LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Power and family from Downey, California have been visiting this last week at the home of his father W. W. Power, also his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Power. The two families are leaving Friday for California. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Power, Beverly, Stanley, Steven and Vincent will visit at the home of Mrs. Powers parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Searle at Glendale, Calif. Two of the oldesters of Lyons celebrated their 83rd birthday anniversaries this week, Mrs. Inez Ring and Elmer Hiatt. Mrs. Ring was born at Amadore, Minnesota, July 8, 1874 and came to Lyons in 1799 where she has spent her entire life with the exception of one year spent at Aberdeen, Washington. Mr. Hiatt was born in Ringo County, Iowa, July 9, 1874 and came to Oregon in 1883, locating at Plainview, coming to Lyons in 1889 where he has spent his entire life with the exception of a few years at Detroit, Oregon, Mehama and Salem. The Lyons Garden Club held their meeting Wednesday evening at the Glenn Julian home with a picnic held in the beautiful park at the Julian home with a pot luck supper at 6:30 after which the Julians showed scenic pictures that were taken when they were on their trip to Victoria in Canada. Due to other functions a small crowd was in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Asmussen and daughter Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weidman and daughter Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hiatt, Jim Wright and the Julians, Evelyn and Glenn Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kykendall and granddaughter Ruth Ann Winch from Richland, Washington visited at the Andrew Sieg home from Sunday to Wednesday. Miss Jeanette Huffman returned home Monday from Seattle, Washington after spending six weeks at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Titus and sons. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gustafson spent Thursday in Redmond and Bend on a combined business and pleasure trip. Rev. Charles McCarthy, minister of the Lyons Methodist Church, will leave Saturday for Camp Magruder near Rockaway on the coast. This is one of three camps that the Methodist Church maintains in Oregon. He will be a camp counselor for Junior Camp. The following week he will be in Tacoma, Washington at the College of Puget Sound for a week of summer school which will include all

Methodist ministers from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. This summer school helps the pastors to maintain their intellectual integrity in regard to their ministry. Mr. and Mrs. James Wright and Mary Lee are visiting this week at the home of her sister in Alsea. They will also visit in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman and Jeanette visited Tuesday evening in Corvallis. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Howard, former residents of Lyons. Mrs. Harvey Grimes is in the Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton, where she will undergo surgery. Mrs. Frederick Peake from Berkeley, California who has spent the past month at the home of her cousin W. W. Power will leave Saturday for Pennsylvania, where she will visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Linse and children Bobbie, Lael and Brian from Seattle, Washington, spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens. Mr. Linse who is a representative from the Sears Roebuck Company was on a business and pleasure trip. Mrs. Sam Bridges left Tuesday for Wolf Point, Montana, where she will spend two weeks with relatives while there she will also attend the 25th gathering of the Alumni of the high school there. Buddy Bridges returned home Monday from the St. Vincents hospital in Portland where he had spent some time under going skin grafts following severe burns. Miss Sandra Knox of Salem spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of her parents. Additional guest is Sue Henderson a niece from Corcoran, California who will spend several days. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pearce from Harrisburg, also spent Wednesday and Thursday at the Knox home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knox and three sons from Seattle, Washington visited the first of the week at the Knox home, and the boys remained for the rest of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Knox will visit in Seattle this week end taking the boys home. Marshall Powell and son John, left Monday for Indiana, where they will pick up a delivery van, to be used on his route. He will be employed for the National Knit Wear at Eugene, and will cover all districts north of Albany. Powell, who has been employed by Seamesters Cleaning Co. in Salem, expects to be gone about 10 days. The Powells will retain their home in Lyons and he will work from his home and Mrs. Powell will teach at Mari-Linn. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stellmack and daughter, Lorna, from St. Cloud, Minn. visited Wednesday and Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jobe. Mr. Stellmack is a nephew of Mrs. Jobe. Mrs. Sarah Cookingham and grand daughter, Rande Becker, of Salem and Mrs. Helver Johnson of Liberty attended church services at the Lyons Methodist church Sunday morning, and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roye. Both Mrs. Cookingham and the Johnsons are former residents here. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kimery, Jack and Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ayers made a trip to Crater Lake Saturday. They reported it very stormy and foggy and that a good view of the lake was impossible. They drove as far south as Grants Pass returning home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Landsverk of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in Bend where they attended a National highway organization meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Asmussen were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when members of Acacia Chapter of Eastern Star lodge of Stayton honored them with a house-warming and pot-luck supper. They also were presented with a gift. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tate, Mr. and Mrs. George Core, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Carrick, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Spraker, Mrs. Nellie Watson, Mrs. Ollie Purdy, Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Mrs. Horace McCauley, Arlie Martin, Miss Joy Carrick, Miss Roxie McCauley, Mr. and Mrs. Asmussen and Mildred. The Annual Linn County Grange picnic was held Sunday at the Santiam Valley grange hall due to the stormy weather. It was scheduled to be held at the North Santiam State park, with all county granges to participate. A picnic lunch was served at the noon hour followed by a program with games and other entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Wells Gage and family of Drenora, S. Dak., spent several days last week at the home of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiewek and family. Floyd Bassett of Lyons and Mrs. Rose Daly of Mill City were quietly married Friday in Albany. They will be at home at the Bassett home in Lyons after Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mays and four daughters and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Prichard left Monday on a vacation trip. After visiting in Seattle, they will go on to Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Manning, Richie and Larry, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Etzel of Stayton, spent Saturday night and Sunday at Newport. They reported it very windy and stormy. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott of Chicago were in Lyons Sunday. Mr. Scott was in charge of the morning services at the Lyons Methodist church. Scott, who is a former minister here is now attending school in Chicago. They will be in Lyons again on Tuesday evening, July 30, for a pot-luck supper and show pictures of their trip last summer in Europe and into Russia. Mr. and Mrs. William Grimes left Monday morning for San Francisco, Calif. From there they will return to Honolulu. Mrs. Grimes has spent the past six weeks here due to the illness and death of her father, Forrest

Nidegger. Bill, who is stationed in Honolulu with the Navy, came for the funeral. Wednesday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jobe were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wylie and sons of Corvallis and their friend, Lee Todd of Albany. Mrs. Wylie is a daughter of Mrs. Jobe. Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Weaver of Fairfield, Mont., are visiting at the home of his brother, Wendell Weaver and family.
