Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howe and Bart, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Howe. Miss Sigrun Grimstead, teacher in the Mill City Elementary school has returned to her duties here after spending the summer with her mother in Seattle, Wash. She took a trip to Los Angeles during her vacation. She will again reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McGraff have returned to their home in Palm Beach, Fla., after visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roger Nelson. Among the places of interest the group visited was the famed Century Drive out of Bend. The Florida guests were favorably impressed by the beautiful scenery.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Poole were Mr. and Mrs. William Eckhart and daughter, Lindy of Albany and Mrs. Al Nesbitt. The women discussed the job of editing the Northwestern Toastmistress publication. Mrs. Nesbitt and Mrs. Poole are co-editors. Mrs. Eckart, a member of the Albany Toastmistress club, is active in the work at all levels.

Several members of the Poole family chartered a boat one day last week out of Westport, Wash., with Mrs. Richard Corbett (Dolores Poole) catching a 38 lb. salmon. The boat was met by a crew of cameramen from one of the Seattle TV stations after crew members wired ashore and Dolores (and her big salmon) will appear on the TV screens. Others enjoying the trip were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Poole, Leo Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Poole and Mr. Jones all from Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corbett from Portland. The trip was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Poole of Seattle who also went on the expedition.

Recent guests at the home of the Don Carlsons were Mr. and Mrs. Al Lee of Vodega Bay, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Galbraith of Portland, Mrs. Aley Madden of Lone Rock. The Carlsons spent part of their vacation visiting with friends at Raymond, Wash., and enjoyed clam digging on the beach at Grayland.

Visitors Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd were his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reams from Prineville.

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Williams and four children visited the Oregon Beaches the first of last week. The Williams' recently moved to Mill City from Idaho and this was the childrens' first visit to the ocean.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grant and sons were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Melton, Melody, Cindy and Tammy from Silverton. Mr. Melton managed Ideal Food Market here at one time.

Mrs. Earnest Preston from Longview, Wash., is spending the week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeman and children. She is also visiting at the homes of her brothers, Clarence and Morris Howe.

Herman Mason, custodian at Santiam High school during the past several years, and who retired from that job, is now working at Frank's mill and says he likes it fine. He said he decided he wasn't ready for retirement after all.

Recently deer have been seen on Kingwood avenue. Last Friday night one visited the garden at the Elmer Bauman home and the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Meacham and Harry White spent the weekend hiking into Hanks Lake, Hunt's Lake and Hunt's Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCoy and children are moving this week to Billings, Mont., where he will be employed by Consolidated Freightways on their transcontinental line. He has been employed in the logging industry for the past several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Dusty) Farrier and family have spent the summer at Diamond Lake where they had a string of 11 horses which they rented out for rides and pack trips. Mr. Farrier will remain at the lake for a time, perhaps through the hunting season as he has several hunting parties lined up for trips. Mrs. Farrier brought two of the horses back with her and they plan on either wintering the rest of them in Mill City or adding more to the string and taking them to Saratoga Springs for trips there. The Farriers plan on returning to Diamond Lake next year with their increased number of horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson and family of Coos Bay, spent the week end visiting here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Draper.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swan were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill of Rickreall, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Price of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Swan and family of Portland.

Mrs. John Swan and Daisy Geddes attended a Pioneer's gathering at Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church in Aumsville Sunday.
