Roof Fire Welcomes
 Gates Residents
 Back from Trip

GATES—Mrs. Arthur Blackburn and her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Ball, returned home about 11 a. m. Thursday from an extended trip through Wyoming and Arkansas where they visited several relatives not seen for 12 years or more. They returned by train, and were met in Salem by another daughter, Mrs. Clare Henness.

At home they received the warmest of welcomes, however, with the Gates Fire department standing by for a roof fire at the Blackburn home, where they had been called about 10:15. The fire is believed to have started in a defective flu, and spread over the upstairs with considerable roof damage. Quick action by the firemen kept it from being a complete loss.

The fire alarm was turned in by someone passing on the highway, and was unknown to Mr. Blackburn or his daughter-in-law Mrs. Charles Blackburn who lives in a house at the rear.

Much needed rest by the travelers will be delayed until the cleanup from water damage, and repairs can be made, but they report there is "no place like home," and after seeing the winter storms in Wyoming, and snow in Idaho, Oregon looked wonderful!

Grand Worthy Advisor Visits Rainbows Here

At a special meeting recently, Marilyn Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls was visited by their Grand Worthy Advisor, Miss Christine Paisley. This was her official visit. She was accompanied by the Grand Deputy, Mrs. Dorothea Scarth.

On the refreshment committee were Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson, Mrs. Jerry Pittam and Mrs. Roy Pate.

Funeral Services at Vail for Mrs. Ratzburg

GATES—Funeral services were held at Vail Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Leah Ratzburg, former Gates resident, who passed away Friday at the Malheur Nursing home in Vale, where she had been a patient for several months. She would have been 72 on November 21. She was preceded in death by her husband, Paul Ratzburg, about three years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Hodges of Vale, Mrs. Marie DeSantis, Los Angeles, Cal., one son, Herbert (Bud) Ratzburg of Seattle and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Duane Wagner
 New Secretary for Mothers Club

MEHAMA—Mrs. Austin Longfellow and Mrs. Gerald Rockwell were hostesses for the meeting of the Mehama School Mothers club at the school house Wednesday evening, October 4. About 15 mothers were present for the evening. The resignation of Mrs. Walter Johnson as club secretary was read and accepted and Mrs. Duane Wagner was elected to fill out the unexpired term. Other items of business were transacted and plans were made for the drawing on the basket which has been on display at Golieth's for the past few weeks. The drawing was held Friday noon with Mrs. E. J. Hughes winning the basket and contents. The money received from sale of chances on the basket will be used to purchase curtains for the stage at the school house.

The hostess served refreshments after the meeting.

GATES

By Mrs. H. N. Wilson

Mrs. Beulah Bowes and Mrs. Glenn Henness were Portland visitors Saturday, stopping at the home of Mrs. Bowes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schobert, and meeting a former Portland friend, Ruth Miller, who had flown in from New York for a short stay.

Firemen Called Out

The Gates Fire department got a call at 11 p. m. Saturday to the Russ Lake home west of Gates, up on the prairie. Volunteers responded immediately and quick action stopped a fire in the roof which had started near the flu. It would have spread fast under the strong winds then blowing.

Taking Farm Census

Mrs. Glenn Henness attended classes for census takers in Salem on three days last week. She started Monday making house calls for the U. S. Census of Agriculture for 1959. Her territory includes Elkhorn, and Mehama to Idanha and is to be completed as soon as possible. Citizens have already received the census form by mail, and many details can be filled in ahead of time to assist the census takers.

Joseph Bowes took a bad fall from a load of logs last Friday while working in the Monument Peak area. X-rays showed no broken bones, but bruises and sprains.

Mrs. Velma Carey spent the weekend in Albany at the home of her son, Norman Carey and family. She enjoyed a "looksee" through Toyland with her grandsons, Ronnie and Brad.

Mrs. Harry Keiser has returned from a weekend visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Margie Powellson and family, who now live at Elgin.

Gates folks are looking forward to the showing of the Centennial film by Forrest Holman this Saturday evening, November 14 at 7:30 at the Gates gym. Many local events taken in re-

Gates Community Church Hold Special
 Rally Day Sunday

GATES—A special Rally day program was enjoyed at the Gates Community church on Sunday. A pot luck dinner was given in the high school building at noon, followed by a business meeting and program at the church in the afternoon. Arlin Rothauge, pastor, conducted the services, being assisted by the following students from Northwestern Christian college in Eugene: Miss Marian Brown, organist; Doris Jewett, soloist; Ron Coulter, who entertained as ventriloquist; Mitsui Nakachi, an Okinawan, youth speaker, who read scripture in his native tongue also; Dennie Bixler, who led devotions; and Miss Sigrid Stavney.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams of Mill City, were special guests.

Low Calorie Meals
 To Be Topic at Next Extension Meeting

GATES—Project leaders Mrs. Glen Henness and Mrs. Hattie Cole will have the topic "Low Calorie Meals" at the next meeting of the Santiam Canyon Home Extension unit at 10:30 next Wednesday morning, November 18th in the Gates Women's clubhouse. (Please note this meeting is one week and one day ahead of time on account of the Thanksgiving holiday.)

A complete meal will be prepared and served to all attending this meeting, with each guest paying a small fee to cover most of supplies. The ladies were in Salem November 12 to learn more details and instructions for this demonstration.
