

The weekend of December 5 and 6 was a preview of life at Northwest Christian college for high school seniors and juniors. During their visit to NCC the preview students toured the campus, attended meetings with special talent, music, speakers, and devotions. They also were presented a view of the informal campus life at NCC. Those attending from this area were Barbara Cunningham, Sandra Rowen and Lily Ferrin. Three girls from Gates also attended, Marla McWhirk, Sharon Hirte and Bernice Potter. A total of 151 students and advisors shared in this experience.

Miss Julie Randall, senior at Santiam High has been chosen to be on the McCall's Teenage Fashion Board for 1958-59. She was selected because of her outstanding ability in Home Economics. Julie is the daughter of Mrs. A. J. Marastoni, of Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Thomas, of Salem, are parents of another son, born November 28. Name of the new arrival, who weighed 6 pounds is Jeffrey Lee. Mrs. Al Ziebert spent a week in Salem helping care for the family. This makes seven children for the Thomas family, three girls and four boys.

Mill City Woman's Club Holds Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the Mill City Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Mason Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mrs. Chas. Kelly as refreshment hostesses. Mrs. Jay Mason and Mrs. Claude DeFrates were in charge of the program. Nineteen members and guests attended.

Preceding the party, the business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Bill Hoeye, the president. A committee was appointed to arrange for the third in the series of polo shots, to be given the third week in January.

It was voted to donate $10.00 toward the Sadie Orr Dunbar Nursing Education Fund which has been established in honor of that great Oregon clubwoman.

Mrs. H. A. Schroeder gave the annual report of the budget committee. The members decided to give $20.00 for the assistance of the Campfire Girls.

Following roll call by the secretary, Mrs. James Putman, a number of Christmas carols were sung, with Virginia Hoeye accompanying at the piano.

The program committee conducted a clever word-game, with prizes being awarded to Mrs. C. M. Cline and Mrs. R. F. Saucier. A gift exchange was carried out among members by playing "musical chairs." Wrapped gifts were also brought to the party to be sent to the Chemawa Indian School.

At the close of the evening's activities, lunch was served by Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Kelly, with several others assisting.

It was announced that the January meeting would be held at Mrs. C. M. Cline's home, at which time the Mrs. John Tyler, president of the Third District, and Mrs. McCall, well-known club woman, is expected to attend. A "bingo party" for the Scholarship Loan Fund will be held, with members requested to bring "white elephants" for prizes.

A lighted Christmas tree on the porch of the Mason home Tuesday night added much to the holiday atmosphere of the affair. Christmas decorations were also used throughout the large room. Those present were Mrs. C. B. Trask, a guest from Fresno, Calif.; and Mmes. C. M. Cline, W. W. Allen, J. F. Potter, H. A. Schroeder, C. E. Rogers, James Putman, Bill Hoeye, Ernest Graham, O. K. DeWitt, Helen Saucier, Claude DeFrates, W. W. Mason, Jay Mason, Harry Mason, C. E. Mason, Martin Hansen, Charles Kelly and Miss Daisy Geddes.

Mill City Garden Club Has Christmas Party

The Mill City Garden Club held their annual Christmas Party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James Swan with Mrs. Wendell Heller and Mrs. O. E. Hoodenpyle as co-hostesses. The rooms of the Swan home were beautifully decorated with holly, white "mums" Christmas candles and a lighted Christmas tree. Christmas Carols from a record player played softly during the evening. The guests were seated at a long lace covered table in the dining room and small tables in the living room where plum pudding was served. Clever Santa Claus nut cups marked each place. Each guest was presented with a "Guardian Angel" corsage upon arrival. Mrs. Wendell Heller read the Christmas Story followed by two games played by the group. A gift exchange was the feature of the evening with many beautiful gifts displayed. Gifts were brought by the group and sent to the Northwestern Christian Home at Beaverton and the Turner Memorial Home. Mrs. Louis Verbeck received the door prize.

Present were Mrs. Harvey Tolbert, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Lowell Cree, Mrs. Otto Witt, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. Adolph Brunner, Mrs. Jennie Davis, Mrs. Rachel Gimstead, Mrs. Ray Stockdale, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, Mrs. Barker, Miss Sigrun Grimsted, and the hostesses, Mrs. Wendell Heller, Mrs. O. E. Hoodenpyle and Mrs. James Swan.

The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. C. Kimmel with Mrs. Fred Moore co-hostess.

The afternoon circle of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of Mrs. Herbert Schroeder who led the study period. Mrs. C. E. Mason was re-elected leader of the group. Those present were Miss Daisy Geddes, Mrs. C. E. Mason, Mrs. Otto Witt, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. John Swan, and Mrs. Schroeder.

Women's Day was observed December 7 at the First Christian church. Taking part at the 11 o'clock service were Mrs. Herbert Whitaker who had the call to worship, the Scripture reading and the Litany. Mrs. Larry Lawrence offered the morning prayer; Mrs. Kenneth Chance Mrs. William Shepherd and Mrs. Hugh Jull brought the sermon—a sermon on Home and Foreign Missions. A duet was sung by Mrs. Clinton Land and Mrs. Robert Moore, "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way."
