LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Rev. Mrs. Ruth Cotton was hostess for the meeting of the WSCS held at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon, with a one o'clock dessert luncheon which was followed by the business meeting and program. Mildred Prichard president presided over the meeting and plans were made for a Rummage and cooked food sale to be held at the church Saturday, Sept. 20. Plans were also made for a "Come as you are" Hobo Dinner to be held in the church basement on Wednesday evening October 2 from 5 to 7 p. m.

Attending the meeting were: Evelyn Julian, Reta Cruson, Carrie Naue, Gladys Hargreaves, Donna Amussen, Eva Bressler, Dorothy Downer, Inez Ring, Mildred Prichard, Orpha Roye, Pearl Hudson, Alta Bodeker and the hostess Mrs. Cotton. The Lyons pre-school started Tuesday September 16 with Mrs. Alice Huber instructor again this year. Mrs. Huber reports 31 children enrolled with the possibility of more to come in later. The school is held in the All Purpose Room at the Mari-Linn school. Anyone having children they wish to enter may do so any time. The children ride the school bus to school, but the mothers have to pick them up at 11:45.

Mrs. Wilson Stevens is teaching this year in the West Stayton school. Mrs. Thelma Phillips of Portland spent several days last week at the home of her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimery and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt and sons Duane and Darrell returned home the last of the week after spending a week's vacation at the coast. They spent their time at Huntington Park, at Florence and Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Meshew and children moved this week to their new home in Sublimity, which they recently purchased. They have been living in the Forest Nydegger house since selling their place on McCully Mountain.

Mrs. Martha Phelps of Longview, Wash., spent the weekend at the home of her sister, Mrs. Van Prichard and family.

The Lyons Extension unit will hold their first meeting of the fall Thursday, September 25 in the basement of the Lyons Methodist church at 10:30 a.m. and a pot luck lunch at noon. Project leaders for the day will be Lois Morgan and Lucille Huber. They will give a demonstration of "tin can craft." Everyone is welcome to attend and a baby sitter will be provided for those who have to bring their children.

Mrs. Arthur Olmstead and son, Jimmy spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Binford at Corvallis.

The Three Links club of Faith Rebekah lodge held their meeting at the hall Friday with an all-day meeting and pot luck lunch at noon. Various plans were made for the coming months. Plans were also discussed for the annual bazaar Dec. 13. It will be held at the hall. Following the business meeting which was presided over by Helen Johnston, president, the time was spent in quilting.

Rev. Ruth Cotton left Monday morning for Skamania, Wash., where she will spend several days at the home of her daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Corvallis spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roe. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vaughn and his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Mormon and daughter, Susie of Forest Grove, were Friday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis.

Clyde Lewis with his son, Kenneth of Mehama and Mac Mormon of Forest Grove spent Saturday and Sunday at Winchester Bay, where they enjoyed deep sea fishing. Clyde caught four salmon and the fifth try hooked a shark.

Pat Lyons was taken to Salem General hospital Sunday evening. He will undergo minor surgery Tuesday morning.

Art Ayers with his brother from Eastern Oregon left Wednesday morning for Montana. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bassett of Salem were Sunday dinner guests at the home of his father, Floyd Bassett. Additional dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Lizzie Bassett and Mrs. Inez Ring. The occasion honored the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lizzie Bassett. Steven and Bradley Toman of Salem spent the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman were Sunday guests at the Stevens home and the boys returned home with them. Friday night at 6:30 the regular monthly Fellowship dinner will be held at the Lyons Methodist church. Everyone welcome.

FOX VALLEY

Mrs. J. H. Johnston The John Bernards sold their 1958 turkey crop this past week. They had nice mature birds which were less than 24 weeks old. Although turkey prices are not as high as usual at this time, getting them marketed early will likely net the grower a better profit. At last report, Mr. Bernards had around 5,000 turkeys. They also raised several hundred China geese this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Powell Sr. of Silverton were Sunday guests at the home of their son, Marshall and family here. A birthday dinner honored Marshall Junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiewek of Lyons are doing some carpenter work and painting on the Johnston house occupied by the Marshall Powells.

Mrs. Dorothy Parson has been under the care of a doctor several days. She has pneumonia but is improving now. Her 5-month-old daughter also has been ill for a week and was taken to the doctor several times. She was suffering with tonsillitis and an ear infection. She is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Charley Cruson who fractured an ankle when she fell at her home several weeks ago, has the cast off and is able to walk without crutches. The bones were broken in three places and it is badly swelled and painful yet. Mrs. Cruson was intending to leave with her husband for Montana.

Mr. Christensen, Mrs. Nick Gustafson's father arrived last week from Minnesota for a visit with his daughter and son-in-law and grandson. He likes Oregon and may decide to stay here for a time. Three of his children are in the East and two are out here.

George Maisel of Stayton was a Fox Valley business visitor Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ward have been treating the exterior of their homes to a coat of paint. Also another old barn has been torn down at the former Billings place. The usable material is being salvaged to help build a house. Jerry Wilson also has his new home well under way. Wilson used lumber from the old barn on his place to make the first walls of his house.

Burial services were held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the local cemetery for Gordon Joellner, 75, of Mehama. He was a lifetime resident of the Mehama area. Two sisters and several nieces and nephews survive.

MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDonald arrived here the first of last week from Fort Bragg, N. C., where Allen had been stationed with the army. After a month's leave here they will go to Santa Monica, Calif.

Mrs. Lois Winzer entered the Silverton Nursing Home last week and would enjoy hearing from her friends here any time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson of Brookings are announcing the birth of their third son Friday, September 19. The new arrival has been named Mark Douglas. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Art Anderson of Mehama and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Versteeg of Turner.

Weekend guests at the Don Callahan home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Szdlak and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Merrill all of Scappoose.

Sunday evening visitors at the D. L. Teeters home were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Good and children of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Tietze were in Portland on business Monday.

The Allen McDonalds spent the weekend with the Chris McDonalds at their place near Tumalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith have moved into the Pearl Allaway house formerly occupied by the Pete Owens. Mrs. D. L. Teeters was the honor guest for a surprise coffee at her home Wednesday morning, September 17 to celebrate her birthday. Present to surprise Mrs. Teeters were: Mmes. Larry Prichard, Don Callahan, Dale Champ, Orvil Landers, Jim Owen, P. N. Hughes, Walter Johnson, Leo Kirsch, J. M. Teeters, Austin Longfellow, Bob Rash, Gerald Rockwell, Herbert Graen, and G. V. Christensen. Mrs. Eugene Clason and Mrs. Bonnie Wagner were unable to come but sent gifts.

Don't think traffic accidents always happen to the other fellow. A national survey of 1958 Memorial Day weekend accidents shows that for every driver killed or injured, there were from three to four passengers or pedestrian casualties who were innocent victims.
