

--Mill Ends--

Guests Saturday night of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farmen, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Berry and two children of Happy Camp, Calif., spent the week-end at the Cecil Lake and D. E. Hill homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Nelson and E. H. McGrath of Mobile, were visitors in Bend Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cuthbert.

Linda Budlong from Happy Camp, Calif. is visiting in Mill City at the home of her grandfather "Boots" Higdon, and her aunt, Miss Ruth Higdon.

Dr. Mark Hammerickson's Optometric offices in the Bell building in Stayton; Thursdays from 1:00 p. m. to 6:00 P. M. No appointments necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albin Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelle of Gates, spent the weekend fishing at Marion Lake. They reported getting a nice catch of fish.

Bob Pratt, accompanied by Kathleen Story and children, and Mrs. John Muir and Shereen Muir, went to Portland Saturday to take in the rose festival parade.

The Ed Goshie family went to Portland Saturday to attend to business matters. While there they took in the rose festival parade and also some of the Centennial.

Sylvia Duncan was in Salem Saturday afternoon and attended a luncheon of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority held at the Oregon Room of Meier and Franks that noon.

Brooks Crosier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Crosier of Oakland, Calif., former residents here, received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Oregon June 14.

NOTICE: News items for the Society and Woman's Page of the Mill City Enterprise may be given to Mrs. Melbourne Rambo at her home or at the newspaper office after this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Kimsey (Olivette Roles) spent the weekend with the Howard Farmens. They left Monday for Fall River Mills, Calif., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Frank Hunter is in Los Angeles at the present time visiting her two sons, Jerry and Bud and their families and also her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leon York.

Try MAURITA'S BEAUTY SHOP at Lyons for that permanent, shampoo and wave, or hairstyling. Telephone ULrick 9-2476. You'll like our work and service. Closed Wednesdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitaker spent Sunday in Portland with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Whitaker. The two couples attended the final Rose Festival events.

Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson and Mrs. Harold Wilson will be present at the Jaycette meeting this week to give a talk and demonstration on household storage. This week's hostess is Mrs. Harold Simes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay R. Mason were Portland visitors Thursday. They went on to The Dalles, and Cascade Locks for the weekend to visit over the weekend and returned to their home here Sunday night.

Dr. and Mrs. John Reid, Frances and Warren, left Monday for their annual vacation trip to Galveston, Texas, where they will visit Mrs. Reid's parents. Dr. Reid plans to return in three weeks, but his family will remain for a longer stay. They almost decided to travel by way of New York City, but after obtaining plane tickets, were unable to secure any hotel reservations in the city on short notice, so the fares had to be cancelled.

Two old-time residents of Mill City visited at the Mary Hartman home Monday. They were Lottie Gentry of Salem and Emma Monroe of Albany. Mrs. Hartman had not seen Mrs. Monroe for over 45 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeFrates spent a week vacationing at Fawn, B. C. They had real good luck fishing stating they caught some nice two-pound lake trout. On their return trip they visited one day in Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Smith and two sons of Albuquerque, New Mexico have been visiting at the home of his parents, the J. P. Smiths, and his sister, Alice Smith. The group attended a family reunion out of town on Sunday, June 14.

Over-night guests of Mrs. J. F. Potter last week were Mr. and Mrs. Lufe Potter and two young granddaughters from Oregon City. Mrs. Potter spent the early part of this week at the home of her brother, Clyde Hill, of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kimmel were in Portland Sunday to view the Oregon Centennial. Doc states the exhibits they were able to see in the time spent there were impressive, but that the much publicized mural is a waste of "art" and money.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt were business visitors in Portland Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Moffatt's mother, Mrs. Otto Schultz, who left Saturday for Spokane, Wash., where she will visit a son, Marvin Schultz and family.

Sandra and Peggy Cooper, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Cooper are spending the week in Portland where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Anderson and children. The Andersons lived in Mill City during construction of Detroit dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harris from east of Gates were in today to have The Enterprise sent to their son, Oscar Harris, who is stationed with the Navy at San Diego. Oscar had written his parents stating he was kept busy with the training program.

Rev. Robert Roach is assisting as a counselor at the Presbyterian Camp at Silver Creek Falls this week. Also attending the session for Junior-High age young people are Mark Sneythe and John Kelly, this being Mark's second year at camp and John's fourth.

Visiting relatives and friends in Mill City Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Verne Webb from Sandpoint, Idaho. They were accompanied by their sons, Arthur and Arnold of the U. S. Navy and one of their buddies. The boys' ship was docked in Portland during the Rose Festival.

Miss Rosalie Scott, daughter of the Barney Scotts, has returned from her college work in religious education at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash. for her summer vacation. Miss Scott also carries a minor in music, and has been a featured soloist many times.

Rex Stevenson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Stevenson, fell on a pop bottle recently cutting the back of his head, and not only that, he ran a stick into his mouth at the same time. He appeared to be getting along all right but an abscess formed making it necessary for him to be taken to Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton.

A surprise visitor in town Sunday was Charles Wachter of Klamath Falls, who lived here many years ago in what is now the Louis Verbeck home. Having spent the past years in Reno, Nev., he is now driving a delivery-van for a truck-line in Klamath Falls, where his brother Joe, and family also live. After having coffee, he had "pot-luck" dinner with the Chas. Kellys. As for the rest of the Wachter family, all of whom attended school and are well-known here, Mrs. Nell Wachter is still in Crannell, Calif., where the elder brother, Ed, also lives. The fourth boy, William is in Honolulu. T. H. One of the girls, Mrs. Joe Knight (Mary Wachter) has been in San Diego, Calif. for many years, and the other daughter, Mrs. John Booth (Kathryn), and her husband have a dairy farm in Weed, Calif.

Miss Cara Lee Whitten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Whitten of Mill City, became a pledge of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority at the University of Oregon in Eugene, at a formal pledging ceremony May 18. Miss Whitten is a freshman at the University majoring in business.

Mill City friends and relatives have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howe of Portland, that they are parents of their first child, a son born Monday, June 15. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Howe of Mill City are the paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. James Barton are the maternal grandparents. The Bartons lived in Mill City during construction of Detroit dam.

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church has announced a two-o'clock tea to be held at Fellowship Hall this Thursday afternoon, June 18, with everyone welcome to attend. The Summer offering for medical work will be dedicated at that time by a special guest, Mrs. A. E. Archibald of Salem, who is World Service chairman for Presbyterial. A "baby sitting" service will be provided.

Mrs. A. R. Tohl spent Sunday at McMinnville visiting Mrs. Clark Booth, president of the Rivermead Golf club, and learned that her club would be interested in playing the Santiam Golf club in the near future. Next week, the Santiam club plays Oak Knoll, according to Mrs. Tohl. A group of Mill City ladies took a course of golf lessons and have been enjoying the sport very much. Included were Rosamond ReMine, Bette Kelle, Shirley Laird, Ruth Tohl, Gladys Marshall and her sister, Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Oderman (Donola Swain) of Gold Beach, Ore., and their children, Kathy and Jimmy, spent last week here with her parents, the James Swans, while Oderman was recuperating from an operation on his hand. Jimmy stayed on to spend a week or 10 days with his grandparents, and Kathy expects to visit later during bean-picking season. The Odermans and the George Gillenwaters (Winona Swan) all live in Gold Beach now, having moved up from Fortuna, Calif. The Gillenwater's daughter, Carol Jean, and family are at Monterey, near Fort Ord, where he is stationed, and the son, Bob, has been attending Humboldt State College.

E. H. McGrath of Mobile, Ala., is spending a month at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roger Nelson. He made the trip by plane. They were among those taking in the rose parade Saturday and were much impressed with the event. Other recent guests at the Nelson home were his daughter and Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harnish, Linda and Roger of Eagle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelson and Dennis, Miss Mryna Halvorsen and Ben Kelly of Salem.

The Gertrude Shoemaker Circle of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Susie Payne. Mrs. Arthur Hedge president, presided at the business meeting. A discussion was held on service projects for the group. Mrs. Lowell Cree was program leader. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were Meses. E. K. Fish, Glen Shelton, George Flook, Lowell Cree, Arthur Hedge and Mrs. Haynes. The July meeting will be a barbecue lunch at the home of Mrs. Fish.

Calling on friends here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Crosier and daughter, Zeta, of Oakland, Calif., but formerly of Mill City during the building of Detroit Dam. They had come north to Eugene to witness the graduation of their son and brother, Brooks Crosier, from the University of Oregon. Miss Sherry Hansen also attended the commencement ceremonies. The Crosier family was to leave Monday for a trip to Nebraska, their home state, for a visit with relatives and to attend a reunion of classmates.

Ken Epperson, elder son of the Roy Eppersons, has been at home on leave from the Army for the past two weeks, but departs again this Friday for Fort Dix, New Jersey, from where he expects to be sent to Lybia (North Africa) and will be stationed at Tripoli. Young Epperson took his basic training at Fort Ord, later being sent to Fort Belvoir, Virginia, where he studied topographical and survey work at a special engineering school. A small engineers' group is being sent on the Lybian coast, the job is expected to take at least one and one-half years.

When you need
PRINTING
Mill City Enterprise

Order Strawberries Now
Why go to all the work and fuss of preparing strawberries when you can order them from us.
Fresh sugared sliced or whole Strawberries
BUY A 30 POUND TIN FOR ONLY $7.50
Just right for Jam making or repacking for freezing.
Orders must be phoned in to us on or before THURSDAY, JUNE 25th.
Delivery Date Here, Friday, June 26
HIRTE'S LOCKERS
Phone 7005 Mill City

A New Tire Service For The North Santiam Canyon
Full Line Of Pennsylvania Premium Truck And Passenger Tires
Complete Road Service FOR ALL TRUCKERS
Phone Mill City 2051
Guaranteed Repair Service on All Tires
PECK BROTHERS
Canyon Headquarters
Jack's Richfield Station
Highway 22 Mill City Phone 2051

FATHER'S DAY SPECIALS
Electric Hand Mixers in colors
regular $19.95 $16.95
Steam and Dry Iron
regular $17.95 $14.95
(How About It Wives)
A. and M. TOMAN
Phone 1824 Mill City, Ore.

Television and Radio Service
All Work Guaranteed
Service Calls Made Promptly
EVENINGS ONLY
Call 303 Mill City
FREE TUBE CHECKING
Mill City Pharmacy
or at Residence
CANYON TV SERVICE
Art Bassett, Prop.
353 S. E. Grove Mill City

Take Father Out To Eat On His Day
Sunday, June 21st
We'll have a Special Menu for Him on that Day and he'll enjoy eating At Cherry's Country Kitchen in Mill City.
Cherry's Country Kitchen
Formerly Mar Dean Cafe
Highway 22 Mill City, Oregon

Milk Delivered to Your Door

SAVE ON YOUR MILK BILL
We are still selling Milk at the same old price. No Price Raise Here at your Home Dairy.
Get your Johnson Grade A Dairy Milk delivered at your home in glass jugs or bottles. Our Milk is Pure.
Quarts . . . . . 22c
Half Gallon Jug . . . . . 43c
Gallon Jug . . . . . 80c
Starting Saturday, June 20
We will Deliver Milk to the Gates Area.
Telephone Your Orders To 1302 Now.
Johnson's Grade A Dairy
Phone 1302 1252 S. E. 4th Mill City