Mrs. H. N. Wilson
Friends are happy to hear that Wilbur (Webb) Case, who was injured in a logging accident has regained consciousness after 32 days of being in a coma. He is now on the road to recovery.

A treat is in store for all who attend the Santiam Canyon Fair at the Gates Schoolgrounds Friday or Saturday afternoon, June 26 and 27, when the local CYF group will serve homemade ice cream, over home made pie, if you wish, in real Gay Nineties style.

Mrs. Joe Novak and Mrs. Walter Brislin are hostesses for the Coffee Hour this week in the Woman's clubhouse today, Thursday June 4. Mrs. Novak will serve her famous "Kolachys" a recipe she learned in the old country, and all friends are invited to call between 2 and 4 p. m. An interesting feature will be a display of oldtime dolls and toys—any one having an item to share, is asked to bring it.

Carol Sue Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ball has been chosen from Santiam Union high school to be one of the princesses in the Santiam Bean Festival court, one of which will be chosen queen. Carol graduated from high school last week and plans to enter college this fall, taking up the teaching profession.

John Barnhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt will graduate this month from OSC as will Daniel Roney, son of Mrs. Louisa Wriggles-

The American Legion was in charge of services Memorial Day at the Fairview cemetery on the prairie—the wreath this year being placed on the grave of Benjamin Carter. There was a large attendance, and the grounds were in excellent shape this year. Many familiar faces were seen from out of town Friday and Saturday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robertson of Albany and his sister, Mrs. Nora Goodwin of Stayton; Mrs. Mildred Stoakes, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wrigglesworth and small son, Aberdeen, Wn., Mrs. Louisa Wrigglesworth and her mother, Mrs. Rosa Roten of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Romey and three children of Waldport; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Romey and two boys of Corvallis; Cecil Wrigglesworth, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cline, Foster; Mrs. Bob Toepfer and her mother, Mrs. Cora Harmon, both of McMinnville; Mrs. Dorothy Wiltsey and her mother, Mrs. Lincoln Hennes, Salem and Mrs. Verna (Steffle) Hunsiger, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Schaer and two children from Longview, Wash., attended graduation exercises at Mill City Wednesday, honoring their nephew, Rodney Schaer.

The weekend was a busy one for Mrs. Velma Carey, when all of her sons and their families stopped in for a visit. Norman Carey of Albany and Gale Carey of Stayton, went to Meadows Lake, also Marion Lake, bringing home a few trout. Eugene Carey of Portland and friend, Bill Miles of Silverton also went fishing, while Mrs. Eugene Carey, Diane, and Beverly visited. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey and three sons of Stayton, were present, also James Carey, who is employed at Canby.

Mrs. Walter Brislin received word of the birth of a 8 pound 2 ounce son to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Larson, on May 26. The baby has been named Steven Glen, and has an older sister, Debbie, born in England during his service there. AIC Larson has just been promoted to Staff Sgt. at the Larson AFB near Moses Lake, Wn., according to his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson enjoyed a fishing trip to East Lake over the Memorial Day weekend. Weather was perfect, but all had the same complaint—just TOO many people.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowes were in Portland to see "The Windjammer" and had dinner at the new international airport later.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hennes attended the recital of Mrs. Barney Scott's pupils in Mill City Sunday afternoon in Fellowship hall. Their granddaughter, Kande Hennes was presented, also Joyce Gleason, daughter of Principal and Mrs. William Gleason.

Mrs. Lilly Lake visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Hennes and family Sunday evening, and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Hennes to Salem Monday where she will be with Mrs. Fred Ratzburg for a time. She had been staying here with her granddaughter, Mrs. Jo Anne Schroeder for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Dorothy Newberg returned Sunday from Duluth, Minn., where she was called due to the death of Mr. Newberg's mother.

Another long-time Gates resident, Paul Shephard, now of Tensed, Idaho, was in Gates Saturday, and visited old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards. Calling Friday was the former Supt. of Highway construction when Knackenberg put the highway through here. He is now engaged in the John Day country, between Bend and Burns.
