MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters

The Women's Society met at the church Thursday, March 14 for an all-day meeting. The morning was devoted to sewing for missions and quite a bit was accomplished in spite of the small attendance. Mr. Milton Roten was hostess for the potluck luncheon served at the noon hour. Mrs. H. W. McCarley and Mrs. James Hardy were in charge of the afternoon program and devotion period. A very interesting short movie entitled "The Rim of the Wheel" was shown. The program for the day was on the Spiritual responsibility of the homemaker. The afternoon closed with a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Chris McDonald with Mrs. H. W. McCarley acting secretary.

A planning committee from the Women's Society met at the Manse Monday morning. This committee is working with other Presbyterian groups to help make up the women's program for the next four year period.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon McCarley of Polson, Mont., are announcing the birth of a son on February 16. The baby, who is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McCarley, was named Clifford Allen.

Rev. and Mrs. James Hardy and children went to Redmond and Prineville last Wednesday. In Prineville they visited the Noble Streeter family. Rev. Streeter was a former pastor of the Mehama church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Golliet and Harriet returned home Thursday evening from California where they went the last of the previous week for a short vacation trip.

Mrs. E. J. Hughes visited from Tuesday to Saturday of last week with the Carl Hughes family at Yreka, Calif. She also visited a short time at the M. V. Frame home at Oakridge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson and daughter, Merleen, of Cottage Grove visited a week ago Wednesday at the J. M. Teeters home.

Pete Owens went to Fortuna, Calif. Saturday to bring his family home, and returned here Sunday evening. Mrs. Owens and the boys visited a couple of weeks with relatives and friends near Fortuna.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Engdahl (Sussee Teeters) and sons from Santa Rosa, Calif. visited during the weekend with relatives here and in Salem.

Mrs. Pearl Alloway visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Summers in Portland.

Bobbie and Barbara Roten visited a couple of days last week with their grandparents the Floyd Shepherds in Mill City.
