Mrs. O. Mikkelsen, mother of Mrs. Leo Poole, and a former resident here, has been spending several days here at the Pooles. The Mikkelsens now make their home in the State of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farnen and son, Michael, spent from Thursday until Sunday in Eastern Oregon with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raney. Mr. Farnen hunts in that area each fall, and stays at the Raney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson had as guests on Father's Day, George Cree, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thoming and children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hudgins and Sherry and Mr. and Mrs. James Cuthbert.

Clark Stevenson returned home last week, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Stevenson, while on leave from Naval duty. He had just completed his boot training in San Diego.

A. V. Morrison underwent major surgery at Salem Memorial hospital and is reported as recovering satisfactorily. He was hospitalized for a week to be "built up" previous to the operation, June 13.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Roach and two children plan to leave Thursday for California where Rev. Roach will attend some courses at Presbyterian Seminary in San Anselmo. They expect to be away for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cline and children of Sunnyside, Wash., visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cline. The group spent Sunday at McMinnville as guests of Mrs. Charles Cline's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith and Mr. and Mrs. William Drager, of Albany returned to Mill City last Tuesday from Reno, Nevada, where they went to see Mrs. Smith's brother, I. N. Porter, who was seriously ill. Mr. Porter died on Friday.

All the women of the Presbyterian church have been invited to attend a no-host luncheon at 1 p. m. Thursday afternoon, June 20, in Fellowship Hall. Each is requested to bring her own table service. Honored guests at the affair will include Mrs. Collier, Synodical President, and Miss Hogg, Presbyterian president, as well as four other officers of Presbyterian. Special music will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly left Wednesday morning for Medford, where they will be delegates of the local Lions Club and Auxiliary at the State Convention the latter part of this week. From there, they plan to drive on to San Francisco, Calif., to attend the International Convention of Lions Clubs in that city next week. John Kelly will visit during his parents' absence at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barkley, in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Dowdy returned this week from a vacation trip which took them as far south as California and east to Chicago, Ill. They said they missed the storms on the trip, and that they could make good time only on the toll roads. The regular highways in the eastern states were slow going because of the many towns on the highway. They came back through Yellowstone National park, and saw much beautiful scenery. Mrs. Dowdy complained about the drinking water on the trip and said it was nice to be back home again.
