DETROIT

By Boots Champion

Seventeen forest service employees headed by District Ranger Al Sorseth, and Assistant Ranger Howard Dean, left Tuesday morning for annual training at McKenzie guard school. Sorseth and Dean will serve as instructors. They will return on Friday.

Sorseth also reported that the reinforced concrete 'Bug-a-Boo' bridge located across the Santiam River above Marion Forks is now nearing completion. He also said that "Battle Axe and Coffin Mountain" lookouts will be manned this week. This brings the number to three, manned to date, the other being Stahlman Point.

Spending the weekend at their summer cabin were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Moore and son, Gary of Sandy.

Weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Mabel Moore were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lusk of Portland. The menfolk enjoyed a bit of fishing while here.

Mrs. George Brasmer of Raton, N. M. spent a few days in Idanha last week on a combined business and pleasure trip. The Brasmers were former residents of Idanha, and still retain their home there.

Weekend visitors at the Champion home were Mrs. Champion's niece, Joan Ramage, and Pete Lorenson of Salem. Mrs. Champion's nephew, Webb Ramage, of Salem, who is employed by the forest service, is making his home with the Champions for the summer.

Arriving here last week for an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stout, are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keller of Aransas Pass, Texas. The Stouts who are now residing in a small trailer house, are awaiting the arrival Friday of a larger and more modern trailer house.

Miss Fay Cooper returned home Monday following a week's vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Opitz in Salem. On Saturday Miss Cooper accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Opitz to Salem. On Saturday Miss Cooper accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Opitz and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Mosseur of Independence to Toledo, where they attended the Pioneer Days celebration. Miss Cooper reported that it has been 30 years since she last visited the coast.

A birthday party honoring Mrs. Harold Champion was held Friday evening at "Howdy's" (Lake club.) Entertainment was provided by the playing of shuffleboard and dancing. Many well wishes were extended as well as gifts. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Jean Rosemond reported that her dryer got on fire Monday. Luckily the fire was confined in the lint trap, therefore little damage, other than smoke was done. Warren Stoll came to the rescue.

Three more cases of measles were reported. Latest victims are Elizabeth Moore, Wayne and Melodie Rosemond of Idanha. The five Tompkins children are reported to be on the road to recovery.

Expected to arrive at the Len Davis home this weekend is Mr. Davis's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis of San Mateo, Cal. They plan to remain a week.

Spending the weekend at their summer home here were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beeson of Eugene.

Largest Payroll Savings Campaign in the State Starts Soon

Announcement was made in Salem today that the State Board of Control has authorized a campaign among State Employees to encourage the purchase of United States Treasury E Bonds through payroll deductions. Last year a similar campaign resulted in approximately 2,400 State Employees signing up to buy E Bonds on this installment plan.

The new campaign will get under way on July 1st and continues until the end of the month.
