

Rev. Gene Davidson is acting as acting counsellor at the Free Methodist Church camp at Camp Wyeth, near Cascade Locks. Among those attending the camp recently were Cheri and Val Challenger.

Mrs. Elmer Shaw received word Saturday of the death of her brother, Fred Bernatzki at his home at Kinsley, Kan. Although his death was sudden no details were given. Mrs. Shaw's brother, Raymond from Drain flew to Kansas for the funeral. Mrs. Shaw visited in Kansas last January.

Mrs. Marlin Cole Heads
Gates Homecoming Group

GATES—The Homecoming of the former students of the old Gates High school was held Sunday and attended by a large crowd, and the third Sunday in August next year has been set for another annual roundup. Mrs. Marlin Cole (Lorena Devine) was elected president, and Mrs. Clare Henness (Norma Lee Blackburn) secretary. Edward Romey of Waldport offered to get out printed notices in time for next year's event, hoping to reach many not present this year.

The first class graduating from Gates High was the 1923-24 group, of which Mrs. Glenn Henness was a member, and Mrs. Frank Powell of Silverton was a teacher. Both were present for this occasion, and enjoyed talking over the past. Others included Mrs. Julia Stoffel and daughter, Mrs. Verna Hunziker both of Portland, Mrs. George Stafford, Mrs. LeRoy Miller (Josephine Powell), of Portland; Edward Romey and family of Waldport, Daniel Romey and family from Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Cole, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Etzel of Fern Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Truman Tibbets, Lyons; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farman, Mill City; Wallace Bevier, Arthur Lake, Marshall Lake, Bob Oliver and wife and three daughters, Jack and Ed Oliver and many others. Names of many were added to the list, and their addresses noted where possible. All were enthusiastic about returning next year, when it is hoped many others can be notified also.

WELL CHILD CONFERENCE

The well child conference and immunization clinic will be held at Santiam Union High school from 1 to 3:30 Tuesday, August 25. Call Mrs. Herbert Hutchinson at 524 for appointments to see Dr. Stone.

Mary Gay Fleetwood
Entertains Roach Children
At Farewell Party

Little Miss Mary Gay Fleetwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood gave a farewell luncheon for Susan and Robbie Roach, children of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Roach, last week at her home. The Roaches left Sunday for their new home at Tacoma.

Mrs. Roach cared for the Fleetwood children last year while Mrs. Fleetwood taught in Santiam High school.

Attending the luncheon were Ronnie Podrabsky, Wendy and Liz Moore, Tony, Dale and Jerry Grant, Mike and Jerry Carrick, Mary Gay and her young brother, Willard, Daisy Geddes, Mrs. Fleetwood and Mrs. Roach. Mrs. Fleetwood baked a cake for the occasion in the shape of a lamb, which was chocolate coated.

Gifts were presented to Susan and Robbie at the party.

Kanyon Kapers

Alan Tuers, Donald Cree and David Jones spent the weekend at Breitenbush.

Mr. and Mrs. George Laird spent Monday with friends on a fishing excursion at Winchester Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin McDowell and children, attended a picnic Sunday at Breitenbush for employees of Phillip Ford in Stayton.

Mrs. A. F. Roda of Oakridge and her mother, Mrs. Serena Jackson and sister, Mrs. Ethel Clymer of Redding, Calif., were here for a week's visit, while Mrs. Roda was looking after property interests here.

Guests last week at the Jack Carey home were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wallace of Portland. Mrs. Wallace is a niece of Mrs. Carey and both she and her husband are teachers in the Portland schools.

Bob Herman, who has served in the Navy for the past four years is now back in Mill City and plans to make his home here if he can find work. Mr. and Mrs. Herman and two children are presently staying at the home of her parents, the Ace Underwoods.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fenner of Eugene are visiting this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bess Vandermeer, who is on vacation this week from her duties at the Red & White Store. Mrs. Arnold Syverson is working full time at the store during Mrs. Vandermeer's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brent spent last week on a motor trip to many interesting places in Eastern Oregon. While away they did a lot of fishing and Larry said Saturday that it was the best fishing trip he had had for 25 years. They brought home their full limit of fish from the outing.

Mrs. Earnest Copeland and children visited at the Louis Rada home last week, Mr. Copeland coming for his family Sunday to return them to their home at Springfield. Mrs. Copeland has been assisting with the care of her father, Louie Rada, who is seriously ill.

Mill City friends received word this week that George Veteto, former Mill City resident, now living in Seaside, has had another stroke and is in bed at the present time. Mrs. Veteto said they would be forced to leave their jobs at Seaside as he would have to have considerable rest. His eyes have been affected by the stroke. He had surgery on his eyes last year, and had been getting along just fine.

Mrs. M. G. Rambo and Laura Jo left Thursday for Ashland to visit with George Rambo, returning home Sunday afternoon. While in Ashland they took in a play at the beautiful new Shakesperian Theatre, "The Twelfth Night." The huge outdoor theatre has been playing to capacity crowds all season. The building itself, which is at one end of the outdoor amphitheatre, is a perfect replica of old English theatres. The setting is so perfect and the players so outstanding that for an evening one is transported back in time and thought. On the return trip they stopped at Roseburg to view the recent fire and explosion disaster. Some of the ruins are still smouldering, although the clean-up work is progressing rapidly.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ellingson for two weeks are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hopstad of Glasgow, Mont. The Ellingsons took the visitors on a tour of the State Capitol buildings Sunday. A family dinner was served Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hopstad, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hopstad and son of Vancouver, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ellingson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Podrabsky, and son.

The "evening circle" of the Presbyterian church honored Mrs. Robert Roach with a coffee at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Paul Helgath, on Thursday afternoon. The gift of a kitchen towel set was presented to the guest of honor, who is moving to Tacoma, Wash. Attending the affair were Elsie Ohmart, Joan Eakin, Eleanor LaMunyan, Florence More, Evangelyn Fleetwood, Jane Roach and Edna Helgath.
