Church announces that a team of students from Lewis and Clark College in Portland will be in charge of the eleven o'clock services Sunday morning, February 24. One of the students will give the regular talk, and others will assist in providing the music. This should be of interest to both young and old alike.

Of local interest is the fact that Lewis & Clark College, located on the beautiful Aaron Frank estate in Portland, has absorbed the old Albany College as well as the Mineral Springs College at Sodaville, where both the late Joseph and Ida Geddes taught for many years.

The college at Sodaville was founded by Louis Barzee, whose brother Emery, lived on the Carey place near Gates at one time. It was owned by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church when Joseph R. Geddes took charge. For several years, Ida Geddes was in charge of the preparatory department for the college. About 3 years after Mr. Geddes took over, the Cumberland and First Presbyterian Churches were united and the name of the college changed.

When Albany College was moved to Portland, it became Lewis & Clark College which recently observed its 90th anniversary.

In 1955, Noble Streeter, Presbyterian minister here at that time, was one of the instructors for the summer session for high school students, and the former Lela Kelly was a councilor, as was Paul Barkley, both being students at Oregon State College. In fact, Rev. Streeter intruded the two young people, later officiating at their wedding here in 1956.

Toastmistress Club Meets at Mari-Linn

Mrs. Marshall Powell acted as Toastmistress for the February 14 meeting of the Mill City Toastmistress club with the group meeting at Mari-Linn school. Decorations for the table and room featured the Valentine motif. The invocation was given by Mrs. Guy Hartle with Mrs. Robert Veness acting as Topicmistress, members giving impromptu speeches on "How I met My Husband."

Mrs. Powell conducted a workshop on Conversation with panel members talking on the various phases of conversation. The members had their husbands as guests for the evening and they also participated in the discussion. Mrs. Guy Hartle spoke on "How Do We Get It Started"; Mrs. Guy Hartle on "Personalities"; Mrs. Al Nesbitt, "Pursuing Conversation"; and Al Nesbitt "What Contributes to a Full Personality." General discussion by members and guests followed the panel.

Mrs. Gayle Lowery presided at the business meeting with a date for the local speech contest set for February 28. It was agreed to attend the area speech contest in Stayton March 9 instead of holding a regular meeting that week. Mrs. Nesbitt will act as judge for the contest and Mrs. Vera Hathaway will be a teller. It was also voted to continue to hold the Toastmistress meeting at the Mari-Linn school for the remainder of the term. Timer for Thursday evenings meeting was Mrs. John Prideaux with Mrs. Nesbitt acting as evaluator. Mrs. Prideaux won the traveling "Friar Tuck" award for the best speech.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McMorris spent Sunday in Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Quartier.
