

GATES

Mrs. H. N. Wilson

The Centennial plates given as door prizes, were won by Mrs. Naoma Underwood, of Mill City and Fred Stone of Gates. The Gates club members express their thanks for the grand cooperation of all who brought and shared their valuable antiques—aged, or rare and many of breathtaking beauty. Over half of the guests arrived in centennial costume, some in actual outfits retrieved from trunks and attics, contributing much to the "big party" feeling and gaiety.

Refreshments were served from an appropriately appointed buffet table, with Mrs. W. R. Hutcherson pouring in the afternoon and Mrs. Walter Thomas in charge in the evening. Young Bluebird girls, in centennial dresses and bonnets, assisted the hostesses by passing plates of assorted cookies to guests seated at card tables, each of which held a lighted kerosene lamp.

Miss Rose Marie Toepfer and brother Ronny, of Fern Ridge, were guests several days this week at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Till Rains.

A large group attended the meeting of the Santiam Canyon Extension Unit in the Women's Clubhouse on Thursday, when Mrs. Robert Kelle and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge discussed and served "Low Calorie Dishes." Delicious salads, a variety of low calorie dressings were prepared and tasted, with a delicious low calorie lemon dessert to complete the meal. Mrs. Jerry Rosamond, chairman, and Ruth Riss, secretary, conducted a short business meeting. Guests from Mill City for the day included Mmes. Sid Baughman, Lowell Cree, Earl Harper, June Hauser, Frances Dolezal, Mildred Bates, Bettie Cole, Dorothy Vail, Blanche Syverson, Edna Helgath, Isabel Heller, and Rachel Olmstead. Mrs. Glenn Henness and Mrs. Jerry Rosamond will be Project Leaders for the March meeting, their topic being "Household Insects, Etc."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Currie, of Salem spent Sunday at the home of their niece, Mrs. Wm. Pennick and family—enjoying a trip up the canyon in the afternoon, and the beautiful spring weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cooley of Prineville, were overnight guests of the home of their niece, Mrs. Jerry Rosamond and family, on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Rosamond and two children spent the weekend in Prineville, attending a family reunion of Mrs. Rosamond's family—to honor her brother and wife who just recently arrived home from France.

Mrs. Marie Herron, of Mill City spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Novaek, following a stay at the Santiam Memorial Hospital in Stayton, where she underwent surgery.
