Pre-Nuptial Shower Held Thursday Night For Olivette N. Roles

A nice affair of Thursday evening, May 14, was the bridal shower at Fir Manor, the Home Economics house, with which the fourth-year Homemaking girls honored their instructor, Mrs. Olivette Roles. About thirty-five persons attended the interesting event.

The informal evening was spent in appropriate games, the opening of the many lovely gifts, and the serving of refreshments. Mrs. Roles was the recipient of many pieces of her crystal pattern, an electric fry-pan from her first-year girls, and numerous other attractive gifts.

Those attending the shower included Mrs. John Muir, Mrs. Al Yankus, Susan Jenkins, Shereen Muir, Sharon Whitsett, Carol Edwards, Frances Nesbitt, Jeannie Jennings, Pamela Merry, Judith Hampton, Mrs. Howard Farmer, Jeanie Kelly, Keith Ann Croan, Mrs. Harold Simes, Darlene Underwood, Joyce Calkins, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Bonnie Whitsett, Mrs. Charles Wirkkala, Mrs. Jack Scott, Sandy Merry, Mrs. Roy Pate, Phyllis Pate, Julie Randall, Mrs. Martin Hansen, Miss Sherry Hansen, Mrs. Joe Lalack, Karren Marshall, Mary Ann Bassett, Judy Podrabsky, and Mary Gay ReMine.

Others who sent gifts, but were unable to be present, were Mrs. T. H. Baughman, Mrs. William Pennick, Mrs. Charlie Stewart, Betty Perrin, Cheryl Hirte, Barbara Hirte, Annabelle Gripe, Ellen Hoeye, Mrs. Tony Maristoni, Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Carol Pate, Treva Bickett, Mrs. Ed Calkins, Mrs. Richard Ziebert, Mrs. Burton Boroughs, Mrs. Lawrence Brent, and Mrs. John MacGregor.

The guest of honor has announced that she will become the bride of Monroe E. Kinsey on the evening of the twenty-second in the Methodist Church at Corvallis, with a reception following in the ballroom of the Benton Hotel in that city.

Mr. Kinsey is associated with the U. S. Forest Service at Fall River Mills, Calif., and at present is enrolled in the School of Forestry at Oregon State College in Corvallis.

Lawrence Robertson has been assigned to Den 3 as Den Chief, according to Mrs. Glen Damewood and Mrs. Celi Croan, den mothers. At a meeting held at the Damewood home recently the cubs worked on their hobby books. They are preparing a short skit at the present time for the June Pack meeting.

Frances Nesbitt Is Installed as Worthy Advisor of Rainbow

An impressive installation ceremony for the new officers of Marilyn Assembly, No. 60, Order of Rainbow for Girls, was held at the lodge hall Sunday afternoon, May 17, with Becky Stoll of Idanha as the installing officer under the direction of the mother advisor, Mrs. Robert Draper. Other installing officers were Chaplain, Sandra Olson; Recorder, Phyllis Pate; Marshal, Shereen Muir; and Musician, Mrs. Bill Hoeye.

Installed as the new worthy advisor, with the crowning ceremony put on by the new Canyon Chapter of DeMolay for Boys, was Miss Frances Nesbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Nesbitt. For her installation, Frances wore a pink taffeta formal with a corsage of stephanotis at the waistline.

Others installed were associate worthy advisor, Nancy Storey; Hope, Pat Henry; Faith, Judy Kay; Charity, Sharon Hirte; Recorder, Kathy Harris; Treasurer, Doris Hutchinson; Chaplain, Patsy Pennick; Drill Leader, Sandra Harris; Associate Drill Leader, Bonnie Boroughs; Musician, Janet Hutchinson; Choir Director, Cheryl Hirte; Outer Observer, Rozellah Yankus; Confidential Observer, Janice Logan; Love, Barbara Cunningham (who was not present); Reigion, Suzy Carlson; Nature, Alice Bickett; Immortality, Virginia Richards; Fidelity, Ellen Hoeye; Patriotism, Carol Pate; Service, Sharon Whitsett; and Page, Ariene Kershaw; Choir members include Dorothea Humphrey, Sandra Jackson, and Laurene Podrabsky.

Members of the Canyon Chapter of DeMolay taking part included: Master Counsellor, Jim Gulliford; senior Counsellor, Kurt Baughman; Junior Counsellor, Walt Thomas; starboard, Oscar Harris; Chaplain, Alan Tuers; Junior Deacon, Dennis Jenkins (not present); and Guardian of the Temple, Ray Gulliford. Dad of DeMolay for the group is Robert Draper.

Immediately following the installation, the new worthy advisor introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nesbitt, and presented them with flowers. Mr. Nesbitt then presented his daughter with a new gavel.

Introduced and escorted to the East were the past worthy advisors: Sherry Hansen, Phyllis Pate, Shereen Muir, Sandra Olson, and Becky Stoll.

Other distinguished guests introduced and seated in the honored East were Edna Hutcheson, grand committee member for the Estar Fund, Grand Chapter of Oregon, OES; and Eugene Jacobson, worn-pfui master, Mill City Lodge, No. 180, A.F.&A.M.

Following the crowning ceremony for the worthy advisor, Jim Gulliford and Jamie Baughman presented Frances Nesbitt and Becky Stoll with yellow nosegays on behalf of Canyon Chapter of DeMolay.

Miss Nesbitt presented gifts to her installing officers, also a gift of appreciation to Dorothy Draper, the mother advisor.

A clever degree, spelling out her name was put on for Becky Stoll, junior past worthy advisor, by Frances Nesbitt and a group of girls, after which her Rainbow Bible was presented to Becky by Mrs. Draper.

Another short degree, spelling out "Frances" was presented for the newly-installed worthy advisor by Becky Stoll and the officers.

Miss Patsy Pennick announced the following program: vocal duet by Sandra Thomas and Yvonne Dickey, accompanied by Robert Harris; and two piano solos by Bernice Potter.

A gift and message of congratulation was given to Miss Nesbitt by Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson on behalf of Miss Julia Kemp, worthy matron of Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, OES.

Mrs. Don Paul To Head Woman's Club Next Year

The May meeting of the Mill City Woman's Club was held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, with Mrs. R. F. Saucier and Mrs. C. E. Rogers as refreshment hostesses, Mrs. Bill Hoeye, president, was in charge of the business meeting, with Mrs. James Putman as secretary.

Two high school girls, Barbara Hirte and Karren Marshall, representing the teen-age committee, called "TAC," explained the needs of the committee and requested the sponsorship of a float for the Fourth of July parade which is to feature the Centennial theme. The girls stated that their group was willing to help serve or put on entertainment for any organization contacting a member of their committee.

A report of the Youth Committee was given by Virginia Hoeye who told of the recent "show me" trip sponsored by the club for the Campfire Girls. Short reports were also given on the meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's Glubs held here in April, with the Mehama club as co-hostess.

Promotion of the continuation of the Linn County Bookmobile was discussed at length, and letters from individual tax-payers encouraged. Several club members who are residents of Linn County wrote their letters immediately following the club meeting, to be mailed to the county court.

Chief business of the evening was election of officers for the next year, upon report of the nominating committee given by Mrs. Jerry Pittam, with others serving on the committee being Mrs. M. G. Rambo and Mrs. De Witt.
