By Mrs. John Teeters Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers, who have been living in Salem visited friends here and in Mill City last Wednesday. The Myers are leaving this week for an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Anderson and three daughters and Richard Anderson of Klamath Falls, were Saturday guests at the Art Anderson home.
They also visited during the week end with relatives in Mill City.

Visitors at the Raymond Branch home from Tuesday to Thursday of last week were Mr. Branch's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stewart of Neotsu.

Mrs. Elwyn Erickson of Healds-burg, Calif., visited several days last week with her parents the B. L.
Kirschs' and also with the Leo Kirsch family and with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weber and children of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ercill Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Crandall were among those attending the Oregon Logging Congress in Eugene last week.

Visiting during the weekend at the Frank Buckler home were their daughter, Mrs. Al Mohar, and son, Jim, of Oak Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Tietze were in Molalla on Friday of last week transacting business.

Luncheon guests last Tuesday of Mrs. Boyd Norton were Mrs. Blanch McDonald of Salem, Mrs. D. L. Teeters and Mrs. Harold Longfellow.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorge Jones moved during the weekend into the Pearl Allaway house. The Jones' formerly lived in San Jose, Calif. Mr. Jones is employed at the Philippi Tire Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. George Haleman of Tumalo visited here a short time Monday on their way to Salem.

Santiam Ripples

By Judi Hoeye
All ready for the countdown? Only 12 weeks of school left. And then—whoosh! You won't be able to see us leaving.

Along with the close of the year comes a mad rush of events. The FBLA has been quite active. Monday night, a week ago, they served dinner for the Lions Club and Thursday they went to Salem to the Capital Business college. It was interesting and they enjoyed it.

The Home Ec IV class served a delicious dinner to two reporters from the Statesman, Bob Swartz and Merv Jenkins. They had come up to entertain the FHA with songs and jokes. Everyone was well pleased with the results.

Tuesday was the last basketball game of the season. Now baseball is under way. The girls' around here never get a break!

Mrs. Cox and Miss Kirsch, who taught the Nurse's Appreciation course at Santiam Memorial hospital, paid the Home Ec IV class a visit recently. They were very pleased with what they saw. We were glad to have them.

My! My! We have some clumsy persons in our student body. One girl was simply walking down the hall when she slipped and fell. It twisted her ankle and she had to use crutches for several days. Serves her right, don't you think?

Friday night was a rather quiet one. No basketball game, no dance—but we had a dilly of a dance Saturday night. It was the Mad Hatter's ball, sponsored by the Juniors.
Everyone was supposed to wear a crazy hat and everyone did. Bill Putman won for the boys, with a top hat that completely covered his face and came to his shoulders. Someone said it gave his face an unbecoming blank look. Mary Ann Bassett won with as nice a hat as we've seen in a long time, with a little toy train sewed on it. Her train of thought apparently went to her head.

Spending the money on a size smaller dress will be much more fun than relying on special reducing products to streamline the figure. Buying expensive food or reducing preparations just aren't necessary if you know how to choose low calorie foods from the normal things you serve each day.
You'll be glad of the new understanding of the whole problem of weight control when you participate in the Nutrition Workshop to be held in March in Marion County. The 3-day sessions are open to the public and interested homemakers may register by calling the County Extension Office, EM 4-4401 Extension 67 in the County Courthouse.

GATES

Mrs. H. N. Wilson
Mrs. Dick Parker accompanied by Mr. Steve Myers of Mehama, attended an OEA banquet in Salem last Tuesday evening. It was held in the Oregon room at Meier & Frank's.

Mrs. Mattie Root and granddaughter, Judy Kadin, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Margie Parker and three daughters Tuesday night, it being a special event honoring the birthday of Mrs. Root by Mrs. Parker, another granddaughter.

The Little Budget and Exchange Shop operated by the Firemen's Auxiliary in the library of the Gates high school building, will be open all day Friday, March 6. There is a good supply of clean used articles for men, women, and children, also shoes and other articles—the fees are unbelievably small, and the money raised will go to provide necessary articles for school children.

W. A. Warriner, now of Oakridge, visited Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Edholm. Warriner was previously employed here, and is well known in the area.

Eugene Carey and daughter, Beverly, of Portland, visited Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Velma Carey.

There will be another "work day" at the Gates Community church this Saturday. Work has progressed very well on the new Sunday school room, and the labor of the volunteers is much appreciated by all. There will be the usual pot luck at noon. On Sunday, Arlin Rothhaug, from Northwestern Christian college in Eugene, will again conduct the services.

Don Moffatt of The Enterprise was present at the Centennial Coffee and Antique exhibit Friday afternoon and took two pictures, one showing many adults in centennial costume, and another with several children in costume in the foreground.
Anyone wishing either of these pictures may have a copy by contacting either Don Moffatt or Mrs. H. N.
Wilson. The fee is 50c each.

Remove grease spots from a resintreated cotton fabric with a cleaning solvent as soon as possible. Then wash as usual.

If your grocery bill startles you, check the number of non-food items.
Does your "food bill" cover what you would otherwise buy at drug, dime, or garden-supply stores?

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Windy Gets "Collared"

A stranger walked into Fudge Barton's store the other day wearing one of those "Chesterfield" coats. When the boys saw the fancy velvet collar, they broke out laughing.

The stranger seemed to ignore them and went on about his business. He even pretended he didn't hear Windy's remark about the "big city" coat. Then, on leaving, he walked over to Windy.

"I gather you find my coat peculiar," he said. "Well, where I come from we're so peculiar we even extend a hand to strangers." With that, he shook Windy's hand.

From where I sit, the twist on the old adage is true: "clothes don't make the man." We ought to judge a man for what he is.
That's tolerance, something we ought to practice every day.
For example, you like coffee ...
I like a glass of beer. That doesn't make either of us "different" or anything to laugh at.

Joe Marsh
