Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and two children from Mehama, went to Salem Sunday to the home of Mr. Shepherd's sister, Mrs. Lottie Councilman. Mrs. Councilman and Mr. Shepherd were celebrating their birthdays with a family dinner.

Friday evening Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeman were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore in Lyons. The dinner was in observance of their wedding anniversaries. The Williams' was August 22, Moore's, September 2 and Freeman's September 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John ReMine returned to their home in Pasadena, Calif. Monday after visiting with his brother and family, the Shields ReMines.

Mrs. Russell Kelly and family have purchased a home in Portland and moved there last week. Their new address is 2338 N. E. 32nd Ave. She plans to sell her home here.

Friends will be interested to hear of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nelson at Sandpoint, Idaho. The baby was born August 25 and weighed 7 pounds 7 ounces and has been named Eric Thomas. Mrs. Nelson is the former Doris Craig. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Craig also of Sandpoint.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Rambo, Laura Jo and Susan Whitsett spent Sunday picnicking on the Metolius river with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Henderson. The men spent the afternoon fishing and the women, between visiting, spent the time fighting bees which gathered in swarms. In fact the picnic spot was moved twice, several miles apart but it was found that the bees were all up and down the river.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henderson from Salem and Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer from Bend. Mrs. Moore is still under treatment for injuries suffered in her recent fall from their pickup. She is getting along satisfactorily, however.

Kathleen Story Honored At Pre-Nuptial Shower

Mrs. Kathleen Story was honored Wednesday evening at a bridal shower given by the ladies of the Christian Church. Mrs. Elmer Shaw was chairman for the affair.

The gifts were placed in a wishing well covered with ivy and pink roses. The serving table was centered with a small wishing well, a bride and tapers in shades of deep rose and pink. Bowls of pink petunias and ivy were used about the rooms.

For entertainment one game was played under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Williams. Mrs. Robert Moore, accompanied by Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson, sang two numbers, "Bless This House," and "I'm Wishing." Mrs. Story then opened her many lovely gifts assisted by her two daughters, Christine and Kathy Story, Charlene Cole and Mrs. Leo Poole.

Refreshments of cake, coffee and iced tea were served. Mrs. Kenneth Chance and Mrs. Rose Schultz presided.

Corsages of glads were presented to Mrs. Story and her mother, Mrs. James Poole.

Present or sending gifts were: Mmes. Kathleen Story, James Poole, William Poole and daughter, Jenny from Aumsville. Una White, James Putman, C. A. French, Glen Shelton, Rose Schultz, Stanley Williams, William Shepherd, Edith Mason, Clarence Howe, Joe Lalack, Fred Grimes, Doris Morris, Milton Roten, Herbert Whitaker, Lowell Cree, William McClintock, Robert Moore, Floyd Shepherd, Eldon Hutchinson, Charles Kelly, Melbourne Rambo, Burton Boroughs, Donald Carlson, J. Kimmel, Bernadina Vivier, Elmer Shaw, Francis Bodeker, Jack Duggan, Floyd Bassett, James Swanson, Don Sheythe, Hilda Olson, Mildred Jeeter, Nat Willis, Charlie Stewart, Jack Colburn, Anne Hirte, Jerry Pittman, Leo Poole, Dick Parker, John Swan, James Swan, Frank Hayes, Agnes Dez rates, Lawrence Brent, Beryl Lamb, Jack Scott, Don Moffatt, Mildred Wood, Richard Corbett, Richard Freeman, Ross Poole, Franklin McDowell, Arthur Hedge, E. K. Fish, Hattie Cole, Westgaard, Albin Cooper, Edsel Croan and Misses Audrey Shaw, Christine and Kathy Story and Charlene Cole.

Mrs. Story and Robert Pratt will be married Saturday evening, September 5 at the Mill City Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo and Laura Jo accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cnamp of Salem, returned Saturday from a vacation trip which took them over about 1500 miles of scenic drives. They went to Wallowa Lake, down the Grand Rhonde Canyon into Lewiston, Idaho and then to Spokane and Colville, Wash., where they formerly lived. On the return home they came down the Roosevelt Lake Highway, going to Lake Cnean, near the Canadian border. In spite of some outstanding scenic spots the drive back down the Columbia river in Oregon looked the best.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaine Tomlinson and small children of Smith Center, Kansas, were re-ent guests at the homes of Mr Tomlinson's uncles, Don Clark and Verne Clark. The Tomlinsons traveled as far north as Vancouver, B. C., and stopped again on their return. They were highly pleased with the entertainment provided by their hosts, which included a trip to the Oregon Beaches, a trip to Breitenbush Hot Springs and sight-seeing trips through some local mills. The last evening they were here the young people enjoyed a wiener roast at the Don Clark's outdoor fireplace.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacGregor were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Engelgau and son of The Dalles. They are former residents and while here visited their many friends.

Woody Heller returned from Greenland Wednesday of last week. He had been working on a construction job there for the past several months. He had to leave his job because of a broken hand, which would not heal in Greenland. His doctor said lack of oxygen in the air in Greenland made injuries heal slowly. Woody had planned on working at least two more months before returning home.

4—THE MILL CITY ENTERPRISE THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1959

Mr. and Mrs. Don Paul and son, Alexander returned home Saturday from a three month tour of Europe. They docked in New York August 29 and left the following Saturday as the car which they had purchased in Germany came in on the next ship. They left New York Saturday, August 22 and arrived home the 29th. Mrs. Paul states they had planned this trip for five years and it fully came up to all their expectations and one that will long live in their memories. Mr. and Mrs. Paul visited friends and relatives in England; some of whom they had not seen for almost 20 years. Many readers of The Enterprise have followed Mr. Paul's frequent letters with interest during the months they were traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. James Swan accompanied by Mrs. Altha Grimes and Miss Daisy Geddes were at the Mt. Pleasant church a week ago when the 105th anniversary of the founding of the Presbyterian church there was observed. It was of particular interest to Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Swan as they spent their girlhood days in that vicinity. The church is located between Lyons and Kington.
