Our group consists of Peggy Cooper, Sandra Warner, Carol McCall, Kathleen Duggan, Linda Olmstead and Cynthia Cobine.

We have an interesting program planned for this year—Kathleen Duggan, reporter.

Here's what Mrs. Wm. Shackelford of Albany says about electric living...

"ELECTRICITY IS A MARVELOUS BARGAIN... ALL THE SERVICE WE USE COSTS JUST 39¢ A DAY!"

"I'm really amazed at the low cost of electric service compared to the amount of work it does for me. We have 35 different appliances—that means that we pay just a little over a penny a day to use each one. You surely can't find a better bargain than that."

Yes, your PP&L electricity heads the list of today's big values. Just think of the dozens of jobs it does for you 'round the clock. Be sure you're living better electrically, morning, noon and night. See your electric appliance dealer today.
