Martha Troxell To Talk At Christian Church

Thursday, August 15 Mrs. Martha Troxell will be a guest speaker at the Mill City First Christian Church. The Martha Troxell Circle of the local church will be hostesses for a pot-luck fellowship dinner at 6:30 P. M. in the church dining room.

Mrs. Troxell and her husband are missionaries to Japan and are now home on a one year furlough after spending 5 years on the mission field. They are spending the summer lecturing at the various churches on the West Coast while their children are visiting their grandparents in Medford. This fall they will go to Indiana where they will enter Butler University's School of the Bible.

Following the 6:30 dinner Mrs. Troxell will speak at 7:30 P. M. telling of her experiences and needs on the mission field.

Both the fellowship dinner and evening program are open to the interested public of all denominations who are most cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Matzen and son, Bruce of Woodland Hills, Calif., arrived Sunday night for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Al Nesbitt and daughter, Miss Frances.
