Dennis Clipfell To Represent Mari-Linn in Annual Spelling Contest

LYONS—Dennis Clipfell will again represent the Mari-Linn school as a spelling entrant for the Statesman-KSLM yearly contest. Dennis emerged as winner of a spell-down recently held at the school. This is the second year Dennis, an eighth-grade pupil has represented the school. Alternate will be Vivian Wilson and third runner-up was Joyce Prichard.

The spell-down was conducted by Ralph Hurst, eighth grade teacher at the February meeting of the PTC. The spelling panel consisted of Dennis Clipfell, Vivian Wilson, Joyce Prichard, Tommy Prideaux, and Billie Prichard, who had qualified as the best speller in the school.

Lela Barkley Has
Interesting Flight Home

In a letter received from Lela Kelly Barkley by her parents she states that the return trip to Manhattan, Kansas, was more eventful than her trip out here two weeks before. Upon landing for the usual short stop at Denver, Colo., the passengers were informed that their flight had been cancelled, and that they had a choice of continuing by Continental Plane or taking the train. Worrying about her husband meeting her and the baby in Kansas City, Mrs. Barkley decided to take the Continental—which turned out to be a luxury "Golden Carpet Flight."

Arriving in K. C. an hour later than originally scheduled, Lela found that Paul wasn't there, as he had been informed the passengers were continuing by train from Denver and wouldn't arrive until the next day. Luckily, she knew a lady she could stay with in Kansas City, but upon arriving at her house she found that she had the wrong suit-case. As someone else had called the Terminal in the same predicament, the Airline sent out a man in a cab to straighten out the luggage problem. Paul made his second 120-mile trip to K. C. after his family on Friday, by which time the storm was over, and they arrived in Manhattan that evening.

Annual District Meeting
Of Eastern Star Held
Here Monday Night

The annual District Meeting for Victoria Chapter of Turner, Acacia Chapter of Stayton, and Marilyn Chapter of Mill City, Order of the Eastern Star, was held here at the lodge hall Monday night in honor of Daisy Thomsen of Hood River, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, who was making her official visit. While in this vicinity, the distinguished visitor was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson of Gates.

Presiding over the meeting were the following worthy matrons and worthy patrons: Julia Kemp and Walter Brisbin of Marilyn Chapter; Leona Dimbat and Karl Wipper of Victoria Chapter; and Nellie Watson and Arlo Martin of Acacia Chapter.

Exemplification of the work was carried out as follows: Marilyn Chapter, opening, closing, and business session; Acacia Chapter, escort and balloting; and Victoria Chapter, initiation, during which Edward Dimbat, Jr., and Scott Andersen received the degrees of the order.

Escorted to the East, besides the Worthy Grand Matron, were Grand Committee Members, Merle Lamar of Silverton, Estal Awards Committee; Edna Hutcheson of Gates, Estal Fund Committee; and Lillian Humphrey of Stayton, Chairman of Pay of Representatives Committee. Jo Carrick of Stayton, Grand Representative for the State of Maine, was also introduced.

Officers of all three chapters were lovely in their formal gowns of American Beauty red, which was a happy coincidence, as well as very appropriate in the Valentine atmosphere of the decorations.

Announcements included the "Sweetheart Ball" in honor of the Grand Family Thursday evening, February 12, in the Jefferson High School gymnasium, and an invitation from Cedar Chapter of Scio for Monday, February 16.

Under "good of the order," the Worthy Grand Matron interestingly told some of the history of the heroines for whom the Star Points were named, also complimenting Karl Wipper of Turner on his letter-perfect rendition of the initiatory work. Brief remarks were made by others.
