Blitz Launches Passport Program

PORTLAND (Special)—The first visitor to make use of his "passport to Oregon" in Blitz-Weinhard's new program to invite people to the state and 1959 Centennial is Irving Jensen, mayor of Vancouver, Wash. Checking to make sure the passport is valid is Gail Lund, Miss Oregon Passport. Launched this week, the newest phase of Blitz' program is aimed at more nationwide attention for Oregon with special emphasis on the Centennial. Oregon residents can write the pioneer Portland brewery and request the passports which they can send to friends, relatives and business associates living outside the state. This spring, Blitz sent over 60,000 Douglas fir seedlings all over the world in the first part of their Oregon "bandwagon" program.

There's nothing like one of these Chevis to give you a fast case of new-car fever. But, low-priced as they are, you're likely to find yourself sold on one before you've even considered the cost.

That's because Chevrolet is the only honest-to-goodness new car in its field—new to look at, with a beautiful new Body by Fisher; new to ride in, with two completely new suspension systems; new to drive, with a wider-than-ever selection of engines and a solid, road-snug Safety-Girder frame. Yet all the V8-powered Chevis shown here—plus six even lower priced 6's—cost less than any comparable models in the leading low-priced three. Talk it over with your Chevrolet dealer.
