Mehama Women's Club Has Christmas Party

MEHAMA—The Mehama Women's club met at the club house Tuesday evening December 16 for their regular meeting and Christmas party. Mrs. Raymond Branch presided at the short meeting during which it was voted to send a donation of money to the Children's Farm Home for Christmas.

A musical program was presented by Sheryl Webb, who played several piano solos, Jacqueline and Yvonne Bouche, who played a series of solos and duets. An instrumental quartet composed by Lloyd Savage, Rodney Wilson, Kurt Kimsey and Dick Bilyeu played several numbers.

After the meeting and program a gift exchange was held for the club members and gifts for the entertainers were provided by the committee.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Art Anderson and Mrs. Harold Longfellow who served refreshments to the guest entertainers and Mmes. Raymond Branch, Richard Janeway, Orville Bilyeu, Robert Draper, J. M. Teeters, Lily Wolfkiel, William Bilyeu, Gerald Branch, D. L. Teeters, James Hardy, Ercill Wilson, Charles Bouche and Ed Castle.

Toastmistress Club Plays Novel Bingo Game

Mrs. Faith Veness and Mrs. Eleanor LaMunyan were hostesses for the Christmas party given last week by the Mill City Toastmistress club.

Welcome to members and guests was extended by the president Sue Poole and the program was arranged by Mrs. Nesbitt and Eleanor Pakula.

Mrs. Jane Roach gave a humorous reading "Granpa's Christmas Trial." Mrs. Poole, who acted as topicmistress, arranged a clever bingo game played with Christmas pictures, winners receiving the exchange gift.

Next meeting of the organization will be held January 8 at Fir Manor.

Compare number of servings as well as prices when shopping. A rolled boned ham will serve up to 4 1/2 people while a whole ham serves 3 per pound.

Former Mill City Girl Announces Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Portland, former residents of Mill City this week are announcing the engagement of their daughter Miss Evelyn Faith Taylor to A2c Vernon Gene Starks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Starks of Independence. Both Miss Taylor and Mr. Starks are graduates of Central Hi in Monmouth-Independence. Miss Taylor attended school here from 1948 to 1955. No date has been set for the wedding.

Rebekahs Have Annual Christmas Party Here

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dowdy were voted to membership in Santiam Rebekah lodge at their Wednesday evening meeting. New members will be initiated at the first meeting in January with Dorothy Vail, noble grand in charge.

Date for installation of new officers has been set for January 10 with District Deputy President Mabel Yankus and Stanley Vail of the IOOF in charge of the joint affair. Practice dates were set for January 3rd and 9th.

Mrs. Rachel Olmstead and Mrs. Vail will be co-chairmen for the New Year's Eve dinner and party for Rebekahs-Oddfellows and their families at the hall.

Following the business meeting the annual Christmas party was held with the lodge room and serving tables beautifully arranged in the Christmas motif by the committee in charge: Mrs. Gladys Mason, Mrs. Faustina Nesbitt, Mrs. Mattie Root, and Mrs. Carol Oht.

Gifts were exchanged and fortunes told from the clever gold Christmas fortune tree made by Mrs. Nesbitt.

Enjoyable Cantata At Presbyterian Church

The cantata, "All Folks on Earth Do Sing," was impressively presented Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church by members of the choir under the able direction of Mrs. Donald Sheythe, with Mrs. Barney Scott as organist.

Soloists were Miss Rosalie Scott, Mrs. Russell Kelly, and Robert Harris. Choir members included Mary Gay ReMine, Rosalie Scott, Susan Jenkins, Karen Marshall, Betty Dunbar, Rosamond ReMine, Dorothy Kelly, Karen Kelly, Jewell Bennett, Marjorie Parker, Edna Ross, Bette Kelly, Lowell Fleetwood, Wayne Thomas, Carl Kelly, and Robert Harris.

A prelude, "Silent Night," was effectively played at the piano by Mary Gay ReMine, with Jean Scott accompanying at the organ.

At the close of the presentation, a beautifully-decorated Noble fir Christmas tree, with added "greenery," was presented to Rev. Robert Roach and family by Donald Sheythe on behalf of the congregation.

Presbyterian Primary Class Holds Party

Sunday afternoon, the primary department of the Presbyterian church school, under the leadership of Mrs. James Swan, Miss Sigrun Grimstead, and Mrs. Robert Roach, held a "sharing party." The group consisted of first, second, and third graders of the Sunday school.

The children brought home-made tree decorations and decorated four small Christmas trees, after which they were delivered to as many "shut-ins" around town. The youngsters also sang Christmas carols to the recipients and gave them small gifts, such as jam or jelly.

Those receiving the offerings of the little people were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hirte, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith and Mrs. M. L. Meyers.

Assisting in the project were Mrs. Arlo Tuers, Mrs. Paul Helgath, Mrs. Don Walker, and Frank Crowthers, who drove cars.

Monday noon, the kindergarten children held its sharing party, with decorated trees being taken to Miss Daisy Geddes and Mrs. W. J. Robinson. Teachers in charge were Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. Roy Epperson, and Mrs. Frank Moore.

Make you own colored sugar by adding a few drops to granulated sugar. Stir until color is evenly distributed, then spread out to dry.

In the tradition of an American Christmas we send you our sincere best wishes.
