GATES

Mrs. H. N. Wilson

Weather was perfect for the little "Spooks and Goblins" of Gates to go calling Saturday night, and no one reported anything but just good fun. In fact some home folks got the biggest surprise of all when a polite "boy Spook" opened a special sack he was carrying and announced "I have something for you", then handed the occupants fresh home-made doughnuts. Nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey and three boys of Stayton, visited Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Velma Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. Layton Gosnell and son of Roseburg arrived Sunday to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. Laura Joaquin.

Hollis Turnidge came home with a big 4-point Elk on Saturday. He had been camped in the Breitenbush area with Stan Walzak and Ed Calkins, both of Mill City. The heavy animal was packed out first, then he returned for the rest of the gear.

Some young friends gathered at the Bill Pennick home after the football game last Friday night, to surprise Patsy Pennick on her 14th birthday. Miss Carol Schaefer, Leatta McCall and Frances Reid, of Mill City helped her celebrate with a slumber party. Games and music, gift opening and eats were also enjoyed by her brother Billy Pennick, and his friend Warren Reid, Mill City.

Mrs. Gwenn Schaefer, Mrs. Beulah Bowers and Mrs. Olive Barnhardt took advantage of the Monday holiday at school to attend Visitation Day at C. E. in Monmouth. Mrs. Glenn Henness accompanied them as far as Salem, where she spent the day shopping and visiting relatives.

Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and her mother, Mrs. Chris Knutson of Mill City, spent Monday in Eugene at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Jensen and family. The group took time out to attend the "Christmas Fair" put on by the Lane County Extension Service. Exhibits by six units, plus commercial displays by florists and others, were outstanding, and the women brought home many 'ideas'.

The new Gates Furniture Store is a very busy place, and fast filling up with new and used merchandise. Ed Willig has about completed his logging operations in the area above Marion Forks, and is transferring his equipment. He resided in the Kitchen Motel while working here, but has a home at Monitor.

We'd like to correct a typographical error in the story of identical twins in last week's paper. The boys names are David (not Davis) and Darrell, and there are two sets of them in the Mehama School.

The Gates Elementary School is planning a White Elephant Sale for the first part of January, and donations from any of the homes in this area will be appreciated. This is an annual event, and for a very worthy cause.

Jack Richards of Stayton, spent Friday at the home of his cousin, Ned Richards. He was accompanied by Mrs. Glover, his housekeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey spent a few days at their home here this week before returning to his job at Oakridge. Guests for the weekend were their daughter and son-in-law,

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Funk and sons, Pat and Mike, of Portland.

Guests this weekend at the Walter Thomas home are their daughter, Juanita, who is employed in Portland, and Mrs. Ephriam Thomas, his mother, also of Portland. Walter Thomas, Jr., who has just finished a training course at Ft. Ord, Calif., has been sent to Ft. Dix, New Jersey, and expects a new assignment overseas shortly.

Edmond Davis of Tacoma, spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. Maude Davis. They visited relative in Salem the first of the week.

Edwin Watkins spent a three day leave from Larson AFB, Washington, with his parents here. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Al Yankus of Mill City had a weekend of hunting in the Three Fingered Jack area recently! No deer but an enjoyable trip.

There were 43 members of the Kelle Clan present at a recent reunion in a park at Quincy, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kelle represented the Gates group.

Next Sunday will be "Rally Day" at the Gates Community Church and a special invitation is extended to friends and oldtimers in this area to join the congregation for both Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. and Church Services at 11:00 a. m. A pot luck dinner will be served directly after church services, in the cafeteria of the old High School building.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Allen visited at the home of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Guntle at Molalla, on Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Blumenstein was in Salem Monday to attend funeral services for her sister, Mrs. Alice Stivers, a former nurse, who passed away October 29th in Salem.

Mrs. Richard Parker was confined to her home a couple of days last week on account of the "flu", but was able to return to her teaching job at Mehama on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cline and daughter Carol Ann, and Henry Hunniwell all of Sweet Home, were guests Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Till Rains. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Toepfer and family and Carl Schmitz, all of Coon Hollow also arrived Saturday, and the men folks started a repair job on a chicken house. Toepfer and Schmitz returned Monday to complete the roof which was much appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Rains, Gates oldtimers.

Mrs. Bertha Christensen of Rosebud, Alberta, Canada was a visitor at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Peder Pederson last week. Mrs. Christensen had been visiting at the home of her son, Lorne Feckley at Stayton, getting acquainted with a new granddaughter. The Pedersons and their guests visited in Stayton Saturday evening, the lady planning to return to Canada on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peder Pederson, who operate the Westway Service station, report the birth of a new grandson on October 15th, born at Tolley, N. D.—it's their 19th!

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelle were hosts Saturday evening for a potluck Hawaiian Lua dinner at their home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Stevens, and Mr. and Mrs. Albin Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Ace Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Lenthal Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hume and Harry White, all of Mill City.

The Gates Campfire Girls thank all those who donated deer hides for their use.

Non-Surgical Method Cures Hemorrhoids Painlessly

A relatively painless, non-surgical method of treating hemorrhoids (piles) is working therapeutic miracles for thousands who suffer from rectal and colon disorders.

A recently developed electronic treatment is proving more effective than surgery, with none of the after effects of surgery.

The treatment requires no hospitalization or confinement. Patients show marked improvement almost immediately, and uncomplicated cases can be frequently corrected in as little as 10 days.
