GATES

Mrs. H. N. Wilson
 Mrs. Ruth Hess returned home Tuesday evening, following a vacation at Napa, Calif., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cann, former Gates residents. Mrs. Cann and her mother, Etta Reed, brought Mrs. Hess home, and are looking after the Cann property and trailer court here, before returning to Napa. While in California Mrs. Hess enjoyed a trip to San Francisco, saw Cliff House and other interesting sights.

Mr. and Mrs. James Budlong and two small sons, recently of Idanha, are living in the Jess Butler home, near the schoolhouse. Budlong is employed in logging in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bentley of Lyons, were luncheon guests at the home of Maude Davis Tuesday. Mrs. Bentley and Mrs. Davis both taught at the Fox Valley school before it was discontinued.

Alex Boynton celebrated his 91st birthday anniversary last Monday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel. Although he has not been in the best of health, he enjoyed the day and visitors. Two nieces, Miss Etta White and Miss Helen Ingrey, both of Portland, and Mrs. Elsie Barnhart of Independence, were out of town guests. Mrs. Melvin Newberg and small daughter Toni, and small friend Christine Ohrt of Mill City, and Mrs. Boynton, all enjoyed the party. Mrs. Volkel served ice cream and cake. The cake was baked by Mrs. Newberg.

Mrs. Gale Carey and two children of Stayton were Saturday guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone.

Ruth Hess moved last weekend from the Redwood Court to a small house at the Gates Trailer Court, where she will have charge of the rentals for Mrs. Edna Cann, who now resides in Napa, Calif.

Jasper Palmer and Alan Nickerson, who have been living in units at the Redwood Court, moved to California over the weekend. Nickerson plans to enter the Vetran's Hospital there for permanent residence. He has not been well since his leg fracture last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Novack are leaving this week for a much earned vacation trip to Hanna, Okla., where they will visit their daughter, Connie Skinner.

Arlin Rothauge, student minister of the Gates Community church is again attending Northwestern Christian college in Eugene, after spending the summer here, working in the woods. Much was accomplished at the church during his summer weekends, especially in the new Sunday school quarters. He will serve the church on Sundays again this winter.

It was a wet, rainy, weekend for the cone pickers, but nonetheless many seek were brought in to the Brisbin pickup station, and many more will be brought in during the next few weeks. It was heard that a couple working up the Canyon heard an unusual noise in the brush. Her husband investigated and found a black bear caught in a highly camouflaged trap. Thoman returned home for his rifle and shot the bear and removed it from the trap, which had no markings or warnings. It would seem a highly hazardous thing to do at this time of year, when cone pickers, many of them accompanied by children are in the woods—not to mention deer season just round the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carey and two sons and their small friend, all of Albany, arrived Sunday to help his mother, Mrs. Velma Carey celebrate her birthday. Gifts and the traditional cake and ice cream were enjoyed following a dinner. Also present was another son, James Carey. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Carey, Donna and Bruce and Donald Carey, all of Stayton called to offer congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sauve and daughter, Sheryl, of Salem, stopped at the Ned Richards home Sunday, on their return from Bend. Mrs. Richards was presented a lovely fall bouquet of red leaves, green scotch broom and Eastern Oregon sage, full of golden bloom—doubly appreciated by Mrs. Richards, 80, who seldom gets further from home than her own front porch.

Carol Sue Ball spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ball, returning Sunday to OSC at Corvallis, where she rooms at Hawry Hall with a girl from Mississippi.

Billy Kershaw has just won a trip to the Portland Air Base, with lunch and a sightseeing tour on October 10. This to be provided by the Capital Journal in Salem, for their carriers who get new subscriptions.

Teachers Honored at Mari-Linn School

LYONS—The PTC honored the teachers of the Mari-Linn school with a reception Tuesday evening held in the all-purpose room of the school. The executive committee served refreshments. This gave the parents an opportunity to meet the teachers with whom their children will associate this school year. A large crowd was present and each teacher was introduced by the principal Robert Schuur, and responded with short talks. Mr. Schuur gave an interesting talk.

The next regular and business meeting will be held Tuesday evening, October 6, with Robert Moore, president in charge. Stanley Brown from Lebanon will be the speaker of the evening. He will talk and show pictures on retarded children.

IMPERIAL ELECTRIC BASEBOARD

Electric heating as it should be!

And that, ladies and gentlemen, means a heater emitting generous quantities of heat but at the same time maintaining low temperatures on exposed surfaces. Sound contradictory? Well, the Imperial is an unusual electric baseboard heater. Its trim contours add to the beauty of any room. Immediate heat at the touch of the individual room control. Mail the coupon below for free information on these and a host of other great features (including LOW-COST installation and operation).
