

--Mill Ends--

Mrs. Harry Wood, who was recently reported as being ill at her home, is somewhat improved and able to be out again.

Driving to Monmouth, where they are enrolled in college are Mrs. Bill Gleason of Gates, Mrs. Bob Thorpe and Mrs. Bill Lee. The three ladies are majoring in education.

Dr. Mark Hammericksen's Optometric offices in the Bell building in Stayton; Thursdays from 1:00 p. m. to 6:00 P. M. No appointments necessary. adv.

Lauran Holman, who recently transferred from the U. S. Moorings, Portland to work at Detroit Dam, was married Saturday, January 10 at Clatskanie. Mr. and Mrs. Holman are living in Gates.

Laura Jo Rambo was a patient at Santiam Memorial hospital from Thursday until Saturday of last week. She was reported as improving slowly at her home this week from a severe allergy attack.

Don't forget to reserve your second or third polio shot for January 28 by mailing a postal card to Mrs. Bill Hoeye by January 15. The shots will be given for $1 at the high school from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. January 28.

The Martha Troxel Circle will meet Tuesday evening, January 20 at 7:30 at the Christian church. The topic for the evening will be South America with Mrs. Richard Freeman as leader. Hostesses will be Mrs. Albin Cooper and Mrs. Robert Gregory.

Spending the week-end here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swan were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Smeenk and Johnny. The visitors attended the installation of officers for the Rebekahs and Oddfellows at the lodge hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. J. Robinson suffered a severe heart attack at her home early Sunday morning and was taken by ambulance to Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton. She was resting easier by the early part of the week, but her physician stated she would probably be hospitalized for at least a week or 10 days.

Max Kelly and his daughter, Patricia, of Barstow, Calif., are expected to arrive at the Sig Jepsen home by Wednesday evening of this week. He was called home due to the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, who is in the Santiam Memorial hospital. No visitors, except immediate family are allowed.

Willis Potter, recently of Arlington, Va., arrived here Friday to spend approximately two weeks with his mother, Mrs. J. F. Potter. His wife remained in Oakland, Calif., to be with their son and his wife, the Willis Potter, Jr., and their twin sons who are almost two years old. Mrs. Potter also has a daughter at Riverside, Calif. They have sold their home in the East, and expect to locate somewhere in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gooch and daughter, Twyla, of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, Jr. of Sweet Home spent Sunday here with their father, Fred Gooch, and their sister, Mrs. Sylvia Duncan, who has been taking an extended leave of absence from her position as pharmacist in a large department store in Salem.

Installation of officers will be the highlight of the meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association from 10 to 11:30 a. m., Thursday morning, January 15, at Fellowship hall. The program will feature "The Church in Our Day," and refreshments will be served by the morning circle. Baby sitting will be provided for those wishing to take advantage of that service.

Thursday evening the Jaycettes met at the home of Mrs. Larry Carrick. It was decided to have a tasting tea cooked food, and novelty apron sale; the date to be announced later. After the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess and cards were played. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Roy Podrabsky and Mrs. Chuck Harte. The next Jaycette meeting will be Thursday, January 22 at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Chuck Harte, 335 S. W. Ivy street.

A surprise birthday party honored Mrs. Ed Kellom last Friday afternoon, January 9, when a group of neighbors dropped in at Kellom's Grocery store with two birthday cakes for the occasion. Mrs. Kellom let it be known to her guests that it was her 75th birthday anniversary. Arranging the affair were Mrs. Ernest Graham, Mrs. Louis Verbeck and Mrs. Martin Hansen. Others attending, besides the guest of honor, were Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. Frank Kada, Mrs. Al Ward, Frances Holt, and daughter, Becky.

Surprise guests at the Eugene Gregory home Sunday were her sister and family, SSgt. Eddie Day, his wife, Cleia, and their 3-year-old twin sons, Kenny and Eddie, who just arrived back in the United States after having spent two years in Japan. They were on their way to Spokane, Wash., where they will be stationed for seven months, after which the family will spend three years in Germany. Another sister of Mrs. Gregory, was also here Sunday, accompanied by her family. They are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Delplanche (Rosie Bowe) and three girls, Hazel, Martha, and Ruby, of Cornelious.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pittam and three children, Sherry, Patty and David, returned last Wednesday from a month's trip to visit relatives in Nebraska. Their headquarters was the home of Mrs. Pittam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Eckles of Nelson, Neb., with many side-trips taken within a 100-mile radius. Some time was spent with a brother of Jerry's at Hastings. Mrs. Pittam stated that on the occasion of two different week-ends, a total of 20 relatives were present at one time, as she has a number of sisters and brothers in that area, as well as an uncle and aunt.

Condition of the roads during their travels was reported as excellent, even though it was as cold as 24 below zero at one time during their stay. Strange as it may seem, the most snow encountered at any one time was between Vale and Burns, Oregon on the way home.

The Carl Kelly family, accompanied by Mary Gay ReMine, returned last week from a 10-day trip to Newport Beach, Calif., in the Los Angeles area. The Shields ReMines remained for a longer stay.

The Kellys report wonderful weather during their southern visit, not hitting any icy highways until this side of Bend on the return trip.

Their first night in the South was spent at Van Nys, Calif., where they looked up Bill McCarthys and their two daughters, former Mill City residents. As the girls had attended school here together, Gayle McCarthy was very thrilled to see Karen Jean and Mary Gay. Her younger sister, Colleen, was also pleased. Their father is employed by Sears, and their mother works for the "Catalina" concern, manufacturers of play-clothes, where she does sewing.

The Mill City visitors rented a brand-new apartment right on the beach, rather than staying on the bay, which they had done formerly.

Mrs. Russell Kelly flew to Las Vegas, Nev., where she met the ReMines, and will return with them to Mill City this coming week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yankus and two children, Rozillah and Alan, returned last week from a three-week trip by car to Wisconsin and Illinois where they visited relatives of Mr. Yankus. Most of the time was spent at the homes of two sisters and families, Mrs. Isabelle Beedy of Manteno, Ill., and the Ted Janowitzes of Kenosha, Wisc., where a brother, Ed Yankus, also lives. Another sister, Mrs. Eleanor Duffy, was also visited at Fox Lake, Ill.

Mrs. Yankus explained that the towns of Kenosha and Manteno are located on either side of Chicago, but as the highway was slick and it was snowy at the time, they didn't try to make the loop trip to get a view of the city. They encountered good weather all the way back East, but on the return trip there was some difficulty with snow between Burley and Boise, Idaho. It was 20 degrees below zero when they went through Nebraska.

Mrs. Yankus stated Ray enjoyed ice skating and bowling, two sports which she had never taken part previous to their trip. She said Alan had a good time just traveling, but most of the cousins visited were nearer his sister's age, thus being a little old for him.

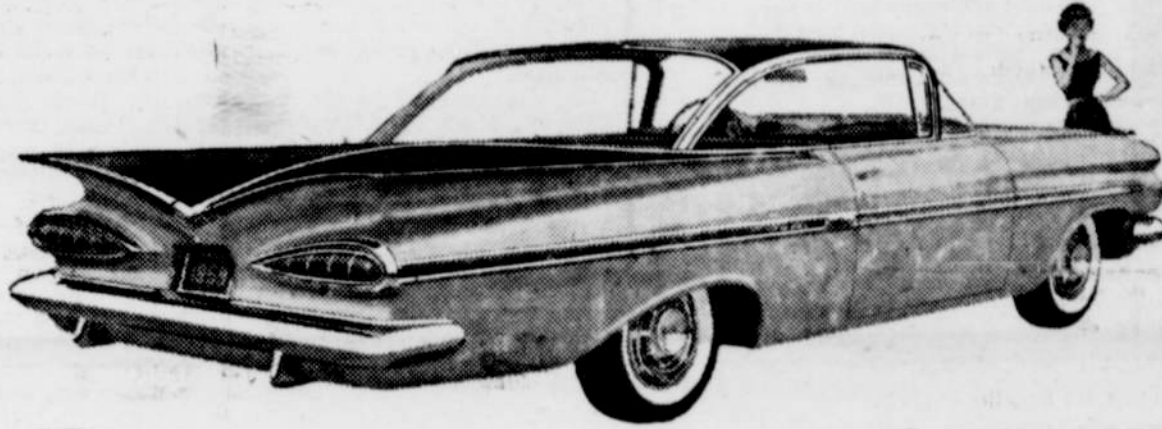

Want a new game for your parties? Place a ping-pong ball on top of an empty bottle near the edge of a table. Now, from a point six or eight paces back from the table, have your guests walk quickly past the bottle and, without slackening their pace, flick the ball off with a finger. Sound easy? Try it. Remember, contestants must not slow down or stop to shoot. Hint: aim at the bottom half of the ball.
