Kathleen Story and Robert Pratt United In Pretty Church Rites

Pink and white was the color scheme for the pretty autumn wedding Saturday evening uniting in marriage Mrs. Kathleen Story and Robert Pratt. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Poole and the groom's mother is Mrs. Andrew Anderson of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Tall baskets of pink gladiolus and white mums and pink and white wedding bells decorated the Christian church sanctuary where the double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Stanley Williams, pastor of the church.

Lawrence Poole of Salem, brother of the bride sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ross Poole, of Stayton, the bride's aunt, was organist.

Lighting the candles were the bride's two daughters, Christine and Kathy Story. They wore pink and blue dresses of nylon eyelet over taffeta. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Mrs. Richard Corbett of Portland, the bride's only sister, was matron of honor. She wore a blue brocaded satin waltz-length gown with rhinestone trim. With it she wore matching satin shoes. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Married Here Saturday

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz-length gown of blush pink brocaded satin. The dress had three-quarter length sleeves, scoop neckline and rhinestone trim. She wore matching satin shoes. She carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid with white streamers tied with bouvardia.

John Muir stood with Mr. Pratt as best man. Ushers were Leo Poole, the bride's brother and Bob Oliver.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a brown dress with brown accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception in the church social rooms followed the ceremony.

The four-tiered wedding cake was made by John Muir, the best man. Mrs. Muir cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Bernard Bennett.

The serving table was centered by an arrangement of pink roses guarded by white tapers. Mrs. Lester Poole, of Seattle, presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Lawrence Poole of Salem poured punch.

Kathy Story passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Leo Poole and Christine Story.

All flower arrangements were made by Miss Shereen Muir. Ladies of the church arranged the reception. The couple will make their home in Mill City. The groom is employed by Simpsons of Lyons.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. Andrew Anderson of Council Bluffs, Ia. the groom's sister, Mrs. Bruce Brown from Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. William Poole and family, Oregon City; V. T. McAllister, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory, Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Poole, Stayton; Miss Dorothy Poole, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Poole, Stayton; Mrs. Arnold Lungens, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kelm and family of Salem; Mrs. Carl Truex, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. John Goldsworthy, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frazer, Eugene; Mrs. C. C. Stuthert, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Poole, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Poole, Salem; Mrs. Ratcliffe, Stayton; William Poole, Aumsville, and Mrs. Clara Bechler, and family, Dallas.

Lois Evans and Rex Herron Wed in Salem

Miss Lois Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans of Salem and Rex Herron, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Herron, of Mill City were married August 29 at the Central Lutheran church in Salem.

The 8:30 o'clock double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Grindal. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church for the candlelight service. Odesa Melby played the wedding music.

The bride wore a waltz-length dress of chantilly lace over satin with elbow length sleeves, scoop neckline, and full skirt. The French illusion finger length veil was arranged from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a white orchid on a white Bible with pink and white streamers.

Mrs. Owen E. Garland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a full-skirted dress of pink nylon lace over taffeta, and a pink headband with a frill of pink net.

Miss Donalee Oliver of Gates was bridesmaid. Her dress was similar to the matron of honors. Both carried cascade bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The bride's cousin, Caroline Peterson, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon dress and a flower headpiece and carried a basket of pink and white blooms.

Bruce Gordon was best man and Terry Muir, groomsmen. Ronald Evans, brother of the bride, and Allen Haywood were ushers.

A reception followed in the church parlor.

For traveling the bride wore a yellow full-skirted dress with black jacket and black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The couple will live at Marion Forks where the groom is employed at the fish hatchery.
