A Century In Linn County

By Doris Gundersen

"Ride and tie" made one-horse travel possible for two persons a century ago.

The destination was usually Oregon City, distribution center for groceries, dry goods and doctors.

One rode ahead while the other walked, and dismounted after so long to tie the horse to a tree. The other walked until he (or she) came up to the horse, untied it and rode until he was ahead of the other, repeating the process until they reached their destination.

Santiam Ripples

By Judi Hoeye

The Juniors recently tried their hand at making money. They did well, too. They held a big pie sale with all kinds of pies. At least some of the Juniors can cook. (Or was it the Juniors' seniors?)

The Seniors are to hold a chili feed soon for they are frantically trying to earn enough for their "Spring Fling."

Wednesday afternoon, representatives of the tax supported colleges of Oregon paid us a visit. Dr. Harding from O. C. E. and Dr. Smith of O. T. U. explained a great deal about the colleges. They were very interesting and they cleared up many points. Interested Juniors and Seniors from Detroit High School came down especially for this occasion.

We are planning another big Christmas program for the public this year. (Practices have begun!) It will be presented on the afternoon of the 23rd at 1:30 sharp in the grade school gym. It will be very interesting and we hope you will all attend. (There will be no chickens to fly out into the audience this year!)

Right after the public program, the student program will be held. And as soon as that is finished we can go home until January 5th. Yipee! Merry Christmas.
