

GATES

By Mrs. Albert Millsap

The Gates Woman's club met Thursday evening at the Community house in regular session. Mrs. Walter Brisbin presided at the business meeting at which outstanding bills were paid, ways and means and plans discussed for the year ahead. Following adjournment the evening was spent informally. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Brisbin and the vice-president, Mrs. Richard Parker. There was a small attendance due to the fact that many of the members are picking strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martig and family from Shelton, Wash., arrived in Gates Thursday for a week's stay while looking after their property here. They resided here for several years while Mr. Martig was employed by Bonneville Power Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Howard, of Longview, Wash., were visited Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Howard's aunt, Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson. The guests were enroute home following a trip to Butte, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freihl and family, Joan, Bruce, Margie and Reta Lee from LaCanada, Calif., were guests at the home of Mrs. Freihl's brothers, Richard and Oscar Nystrom, for the past two weeks. They also visited other relatives in the community, including Mr. Freihl's mother, Mrs. Margaret Freihl, of Stayton. The Freihl children are all talented musicians and dancers and have appeared in pictures and on TV.

Mrs. Maude Davis is caring for her grandchildren, four little Overlocks, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Overlock of Seattle, are on a trip to Toronto, Canada. Upon their return they will also visit for a time at the Davis home.

Oliver Watson returned home Friday from the Veterans hospital in Portland, where he had undergone surgery. He will be required to return for further treatment soon.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cann for a day and night were Mrs. Lena Townsend and her daughter, Mrs. Nadine Veitsch and son, David, from Shell Beach, Calif. They were enroute to Colorado by car.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Eppler, of Bellingham, Wash., were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Eppler's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rynearson. Mr. and Mrs. Rynearson and two children enjoyed a short vacation at the beach last Monday, where they occupied the Jack Colburn cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oliver, of Corvallis, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver. Bill has been seriously ill for some time.

Luncheon guests at the Orville Nygaard home Friday were Mr. Nygaard's sister, Mrs. McConnell and four children, from North Bend and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Nygaard of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap were Stayton visitors Monday where she received medical attention. They also visited their daughter and family, the Edmund Kleckers.
