Married at Christian Church Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bohach were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the First Christian church here. Mrs. Bohach is the former Nancy Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Whitaker.—The Mill City Enterprise Photo.

Nancy Whitaker and Ed Bohach Exchange Wedding Vows Here

Exchanging their vows at the Mill City Christian Church Saturday night were Miss Nancy Whitaker and Edward P. Bohach, both of Seattle, Washington. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitaker of Mill City. The 8 o'clock nuptials were performed by Rev. B. A. Lawrence assisted by Rev. Hugh Jull, uncle of the bride.

Baskets of pink and white mums, carnations, and stock combined with greenery decorated the church with white wedding bells marking the pews.

Mrs. Hugh Jull, the bride's aunt was organist and accompanied Mrs. William Shepherd, cousin of the bride, who sang "Always" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a street length dress of Champagne lace over taffete with it she wore a small hat of flowers and white accessories. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid which belonged to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jerry Whitaker.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Jerry Whitaker of Salem. She wore a pink and white dress of chiffon with a pink satin bolero jacket, white gloves and a small headdress of pink velvet, satin and net. She wore a corsage of garnet roses at her waist.

Santo R. Sanseri of Portland was best man and Jerry Whitaker of Salem, brother of the bride was usher.

An antique rose dress was selected by Mrs. Whitaker for her daughter's wedding. Her flowers were American Beauty Roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social rooms of the church. Pink and white wedding bouquets and flowers were used about the rooms. Cutting the tiered wedding cake was Mrs. Hugh Jull. Mrs. William Shepherd presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Ray Kilpatrick of Seattle poured the punch. Mrs. Ralph Jull Appearing at the Christian Church February 3 at 7:30 P. M. will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rickerson, Missionaries from the Miyako Christian Mission. They are home on furlough for one year after spending five years on the mission field. They will show slides of the Leper Colonies and tell of their work. The public is most cordially invited to attend this service.

of Corvallis passed the guest book. The newlyweds opened their gifts. For going away the bride wore a red jersey dress with winter white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple will make their home in Seattle where the bride is employed by the Travel Advisers Agency and the groom by the University Sheet Metal Company.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Santo R. Sanseri of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kilpatrick of Seattle, Mr. Norman Jones of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Whitaker of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jull of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. White of Portland.

JayCettes To Sponsor Mother March of Dimes

This year the JayCettes will chair the Mother's March of Dimes in this area, which has formerly been handled by the Lions Club Auxiliary. The latter group will assist in the drive however.

The JayCettes will meet at the home of Mrs. Al Ziebert this Thursday and plans for the drive Thursday, January 29 will be made at that time.

Mrs. Charles Wirkkala Is Firemen's Auxiliary Pres.

At the last meeting of the Mill City Firemen's Auxiliary Mrs. Charles Wirkkala was elected president. Vice president is Mrs. Don Carlson, Mrs. Frances Bodeker is secretary and Mrs. Charley Stewart is treasurer.

A gift was presented the outgoing president, Mrs. Ken Christensen. At the pinocchio game which followed the meeting, Mrs. Wirkkala won high, Mrs. Charley Stewart low and Mrs. John Muir the door prize.

Dist. Governor Charles Kelly and Mrs. Kelly, accompanied by Lee Ross, were guests of honor at a Lions club banquet meeting at the clubhouse in Mapleton, Monday evening. Kelly gave a talk on "Lionism" and made a number of presentations.
