Fewer Business Firms Reported in Marion Co.

Mill City was one of the few cities in Marion county holding its own as far as business concerns listed with Dun & Bradstreet, Inc.

"There are 38 fewer business concerns in Marion County today than there were last year, says J. Harry White, district manager of the Portland office of the firm. Basing his facts upon a physical count of the businesses listed in the January 1959 Dun & Bradstreet Reference book, White points out that in 1958 there were 1,915 firms listed in Marion county as compared with 1,877 businesses now, a decrease of 2.0%.

Using the reference book listings as a guide, it is interesting to review what has happened in the seven principal Marion county communities during the past year.

Mill City remained the same as in 1958 with 33 firms reporting each year. Stayton had the biggest loss percentage-wise in the county. In 1958 there were 85 firms reporting against 76 this year, for a loss of 10.6%. Silverton had 125 firms in '58 and 122 in 1959. Mt. Angel 40 last year and 38 this year for a loss of 10%. Woodburn was the only city showing a gain. They had 126 last year and 131 this year for a 4% gain. Jefferson remained the same with 27 firms reporting, and Salem showed a loss, 1271 reporting in 1958 and 1256 in 1959 for a 1.2% loss.

All Aliens Required to Report to Government

Immigration officials are well pleased with the response of aliens in the State of Oregon to address report requirements.

James L. Turner, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Portland, Oregon, stated that although the program has been underway only twelve days, the number reporting thus far is well ahead of the number reporting during the same period last year.

Aliens have until the end of January within which to submit their report of address to the government. Forms for the purpose may be obtained at any post office or any office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

All aliens, with few exceptions, are required to report. Those excused from this requirement include diplomats, persons accredited to certain international organizations and persons who were admitted temporarily as agricultural workers.

Aliens who are minors must also report, but the parents or legal guardian should submit the report for an alien child under fourteen years of age.

Vandals Break Glass At Scout Cabin Here

Vandals have still been breaking windows at the Scout Cabin in the city park, it was reported Monday night at the Lions club meeting. Some action will have to be taken to see if this cannot be curbed, as it is quite an expense for the club to keep on replacing windows, when they need their funds for more worthwhile community projects. The Lions built the cabin to be used by the youth of the community, but it seems a few do not appreciate their effort. A formal protest by the club to the city police commissioner is being made this week, to see if something can be done to curb this vandalism.

Ed Goschke won the prize at the Monday night Lions club meeting and turned over the proceeds to the March of Dimes fund.

Bob Veness had the program and showed an interesting film on baking crackers by the millions.

At the board meeting, the Lions voted to purchase glasses for a needy Mill City child. The club also gave $50 to the rifle club, which is sponsored by the Lions club.

U. S. National Shows Deposit Increase, 1958

Deposits at the United States National bank of Portland increased more than $1 million dollar, during the past year and now total $829,029,903 for the statewide system.

This better than 10 per cent deposit growth was accompanied by a 17 1/2-million dollar increase in loans and discounts, bringing the total to $331,479,546 as of December 31.

The Mill City branch reported deposits totaling $1,760,662.82, according to D. B. Hill, Jr., manager. Total loans and discounts for the local branch stood at $702,843.26 for the same period.

Growing with the state it serves, U. S. National marked up an 85-million dollar increase in resources for the 66 banking offices. The total is now $910,694,229 compared with $825,386,082 at year end 1957.

Two new branches were opened during 1958 and plans have been announced for another. A new branch was opened in the Menlo Park section of northeast Portland in May and a second branch was established in Eugene, in the River Road section, in August. Construction is now under way for a new branch to be opened late this spring at S. E. 48th and Woodstock avenue in the southeast section of Portland.

U. S. National continued its building program during the past year, with a new building completed for its Hillsboro Commercial branch and a major remodeling and expansion project at the Citizens branch in Portland. The first phase of the Citizens expansion was finished in the fall with the opening of the motor bank. Completion of the entire project has been set for this month.

The contract has just been awarded for the construction of a new building for the bank's University branch in Salem.

A proposal to pay dividends of one share of stock for each 10 now held by stockholders will be submitted for approval to U. S. National share holders, meeting to be held in Portland in late January, according to E. C. Sammons, president.

The resolution adopted by the bank's board of directors proposes issuance of an additional 100,000 shares of stock, par value $20 a share, to be distributed without cost on a pro rata basis to U. S. National share holders. The move will boost the bank's capital stock to 1,100,000 shares and give the institution a capital account of 22 million dollars compared with the present 20 million dollars. At the same time, surplus will be increased to 22 million and undivided profits will amount to more than 22 million.

The new stock dividend will be the fifth distribution of this kind made by the bank in less than 12 years, Sammons said. During that time, the bank's offices have been increased from 33 to 66 and deposits have increased from $550,571,354 on December 31 1946, to $829,029,903 at year end 1958.

Sammons also pointed out that 75 per cent of U. S. National's stock is owned by Oregon residents.

Children's Pictures Taken Free and Published in The Mill City Enterprise

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our Nation, and Community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures... they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer will all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Monday, January 26th. Pictures will be taken at the Friendship Hall and will be open from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. No Charge to Parents.

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain them by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures the Better

The Enterprise simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the Mothers and Fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date January 26 at the Fellowship Hall, Mill City and not fail to bring their children to the photographer. You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both Mother and Dad — and the youngsters, too — will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

The lady nodded. "You should have seen it before we cut its mane off."
