

Officers Installed at Woman's Club Meeting

The final meeting of the year for the Mill City Woman's Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. O. K. DeWitt. A no-host covered dish buffet supper was served at 6:30 to members, their husbands and other guests. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Melford Nelson from Montmouth. Mrs. Nelson is president of the third district of Federated Women's clubs.

Following the supper Mrs. Vera Hathaway conducted a short business meeting and Mrs. Nelson installed the officers for the ensuing year: first vice president, Mrs. Don Carlsson; second vice president, Mrs. Jay Mason; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fred Moore; recording secretary, Mrs. Clyde Rogers; treasurer, Miss Daisy Geddes. A president has not been elected as the nominating committee was unable to secure anyone to accept this office. An executive meeting will be called next week for the purpose of working out a solution to the situation.

Mrs. John Muir announced that the recent "do it yourself" style show, which was attended by Mrs. Robert Holmes, was a success with about 100 people attending. Proceeds from the affair, which also featured a silver tea, were sent to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis; a project of the club.

Mrs. Nelson gave a brief talk about her experience as president of the Third District. The evening was concluded with Mrs. Roger Nelson arranging several contest games in which the group participated.
