A group of Idanha and Detroit friends honored Mrs. Marion Alderman on her birthday anniversary, with a surprise handkerchief shower Friday evening at the Spillway in Idanha. Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harms, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lady, Mr. and Mrs. Dal Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCauley, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin May, Mr. and Mrs. Gudne Geston, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, Ben Barber, Frank Ullathorne, Edna Myers, Ray May, Gordon Skidmore, Fay Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stout, Audrey Layman, Mr. and Mrs. Buck DeLano, Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar, Lester White and Ann Stevens. Sending handkerchiefs but unable to attend were Melba Harlan, Virginia Capurro and Boots Champion. Chuck spaghetti, sandwiches and cake, brought along by the group was enjoyed by all.

Farewell Party Given For Gordon Skidmore

A community potluck farewell party was held in the school auditorium Wednesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Skidmore, of the three C camp. Presentation of a dual control electric blanket, a gift from the community, was presented the Skidmores by Supt. Harold Regele. Mrs. Skidmore during their 10 years of residence here has been very active in social activities. An accomplished pianist, her services were much in demand at the church, graduations, weddings, and other social functions. The Skidmores plan to leave here Tuesday for Seattle where Mr. Skidmore will be employed by the Washington State Federation of Labor. His new duties will be in the Dept. of Controller Welfare and Trust Funds. The Skidmores will be greatly missed.

Volunteers Seal Interior of Community Fire Hall Bldg.

The sealing in of the interior of the community fire hall building with plywood is nearing completion. Some of the window casings have also been completed. Door casings, moldings, and toilets are yet to be installed. Painting of casings etc., and the staining of plywood will follow. Volunteer workers made short work of a large kettle of home made chili served to them Thursday noon, thru the courtesy of Stout's garage. Assisting Mrs. Stout was Maggie DeLano. Pastry was furnished by the Detroit Market.

Cub Scouts To Be on TV Show Thursday P. M.

The Cub Scouts, Pack 47, of the Detroit-Idanha area, will leave Thursday morning for Portland, where they will appear on the Red Dunning TV show at 5 p. m. over channel 6. During the day an educational tour of points of interest will be made. They will be accompanied by their den mothers, Mrs. Glen Davidson and Mrs. Lon Everly, Cub Scout Master, Howard Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cannon, Henry Helbert, Glen Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Sorseth, and Ralph Swayze. Mrs. Glen Davidson reported that the den mothers uniforms were recently purchased by the Detroit Civic club, who sponsors the Cub Scouts.

Kathryn Harris Places 3rd In Spelling Contest

Placing third in the Oregon Statesman KSLM spelling contest held at Mari-Linn school Monday evening, was Kathryn Harris, 13, an 8th grader at the Detroit-Idanha school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harris of Idanha. Her teacher is Donald Julian. A special bus load from the Detroit-Idanha area attended the contest. Host principal was James Wright.
