Harold Longfellow was one of the lucky ones here last week when he caught a 40 pound chinook the first time out with his brand new spinning outfit.

Editor's Letter Box

Dear Editor:

Since moving to Salem I have wanted the young people of Mill City to know how much I have enjoyed working with them during the time I lived there. They are a swell bunch of kids and Mill City should be proud of having such a fine group belonging to the clubs. I think they are exceptionally

Scio Girl Is Bride of Richard Baltzer, Lyons

Friends from Lyons attended the wedding of Miss Diana Lee Slover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Slover, of Scio, and Richard Baltzer, son of Mr. and Ms. Art Baltzer of Lyons, solemnized at the Baptist church in Scio May 22. Rev. Manley officiated at the 8 o'clock double ring ceremony before an altar decked with lavender iris, light colored flowers and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white lace over taffeta of ballerina length and carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid and white streamers.

Miss Sharon Trollinger of Scio was the bride's only attendant and wore a lavender formal and carried lavender flowers. Acting as best man for Mr. Baltzer was Jack Long of Scio.

Jeanne and Linda Slover were the candlelighters. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Herman Ruttgers with Rosemary Harold the soloist. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a coral colored suit, and Mrs. Baltzer attended her son's wedding in a navy blue suit, each wearing white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. Mrs. Nina Westenhause cut the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Betty Westenhause presiding at the coffee urn and Mrs. Helen Westenhause served punch.

After a wedding trip along the coast, the young couple will be at home at Molalla North Fork Ranger Station, where Mr. Baltzer is fire warden and operates a road grader for the Clackamas-Marion County Forest Association.

well mannered.

Yours truly,
Leo J. Fitzgerald,
Salem, Oregon
