Local Residents Attend Faust Reception at Albany

Many old-time friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Faust from this area attended the afternoon reception honoring their Golden Anniversary last Sunday, June 14, at the Robert Trask's in Albany where they have made their home for some time. Over sixty people signed the guest-book.

A huge, beautifully-decorated wedding-cake was the center of attraction, with coffee and punch also being served. A large bronze-colored floral piece had been presented to the couple, as well as an orchid corsage to Mrs. Faust, who is able to get around in a wheel-chair. Many lovely cards of congratulations were also received by the couple.

Hostesses for the affair were their four daughters, Mrs. Lee Ross of Mill City, Mrs. Homer Thacker of Happy Camp, Calif., and Mrs. A. Parks and Mrs. Robert Trask, both of Albany. Their son, Bob Faust, and his wife were also present from Oregon City.

Among former Mill City residents attending the reception were Mrs. W. L. Quinn of Seaside, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mason (Marjorie Trask) of Sweet Home, Leon and Tommy Thacker of Happy Camp, Calif., Mrs. Al VanDahl and her daughter, Mrs. David Blake (Alberta VanDahl), of Albany and Mrs. Henry Saucier, also of Albany.

Included in those going from Mill City, besides the Lee Rosses, were Mr. and Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. John Swan, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sheythe, Mrs. N. S. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly.

Miscellaneous Shower Given for Mrs. Devine

GATES—Mrs. Gordon R. Devine, nee Phyllis Neal, was feted with a lovely miscellaneous shower in the Gates clubhouse Friday evening. Hostesses were Mrs. Clare Rush, Mrs. Glen Henness and Mrs. Hattie Cole. Bouquets of pink flowers were used about the room.

After opening the lovely gifts, a beautifully decorated cake was served from the buffet table, at which Mrs. Marlin Cole of Salem, poured. Those attending were Meses. Clarence Ball, Charles Tucker, Frank Novack and daughter, Janice, Henry Eccleston, Merle Devine, Harry Harmon and daughter, Lorena, Willard Howell, Richard Sibley, Harold Wilson, Maude Davis, Ruth Kershaw, Albert Bell, W. R. Hutcheson, Ruth Hess, Clyde Oliver, Walter Brisbin, Oscar Osterhout, of Gates; Mrs. Pete Etzel of Fern Ridge; Donnalee Oliver and Mrs. Marlin Cole of Salem; Phyllis Pate, Mrs. Gladys Mason, and Mrs. Blanche Syverson of Mill City. Placing the gifts were Diane Rush of Salem and Shariene Cole of Mill City.

Sending gifts were Arlene Kershaw, Meses. Hollis Turnidge, Gordon Ward, Oliver Watson, Harry Keiser, Till Rains, William Pennick, Velma Carey, Elmer Stewart, Connie and Beverly, Robert Levon, Gwenn Schaefer, Frankie Johnson, Ed Kadin and Judy, Ruby Stubbs, Grace Myers, Wilma Bumgarner, and Mrs. Joseph Bowes, and Mrs. Barbara Pate of Mill City.

Ninety and Nine Men Hold District Meeting Here Monday Night

The District Meeting of the Ninety and Nine Men's Fellowship was held Monday night at the Christian church here. A 6:30 dinner was prepared and served by the ladies of the CWF. Fifty-four men and boys were present for the dinner.

Following group singing and prayer the business meeting was conducted by the president, Bob Dornhecker of Dallas. Richard Owen of Monmouth is secretary for the group and Bob Piper of Salem is the treasurer. Richard Freeman of Mill-City was program chairman for the evening.

Speaker for the evening was Prof. James Kinsey of Northwest Christian college at Eugene who spoke on "Prescription for Greatness." Hugh Jull presented the meditation and Arland Rothage, pastor at Gates sang "The 90 and 9," accompanying himself on the electric guitar.

The August meeting will be held at the Court Street Christian church in Salem. This will be ladies night and Governor Mark Hatfield will be the guest speaker.

18 Rainbow Girls Attend Grand Assembly

Early Sunday morning the Gates school bus left for LaGrande loaded with Rainbow girls. There were 18 girls aboard, accompanied by their driver, Gene Jacobson and the two chaperones, Mrs. Stella Kay and Mrs. Viola Hirte. Mrs. Bob Draper, mother advisor, was unable to attend this year. This is the first time she has missed grand assembly in six years.

Monday Mrs. Draper received a call from Judy Kay at LaGrand stating she had received the appointment as Grand Service for next year. This is a surprise to the girl selected as now one knows until the announcement at Grand Assembly.

Miss Phyllis Bickett received the Grand Cross of Color for being a faithful and outstanding service in Grand Choir.

Toastmistress Installation Held Here Recently

At the last meeting of the current year new officers of the Mill City Toastmistress Club were installed at impressive candlelight ceremonies Thursday evening, June 11.
