Mill City High Class of 1948 Have Potluck Picnic Dinner Sunday

Members of the class of 1948 of Mill City high school held a potluck picnic at the state park west of town Sunday afternoon. Those present enjoyed the afternoon visiting and catching up on the doings of the various class members.

Present were: Louis Pierok and family of Fortuna, Calif.; Louise Pietrok, Lyons; John Lengacher, Lyons; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnen, (Isabell Case) and family, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush (Virginia Vandermere) and family, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hathaway (Darlene Downer) and family, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Vern White (Valleda Moberg) and family, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hooley (Carol Johnston) and daughter, Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howe, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kay and children, Mill City and Mrs. William Hueller (Carol Sletto) Mountain Home, Idaho.

Before cutting fabric with a snap, mark an arrow along the selvedge at regular intervals to show which way the nap lies.

Almeta Rose Coffman Married Sunday to Alvin Ray Thiess at Pretty Double Ring Ceremony

MEHAMA—The Community Presbyterian church in Mehama was the setting for the wedding of Miss Almeta Rose Coffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coffman of Mehama, and Alvin Ray Thiess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Thiess of Diss-ton, on Sunday afternoon, August 17 at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Howard F. Hutchins of Oregon City, who had officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents in 1936, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with tall bouquets of pink and white gladioli and white spider chrysanthemums, and ferns. Mrs. K. J. Golliet was organist and Miss Judy Flanagan of Seattle, Wash., sang.

The bridal gown was of white nylon chiffon over taffeta fashioned with a Sabina neckline of corday lace and short shirred sleeves. A panel extended from the neckline to the floor with a very full skirt ending in a chapel train. Her waist-length illusion veil was caught to a cap of Corday lace with a crowd of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white gladioli with pale pink roses in the center of each gladioli.

Miss Jane Cox of Stayton, the honor maid, wore a deep rose pink dress with ballerina skirt, fashioned sheath style in front and extra fullness in back. Miss Patricia Johnson of Portland, the bridesmaid and Miss Susan Coffman, the bride's sister as junior attendant, wore similar gowns, only in pale pink. All the attendants carried pink leghorn hats filled with pink and white chrysanthemums.

Donald Coote was best man and ushers were Roger Johnson and Terry Howell.

A blue and white cotton brocade sheath dress was chosen by the bride's mother for the wedding and Mrs. Thiess wore a blue figured dress with white accessories. Their corsages were stephanotis and roses.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Golliet on the Little North Fork was the scene of the garden reception. Mrs. Merton Cox, Mrs. Bernard Mitok, and Mrs. Paul Nordyke poured. Mrs. G. D. McCall and Mrs. Paul Frank served the cake. Miss Francis Peters had charge of the guest book and Harriet Golliet passed the groom's cake. Assisting at the gift table were Mrs. Lou Pooler, Mrs. Pearl Allaway, Mrs. Mildred Wickizer and Miss Rose Mary Peterson. Also assisting in serving were Mrs. L. E. Wallen, Mrs. David DeFrates, Lei Lonnie Kirsch, Ann O'Brien, Carol Watson, and Diana and Jewel Wallen.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Thiess changed to a rust colored chemise dress with matching floral three-quarter length duster and white accessories. They will make their home in San Antonio Texas, where Mr. Thiess is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.

Adolph Brunner was taken to Santiam Memorial Hospital in Stayton Monday night suffering from shock. Mr. Brunner had just recovered from a hernia operation and has been doing nicely. This last flareup was caused following the extraction of his teeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields ReMine entertained about 40 guests, including business associates, their wives and husbands, with a barbecue supper at their home on the river Saturday evening. They have guests visiting them from Southern California this week.
