Middle East Pilgrimage Is Presbyterian Topic

The Afternoon Circle of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Schroeder. Study on "The Acts" was led by Mrs. Schroeder.

The business meeting was led by circle chairman, Mrs. C. E. Mason. The group arranged for flowers for the church for February.

Mrs. Robert Roach gave the first program in the new study on the Middle East from a book entitled "Middle East Pilgrimage."

Rev. L. O. White of Portland was guest speaker Sunday morning at the local Christian church.

Becky Stoll Is New Worthy Advisor of Rainbow Assembly

Miss Becky Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stoll, was installed at Worthy Advisor of Marilyn Assembly Order of Rainbow for Girls. The impressive ceremonies were held at the lodge hall Sunday afternoon, January 18.

Retiring Worthy Advisor was Miss Sandra Olson who was presented her white Rainbow Bible by Mother Advisor, Mrs. Robert Draper. She was also given a special degree by Miss Stoll and her new officers. Miss Nancy Storey presented the new worthy advisor with a special degree also.

Miss Stoll introduced members of her immediate family and out-of-town relatives here for the ceremony. Her father presented her with a gavel. Crowning ceremonies were by the Santiam Chapter Order of DeMolay of Boys, who presented the incoming and outgoing Worthy Advisors with nosebags.

Special recognition was given to Miss Carol Veness and Miss Phyllis Bickett for long time service to the Order.

Introductions included Miss Shereen Muir, grand representative to

Honor Society Members Inducted at PTA Meeting

The annual induction of newly-elected members of the Santiam Chapter of the National Honor Society was featured as the PTA meeting.

Invocation was given by Carol Warner. Inducted by Tom Fencil, president were Edin Hirte, Judith Hoeye, Shereen Muir, Sandra Merry, Phyllis Neal, Phyllis Pate, and Rod Schaefer. Probationary members are Marcia Barnhardt and Sharon Whitsett.

Escorting them were Carol Sue Ball torch bearer, and Ronald Kuhlman, marshal, Frances Nesbitt, Vernon Johnson, Sandra Rowen, and Jeanne Jennings, instructed the new members, representing Character, Scholarship, and Leadership.

Leaders of the local chapter are Mrs. Harry Mason and Gilbert Adams, both of the high school faculty. Officers of the society are, Tom Fencil, president; Carol Warner, vice president; Sandra Rowen, secretary, and Jeanne Jennings, treasurer.

The PTA presented a service pin to Gladys Podrabsky, who is in charge of the school cafeteria and assisted "above and beyond the call of duty" at a recent PTA ham dinner.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Edsel Croan and Mrs. George Humphrey reported on visiting new families, as their part on the "welcoming committee." Mrs. James Putman's second and third grade room won the prize for having the most parents present at the meeting.

It was announced the last of the series of three adult polio shots would be given at the school Jan. 28.

State President of Womans Club Here for Meeting

Distinguished guests of the Mill City Woman's club Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. M. Cline were Mrs. Melford Nelson, Independence, president of the State Federation and Mrs. John Tyler of Salem, president of the third district of woman's club.

The polio clinic for January 28 was discussed. A "CARE" committee was appointed for a drive in this area. Another committee was appointed for the meeting of the Marion County Federation meeting in April, with the Mehama Club as joint hostesses. The amount of $12.75 was raised for the Scholarship Loan Fund. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.
